Will Rogers Remarks:

BOSTON, June 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Mr. Hoover is going to sign. I will give him credit—he didn't stall around and keep everybody in doubt. He just lined up like it was the old swimmin' hole, shut his eyes, gritted his teeth and is pouncing in. You see the whole thing come up for no reason at all. During the heat of the campaign when Norris switched to Smith, why Borah and a bunch of them got panicky, rushed to Mr. Hoover and told him in order to save the farmer vote to promise to call a special session and revise the tariff. He naturally did as advised; now he can't find out who wanted it revised, not even Borah and his gang. Norris's support which scared them, was him and his immediate family.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PLEA MADE BY A.B.FALL FOR PENSION

Ex-Secretary of Interior Asks for $40 Per Month as Poverty Threatens

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, has applied to the government for a pension for military service during the Spanish-American War.

The application of Fall, who was a captain, is on file at the Bureau of Pensions. Bureau officials said his service apparently entitles him to a pension.

Fall is at liberty on bond on his conviction of receiving a bribe of $100,000 from Edward L. Doheny in connection with naval oil leases. He has been reported in financial difficulties and a ranch in New Mexico was sold to satisfy creditors.

Under the Spanish veterans' pension bill, recently enacted over President Hoover's veto, Fall, who is 69 years of age, would receive $40 a month.

Renomination of Legge Approved

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The Senate Agricultural Committee today approved the renomination of Alexander Legge as chairman of the Farm Board and C. C. Teague as the member representing fruit and vegetables.

SAN RAFAEL, June 16. (AP)—Miss Julia McDowell, 63-year-old deaf San Rafael resident, was killed by a Northwestern Pacific Railroad train here today as she was walking across the Grand-avenue crossing.

LAKE RIDDLE UNSOLVED

Search for Ohio Party Fails

Eight Who Set Out in Fast Boat for Elks' Picnic Still Missing

Windshield of Motor Craft Shattered and Tow Rope Cut as With Knife

TOLEDO (O.) June 16. (AP)—Many hours of searching Lake Erie and its islands by boats and airplanes had failed tonight to discover the mysterious fate of eight prominent Toledoans who disappeared Saturday while riding in a speedboat to Pelee Island.

Whether the men are alive tonight—marooned on some island—or whether they perished in an accident to their boat, is undetermined.

BOAT ADDS MYSTERY

Examination today of the speedboat which was discovered yesterday, floating upright, added new mystery. Its tow rope had been severed as if by a knife. "Did some one cut it deliberately to set the craft adrift from some island?" was the question that came into the minds of the searchers. It remained, however, unanswered.

The glass wings of the boat's windshield were broken, the propeller was bent and there was tar on the propeller shaft as if the boat had hit some sunken derelict or other obstruction.

The inside of the boat was dry. The power plant was still in gear. Three of the eight life preservers were missing.

GROUP PROMINENT

Occupants of the craft when it put out from Toledo Saturday were: Charles H. Nauts, internal revenue collector for the district; his son Herbert, an attorney; Franklin Jones, former member of the Lucas county board of elections; Arthur Kruse, president of the Kruse-Burman Mortuary Company; Frank Miller, former city water commissioner; Henry Heinbush, assistant county engineer; John Myers, pilot of the boat, and John Hipcock. They had intended to go to an Elks' picnic at Pelee Island.

Lake boatsmen said it is possible the speedboat, traveling at its maximum speed of fifty-five miles an hour, might have struck some submerged object with an impact that would have thrown the men into the lake. They said, however, it seemed highly improbable that all eight would have been killed or drowned in this manner.

Airplanes, coast guards and private yachts are to resume the search tomorrow.

CANADA AIM ON TARIFF EXPOUNDED

Premier Asserts American Duties Considered in Dominion Budget Draft

BRANTFORD (Ont.) June 16. (AP) The new American tariff rates were directly considered in framing the 1930 Canadian budget, Premier Mackenzie King said tonight in opening the Liberal party's election campaign.

His address was carried over a coast-to-coast radio chain of seventeen stations.

The Premier declared it is the "desire of Canada to trade at all times on fair and equal terms" with the United States."

"The present administration," he said, "has watched the revision of the American tariff with the closest interest. We cannot but regret that in respect of a considerable range of commodities the tariff duties have been raised against the importation of Canadian products.

"The wisdom of this policy, however, is for the United States to decide for itself. We, on our part, through the countervailing duties on a selected list of commodities, which are the subject of exchange between Canada and the United States, announce our intention of trading with those who are equally prepared to trade with us."

OIL BARON BACKS HUGE RADIO PLAN

Rockefeller and R.C.A. Reveal Gigantic Project for New York Center

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Plans for a $250,000,000 theatrical and radio broadcasting center to cover an area of three square blocks in midtown Manhattan were announced today by John R. Todd, representing John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the Radio Corporation of America and its affiliated interests.

The gigantic enterprise will be erected on ground bounded by Fifth and Sixth avenues and Forty-eighth and Fifty-first streets.

The Rockefeller interests will finance the new architectural development, it was announced, and four theaters, twenty-seven broadcasting studios and numerous office buildings, one of them sixty stories high, are included in the construction plans.

DIVE TAKEN BY STOCKS

Prices Crash to Low Levels

Deflation on Wall Street and Elsewhere Worst Since Last November

Decline Appears to be Part of World-wide Slump in Speculative Field

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—The most sweeping deflation of stock prices since the troublesome day of last November was experienced on the New York Stock Exchange and other securities markets today, as measured by the composite price index of ninety representative issues, the general level of stock prices plunged to the lowest point since Christmas and eliminating the shares dip during the latter months of last year, to the lowest levels since August, 1928.

The decline appeared to be a part of a world-wide deflation in the speculative markets and was accompanied by sharp breaks in the cotton and grain exchanges, and further reductions in the prices of commodities not traded in organized markets. While there is a tendency in some quarters to point to the passage and executive approval of the tariff measure as an aggravating factor, opinion in brokerage and banking circles as to its influence is widely varied.

HUGE SALES VOLUME

Aggressive banking support was lacking, although the decline was slackened in the afternoon by heavy accumulation of shares attributed in brokerage circles to important interests. Selling was in huge volume in the late dealings, however, and the day's lowest levels were recorded in the final transactions.

The day's sales on the stock exchange aggregated 5,600,000 shares, the largest turnover this year except for the 8,000,000-share day of May 5, last. On the stock exchange alone approximately 300 issues sold at low levels for 1930. The ticker did not print the final quotation until fifty minutes after the closing gong.

BROKERS' OPINION

While bear pressure was said in brokerage circles to be in substantial volume, and there were rumors in Wall street that interests opposed to the tariff were taking part in a bear campaign, brokers were inclined to the opinion that short selling was a relatively small factor in the day's transactions. The volume of selling and the investment character of shares under heavy liquidation were indicated as evidence of wholesale abandonment of holdings.

Particularly disturbing to the stock market was a break of about 2 to 3 cents a bushel in wheat futures, a further drop of about $1.50 to $2.50 a bale in cotton futures, shading of the export copper price from 12.55 to 12.30 cents a pound, and gasoline price-cutting in California, where retail quotations were reduced 3 cents a gallon.

Elderly Couple Dodge Children, Elope and Wed

SACRAMENTO, June 16. (Exclusive)—That romance lives eternal in the human heart was exemplified today when Robert Hezekiah Barnes, 85-year-old Civil War veteran of Twin Falls, Idaho, and Mrs. Lydia Margaret John of Long Beach, 72, consummated an elopement by being wed by Justice of the Peace Andrews.

The couple told Judge Andrews they eloped to Sacramento to keep the affair out of their home-town papers and to prevent their children from learning of the second trip to the altar for each.

McPHERSON DRESS DUTY MADE LIGHT

Evangelist Escapes Fine in New York, Having to Pay Mere $138.55 in All

NEW YORK, June 16. (Exclusive) Uncle Sam today took a lenient view of Aimee Semple McPherson's failure to declare "a few simple dresses" she bought in Paris on her recent visit, assessing her only $138.55—the original cost of the dresses, plus the duty. No fine was imposed.

The Los Angeles evangelist whose baggage was seized on her arrival on the Europa Saturday when the undeclared dresses were discovered appeared before Assistant Solicitor Brewer this morning and explained that she had failed to declare them because she had been misinformed.

"I was told that if you bought clothes for yourself abroad and wore them you didn't have to declare them," she said.

Mr. Brewer was sympathetic. He understood. So this time he merely would assess her the regular duty on undeclared goods. If he had imposed a fine she would have had to pay twice the whole amount, $277.10.

TOURING EVANGELIST WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY

Aimee Semple McPherson, pastor of Angelus Temple, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, is scheduled to return to Los Angeles at 5:30 p.m. Saturday on the Continental Limited of the Union Pacific system. She has been away three months, touring the Holy Land. Heading a band of pilgrims, she left here March 19, last, arriving in Palestine in time to conduct Easter services on the banks of the River Jordan.

Members of Angelus Temple congregation are planning a reception in honor of the evangelist.

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The State Department today received word of the release of Rev. Clifford King, American missionary, who was captured by Chinese bandits a week ago.

He was unharmed.

Angeleno Dead in Auto Wreck Believed Shot

MEDFORD (Or.) June 16. (AP)—State Traffic Sergeant Talent said today that a round hole resembling a bullet wound had been found in the chest of Granvyl G. Hulse, 35 years of age, University of Washington professor, dead in an accident on the Crater Lake Highway Sunday night.

Talent, who said a thorough investigation will be made, believes it probable that Hulse was hit by a stray bullet. Rex Ross, Yakima, who was with Hulse at the time of the accident, can give no other reason for the accident. The car, in which they were en route to Los Angeles, Hulse's home, dropped into a two-foot ditch and turned over.

Avoidance of Fairfax Crash Held Possible

NORFOLK (Va.) June 16. (AP)—George F. Farrell, chief signal man, U.S.S. Lexington, the first witness heard in the examination here today of survivors of the Fairfax-Pinthis collision, testified that capable handling of the ships after they had sighted each other in the fog off Boston would have averted the tragedy. Farrell was a passenger on the Fairfax.

"I saw the tanker five ship lengths ahead," he told the board, "and I think we sighted her in time to avoid collision."

Five Motorists Die in Oklahoma Crossing Crash

NORMAN (Okla.) June 16. (AP)—Five persons were killed and three others were injured critically when an interurban car collided with an automobile at a grade crossing four miles north of here tonight.

Those killed were Ernie Reynolds, 20 years of age; Reba Reynolds, 11; Eugene Reynolds, 4; Mrs. Mildred Shelton, 20, of Norman, and Dale Heneger, 15, Norman.

Charles Mitchell, Actor, Succumbs

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Charles Mason Mitchell, 71 years of age, actor, soldier and diplomat, died today in the home of a friend here.

Mitchell fought with Roosevelt's Rough Riders in Cuba and was wounded at the battle of San Juan. Thirty years ago he was leading man for Helena Modjeska, famous actress. He held posts as American Consul at Zanzibar, Cork, Malta and Samoa.

He retired several years ago and has been living in Hollywood. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Edna Ellis Mitchell, and brother, Col. James Brady Mitchell.

SIXTY REPORTED DEAD IN BRIDGE COLLAPSE

BUDAPEST (Hungary) June 16. (AP)—A dispatch from Plopsor, Rumania, today says that a recently built bridge collapsed there and that 100 persons were thrown into the water, sixty being drowned. No confirmation is available.

NEW TERMINAL PLEA FILED

Rehearing on Plaza Union Station Decision Asked by Railroads Fighting Mandate

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (Exclusive)—The Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroads today asked the California Supreme Court to allow one more opportunity to evade construction of the Plaza Union Station at Los Angeles. It is a petition for rehearing of the Supreme Court decision of May 27, last, in which the court decided the authority to force a union terminal rests in the State Railroad Commission, thereby legalizing the commission mandate of July, 1927, calling for construction of the terminal and its allied elimination of grade crossings.

The action had been anticipated and the points made by the railroads also.

They contend the Supreme Court overlooked a direct conflict between State and Federal laws as they apply to the regulatory body which has power to order extension of lines, connections and the joint use of tracks. They also contend such an order as that of the Railroad Commission is confiscatory in that it forces them to abandon many of their present facilities and investments.

The Supreme Court, in handing down its recent decision, disagreed with this contention, holding existing facilities of the railroads in Los Angeles inadequate, even as they apply to the Central Station used by the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific, as long as there is a question of safety involved in reaching those facilities.

The Supreme Court will rule on the rehearing petition within the next ten days. It is expected the petition will be denied.

LINDBERGH SEA FLIGHT INDICATED

Eagle Waits for Stork But Practices Daily in Inflated Rubber Boat

INGLEWOOD (N. J.) June 16. (Exclusive)—As the stork hovers over the Morrow estate here Col. Charles A. Lindbergh busies himself with a series of daily experiments that lend color to the persistent reports of the probability of his attempting another transoceanic flight after he has become a father.

While the former Anne Morrow and other members of his family look on, Lindbergh, attired in a bathing suit, paddles an inflated rubber boat about the large private swimming pool behind the Morrow home. Attached to the balloon-like craft is a small sail. The aviator manipulates the canvas as its billowy surface catches gusts of wind that propel him about the pool.

The boat is of a type that may be deflated and stowed away in the cockpit of an airplane. Filled with air, it is difficult to capsize by reason of its construction and would keep one person afloat in rough seas for hours.

For six weeks, it was learned today, Lindbergh has taken daily rides in his self-designed miniature boat. During that time he has made several minor changes in the craft's design.

Mrs. Coolidge Given Degree

BURLINGTON (Vt.) June 16. (AP) The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred on Mrs. Grace Goodhue Coolidge, wife of former President Coolidge, by the University of Vermont at commencement exercises today.

Mrs. Coolidge is an alumna of the University of Vermont. Ten years ago her husband, then Governor of Massachusetts and a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, was given the same honorary degree. He accompanied her today.

NEW HORROR DISCLOSED

Chicago Gangs' Victim Found

Discovery of Body in Canal Comes With Removal of Police Heads

Official Declares Solution of Lingle Murder Case to be Near

BY JOHN P. GALLAGHER
"Times" Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, June 16. (Exclusive) With the removal of Chicago's two ranking police officials, Police Commissioner William F. Russell and Deputy Commissioner John Stege, accomplished, the concerted civic offensive against gang rule, dramatized last week in the assassination of Alfred Lingle, crime investigator and reporter for the Chicago Tribune, today struck on many fronts against the underworld enemy.

And while this offensive was on a body, minus head, feet and hands was found during the afternoon in the sanitary district canal at Lockport. The body evidently was that of a gang "ride" victim, as the head, hands and feet had been cut away obviously to prevent identification.

Developments of the day in the city's war against gangdom, which has for its primary purpose the elimination of the asserted alliance between the police, politicians and criminals through which gangsters are assertedly enabled to maintain a $6,000,000 corruption war chest, were:

CHAMBER ENTERS WAR

Chief Justice Denis J. Normyle of the Criminal Court issued a special charge to the Cook county grand jury ordering a full investigation of the murder of Lingle, its motive and all the events behind it. State's Attorney John A. Swanson will be in charge of the inquiry.

The Chicago Association of Commerce, rallied to the war against crime by its president, Col. Robert Isham Randolph, increased the membership of its "secret six" crime-suppression committee to sixteen, including representatives of other important business organizations. This, it was believed, will begin to function vigorously.

The Association of Commerce, it was reported, intends to ask Mayor William Hale (Big Bill) Thompson to resign his office before any attempt is made to oust him and they will demand that a civilian unconnected with politics be put at the head of the police department.

Commissioner of Police William F. Russell, following a week of public clamor over crime conditions following the slaying of Lingle, formally resigned, after demoting First Deputy Commissioner John Stege, in charge of detectives, to a captaincy. Capt. John A. Alcock was appointed today as acting Commissioner of Police.

CHURCHES BACK DRIVE

The Chicago Church Federation, representing more than 500,000 persons, was placed in the fight. Its political action commission voted to appoint a committee of five clergymen and five laymen to demand a showdown from public officials.

The Police Committee of the City Council voted unanimously to begin an investigation on Thursday of the entire police department.

The new murder victim was taken from the same canal where the body of Eugene (Red) McLaughlin, notorious gangster, was found two weeks ago. In McLaughlin's case the body had been weighted down with irons.

Coroner E. A. Kingston of Will county said that the headless body had been in the canal since about the time of McLaughlin's disappearance. There was nothing to indicate the identity.

Chief Justice Normyle, in charging the June grand jury to investigate fully the murder of Lingle said:

"I direct your attention to the recent slaying of Alfred Lingle, a newspaper reporter. I urge that you inquire into this killing and the causes that led up to it. I am confident that State's Attorney Swanson will give you all the investigators and assistants you may need to go into this matter thoroughly.

"When gunmen go beyond their guerrilla warfare and attack the ranks of private citizens it is time

ACTRESS HURLED INTO SEA

Claire Windsor Near Drowning When Fast Pleasure Cruisers Crash in Dark Off Long Island

NEW YORK, June 16. (Exclusive)—A band of the gayest spirits on Broadway returned from the midnight waters of Long Island Sound to the safety of the White Way tonight after passing through as dramatic a scene as any of the group of stage people had ever written or acted.

Passengers aboard the speedy cabin cruisers of Phil Plant, millionaire playboy of Broadway, and Otis Chatfield Taylor, theatrical producer, they had been tossed into the black waters of the sound three miles off Greenwich, Ct., in a collision between the two boats and been rescued by the narrowest of margins.

One life was lost. A sailor aboard Plant's speedy thirty-two-foot express cruiser Loleta vanished beneath the waves as young Plant was crying to Taylor's companions to grab the blonde locks of Claire Windsor, famed beauty of the screen—the single guest aboard Plant's yacht—before she went down for the second time.

Miss Windsor first identified herself as "Mrs. Joseph Smith of 1085 Fifth avenue."

"Awfully sorry, it was my fault," young Plant declared after the half-drowned members of the two gay week-end parties had been landed at the Indian Harbor Yacht Club and police began an investigation.

"We could see no evidence of drinking," Connecticut police reported later. "Mr. Taylor said there were six quarts of whisky aboard his boat but he has a permit to carry that amount."

The crash occurred as Taylor's cruiser Chang Wang III swung in a southerly course off Greenwich. Plant's cruiser with the young millionaire at the wheel, cut directly in front of them.

Capt. D. K. Hatfield of the Plant craft signaled that they would pass to starboard and gave the command to Plant. For a moment the young millionaire hesitated and

EINSTEIN GIVES NEW CONCEPT

Theory of Reality of Space Expounded in Berlin

Last Vestige of Materiality Stripped from Ether

Several Thousand, Including Americans, Hear Talk

BERLIN, June 16. (AP)—Several thousand celebrities, including some 200 Americans, today heard Dr. Albert Einstein, famed theoretical physicist and author of the theory of relativity, unfold his newer thesis of the reality of space.

The great German scientist uttered his new theory for the first time publicly in his own land. He said its essence is that space, birthplace of all matter and thought, has in the last few decades "swallowed up the ether and time and is about to swallow up the field and corpuscular theory, too, so that space will remain as the only theory representing reality."

All ideas of light, time, the ether and related phenomena, the scientist declared, will be absorbed in the all-inclusive concept of space.

He said the theory has "eliminated from the ether the last vestige of materiality."

MADE "PERFECTLY CLEAR"

Dr. Einstein's hearers, with the exception of the scientists, seemed unable to comprehend his words and he went over his exposition, so that his new theory might be made "perfectly clear."

The space idea is the one he said recently he had evolved while ill in bed. He said "if one compares two elements in space they are regarded only as to size." He added there is a further element—"you also can compare those elements in the matter of direction."

Space, Dr. Einstein said, must be regarded as primary and matter as secondary, being derived from it. His new theory holds that space, having originated matter, now has turned around and is eating it up—"having its revenge."

RELYING ON SENSES

In his early remarks, Prof. Einstein said:

"While it is illogical to rely on the senses and their reactions for building up a theory of the physics of the universe, nevertheless, since men are human, all theories must be based in some degree upon the experiences of their senses.

"In prescientific days thinking of a finite world of solid bodies formed the base of the first attempts to reduce the sense of men's experiences to a logical system.

"The Greeks thought in terms of the relative positions of solid bodies and built their mathematics on a few elements such as the point, the plane, the line and distance. They dealt with solid objects and their relative positions.

DESCARTIAN SPACE

"To Descartes is given the credit for first introducing the idea of continuous space. This, added to Newton's mechanics, made a fairly complete conception of Descartian space.

"At that moment space became a physical reality. Next came studies of light and the introduction of the concept of the ether. To this was added the destroying influence of the Faraday and Maxwell electromagnetic fields. These fields could not be included in the Newtonian concept of ponderable matter and a ponderable ether."

Dr. Einstein then explained how his special theory of relativity established the fact that space and time must be united in a single four-dimensional continuum. His theory postulated that time and space are not the vessel for the universe, but could not exist at all if there were no bodies contained in them.

Physicists formerly had attempted to describe natural phenomena by their relation to time, space, inertia, gravitation, light and electricity. The German scientist showed that these must be considered as merely different aspects of a single unity.

Relativity, as Dr. Einstein used the word, means that there is no possibility of measuring absolute time, distance or mass. He had been working on a solution of the correlation between the laws of electricity and those of gravitation.

"The conception of simultaneous events," he said, "did not conform with reality.

"No absolute character can be ascribed to speed, to acceleration or to the idea of an inertial system in nature, the system by which nature opposes change of motion or deflects or reverses motion."

SCOPE SET FORTH

"A complete relativity theory," Dr. Einstein said, "must embrace all gaussian (magnetic measurement) and co-ordinate systems in a four-dimensional space. Space thus loses its absolute character.

"It is changeable and can be influenced. It is analagous in structure to the electromagnetic field."

Until Dr. Einstein developed his relativity theory it had been believed that time and space existed of themselves, even if there were nothing else, no sun, no moon, no stars.

Dr. Einstein recently said, seemingly referring to his theory of relativity, that his colleagues were not in agreement with him on certain points, and even went to the extent of considering him mentally unbalanced.

"Nevertheless," he said, "I have faith in the path I am traveling and although my theory is not yet finished I have evidence that, so far as I can judge, the end is near."

He made the statement in the course of a public talk at University College, Nottingham, Eng., at which time he announced the theory of space he related here today.

RANCH FIRE BELIEVED SET BY INCENDIARIST

then swung his craft directly in the path of the speeding Chang Wang. The Loleta was struck squarely amidships, hurling Plant, Miss Windsor and members of the crew into the water and damaging the yacht so badly that it sank in a few seconds.

Three of Taylor's guests sitting on deck also were hurled into the water by the crash.

They were J. H. Vincent, Manhattan broker, living on Stanwich Road, Stamford, Ct.; Earl Larrimore of the Theater Guild, and Theresa Lewis, playwright, of the Blackstone Hotel, New York.

Taylor swung his searchlight on the waters and located Plant.

"Don't worry about me; get this girl out." Plant gasped, waving to a spot a few yards away where Miss Windsor was struggling.

The motion-picture actress, Plant and Capt. Hatfield were hauled aboard the Chang Wang in the order named. There was no sign of the sailor, Ernest Sangler of New York, who had shipped on the Loleta only a few days before.

Plant, former husband of Constance Bennett, has faced death before with an actress as his companion. In 1924 he settled out of court a $500,000 suit brought by Helen Jesmer, chorus beauty, who claimed she had been permanently disfigured by scars received in an automobile accident when Plant's car struck a tree on Pelham Parkway.

Coast Guards' Pensions Pass

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The Knutson bill to make the pension laws applicable to the Coast Guard, with pensions ranging from $6 to $125 a month, was passed today by the House and sent to the Senate. The probable cost to the government was estimated at $30,000 annually.

GEORGIA FOUNDATION GETS GIFT OF RASKOB

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Gift of $100,000 from John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was announced by the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation today. A campaign is being waged to obtain $1,250,000 for enlargement of accommodations for patients at Warm Springs, where Gov. Roosevelt, president of the foundation, has himself been a patient intermittently for several years.

Newspaper Readers Don't Know What Political Cartoons Are All About, Expert Finds

NEW YORK, June 16. (Exclusive)—There is room for doubt that many adult readers have more than a vague idea of what the political cartoons in their newspaper mean, speculates Dr. Laurance F. Shaffer, research worker at teachers' college, Columbia University. School children, whose interpretation of cartoons Dr. Shaffer collected, frequently show wild miscomprehension of what the drawings are intended to illustrate.

So far as ability to interpret a cartoon depends on understanding abstract ideas and generalities, the average adult does not surpass the high school senior, Dr. Shaffer states.

Three thousand boys and girls in the fourth to twelfth grades of school all over the country, who wrote their impressions of selected cartoons showed general increase in comprehension from the lower to the upper grades.

One drawing, reproduced in the Literary Digest, had on it a line crediting to to "Ireland in the Columbia Dispatch." The picture showed two contrasting scenes: Pioneers struggling across the prairie in a covered wagon and a couple, presumably their descendants, going back over the same route in a speeding automobile.

"Shows how things are in Ireland," was the comment of many grammar school children from the fourth to the eighth grade. Several in high school, one a senior, thought the same thing.

A cartoon, "The Debtor's Prison," by Nelson Harding in the Brooklyn Eagle, credited to him, showed "Humanity" in a prison, the stones of which were labeled "taxes," groping for freedom through a window whose bars were "war."

"The man is in prison in Texas," one youngster decided. Another thought it "means Harding in the war."

"Man," comfortably seated in one picture on a high plateau marked "Masculine Superior Plane" is startled to see a feminine head labeled "Suffrage" peering over the edge and saying "Hello!"

"The woman is going to make the man suffer," many high school students as well as grade youngsters answered. "Women are always bothering men and interfering." "The man, just out of debt, and is going in debt again." "Means war," "He is watching a war from the mountain," were other interpretations.

CHICAGO CHIEF'S LOT NOT HAPPY

Observer Sees Handicaps of Windy City Police

Russell's Resignation Held Graceful Gesture

Public, Stirred by Murder, Hard to Satisfy

This is the third of a series of six articles in which Edwin Balmer, famous novelist, short-story writer, reporter and editor of Red Book, is describing the crisis confronting Chicago and perhaps the nation in the gang warfare which has reached a climax in the killing of Alfred Lingle, newspaper reporter. Mr. Balmer is a native Chicagoan.

BY EDWIN BALMER

(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

CHICAGO, June 16. (Exclusive) To gain any sort of picture of the crime conditions in Chicago, meet the police.

Certainly they know more about these conditions than anybody else. They occupy the most difficult and dangerous posts in civilization today. I spoke in my preceding article of the rows of stars which represented policemen slain in the line of duty—mostly against the gangs. Now consider the difficulty of their general situation.

AS TO RUSSELL

Take, first, the man who has been most hotly under fire from the aroused citizens—William Russell, who was Commissioner of Police until he resigned today so his presence would not embarrass any investigation of his department.

I find first, that Commissioner Russell was seriously handicapped as compared with the Police Chief in New York, for instance, because of an entirely different temper of the people. They are not at all like New Yorkers here.

Consider Grover Whalen, called to power in Manhattan by the clamor to solve the Rothstein murder. He came in to do it but he accomplished nothing at all; yet he retired a popular and praised man because he established some convenient one-way streets and improved the traffic to the theaters.

New York makes more of its amusements than of its murders; in Chicago, it is rather the other way around and this attitude puts a terrible strain upon the Chief of Police.

It is a simple and agreeable matter to post new one-way signs on a lot of streets and to provide polite police to handle the theater crowds. Mr. Russell must have envied Mr. Whalen his public, so easily appeased by such service.

Chicago, just now, is made of sterner stuff. Do something! is loudly demanded. First and immediately, catch the murderer of Alfred Lingle.

This exhortation is especially interesting when applied to this particular case.

"IN THE KNOW"

Lingle was a police reporter, you may remember. He covered underworld cases. He was contact man with the gangs. If he had lived and some other reporter had been killed instead, Lingle would have been the first person appealed to for inside information why the murder was done. He was the reporter most completely in "the know."

But until the trigger was pulled just behind his head, Alfred Lingle was living; he should have known, then, more thoroughly than anyone else, who would have wanted to kill him. Yet the evidence, so far as it can be gathered, points to the fact that he was utterly unsuspicious of the man who accompanied him with the purpose of murdering him and who shot him dead.

If Lingle did not even suspect who his murderer might be, how can the police guess?

No one who has any knowledge of the circumstances looks for any quick solution of this case. So, as so much has been started, something must be put through and it is war on the gangs that hold the headlines now.

"Six million dollars a week," rings the cry, "goes to the racketeers!"

"We believe," says the Citizens' Association of Chicago in formal resolution, "that this murder (the killing of Lingle) and the hundred other gang murders that have preceded it in Chicago within a period of but little more than a year, can be attributed to immunity obtained by the corrupt use of the vast revenue that is known to be derived mainly from uninterrupted beer-running operations."

CORRUPTION'S PRICE

It corrupts, says the printed charge, politicians; prohibition agents and the police.

I have spent some time very attentively with the police, including the just-resigned commissioner. I do not believe he was corrupt, nor have I found one responsible citizen who says so. I think he was in a very hard spot.

The whole police force has been in a hard spot ever since prohibition began. The most puzzling job in the world today is a police post under prohibition. All over the city people in all ranks of life openly flout the law—the best people as proudly as the worst. A policeman in Chicago would have to be deaf, dumb and blind to believe the city really wants complete enforcement. It is not the liquor business in itself, therefore, that causes the cry for reform; it is the violence which booze-running has fostered.

EVEN IN MURDER

Yet there are two ways of looking at this violence, these gang murders and massacres.

One of the most influential and estimable men in Chicago is Silas Strawn, financier and merchant, who was appointed chairman of the citizens' committee which recently took over the financing of the city in the desperate emergency when taxes were uncollectable and the city was "broke."

Mr. Strawn, more than any other man, saved the situation, kept Chicago a going concern and averted the chaos of bankruptcy. Recently he spoke at the opening of the new Chicago Board of Trade Building, and in remarks about the gang situation he said: "Unfortunately for our reputation the gangsters have frequent wars, generally over the division of territory for the distribution of liquor. The casualties among these gangs are greater than those from any other cause.

"It is too bad these gang battles are not even more sanguinary, so that all of these criminals could exterminate each other."

This merchant put into polite words what thousands of other good citizens have said: "Let the gang wars go on so long as they kill only each other."

But suddenly, when a newspaper reporter is shot for a reason still unknown, all the intergang casualties are counted up and included in a resolution as intolerable outrages which must immediately be stopped.

Yes, it surely must be puzzling to be a policeman in Chicago today.

MAN WANTED

There is a hunt on here for a man to war on the gangs, as there was a hunt on in New York after Rothstein was murdered. Mr. Whalen was the answer in New York and, as has been said, he made theater-going more enjoyable, created several splendid one-way streets and altogether bettered manners in Manhattan. He counted the speakeasies but closed very few.

I do not mean that something more effective may not be done both in New York and in Chicago, but the mere naming of another man police commissioner will not do it.

What kind of war would you carry to the gangs? And how and where would you carry it? I have been asking several well-informed persons who got their information far away from public indignation meetings.

This extremely interesting and practical question I will try to answer tomorrow.

to curb them before they go one step farther. I want to warn you that never at any time in my experience has a vigilance committee been necessary nor such methods required. Gangsters at heart are inherent cowards and travel in packs, like coyotes.

"They not only are a menace to this community, but a disgrace to the whole United States. The city's reputation has been deeply injured and it is up to us to act against these criminals and close every avenue of escape."

While the reports that the Association of Commerce would ask for the resignation of Mayor Thompson and that they would demand a civilian to head the police department were not confirmed, it is a well-known fact that Mayor Thompson has been incapacitated for nearly a year and a half on account of sickness and that during most of that time he has been confined to a sanatorium, and therefore unable to function as the city's chief executive. The association, it was said tonight, does not favor the appointment of another police captain as commissioner because of the belief that a man with a firm purpose to break up gangs and with no political alliances or gangland acquaintances will do better work.

Russell's note of resignation to Mayor Thompson, which was immediately accepted, was a brief formality, but afterward he asserted he had done the best he could, out was forced to resign because he could no longer function.

SOLUTION REPORTED NEAR

"Now let them stick their noses in it and see what they can find," he said, evidently referring to those who had assailed him.

Deputy Commissioner Stege, as he was leaving the City Hall, said to reporters that the police were nearer to solving the Lingle murder than most people thought.

"The public does not know how close we are on the heels of the perpetrators of this murder," Stege said. "I feel positive that we will be able to clean up this case and place the assassin in the electric chair. I, for one, never will stop until this is accomplished.

"We got a bad break the day Lingle was killed. Fred Burke, leader in the St. Valentine Day massacre, was due in Chicago that afternoon. We had a trap set for him and squads posted to send him to eternity. But the plan fell through."

Of his demotion, Capt. Stege said: "I took it on the chin once before and I can take it again. (This refers to his forced resignation several years ago by Mayor Thompson's allies.)

"Most of my time has been spent in the detective bureau and with very few hours of home life.

Stege's place will be filled for the time being by Capt. John Egan, who has been captain of detectives under Stege.

"I'm glad to step out," remarked Russell, a note of genuine relief in his voice as he left his office tonight. "I don't want to hamper any investigations. That's why I'm resigning, that's why I'm transferring Stege. I'll go back to my rank as captain. I'll not step out of the department."

NOMINEE DROPS DEAD IN OREGON

State Senator Joseph Has Stroke on Drill Field

G.O.P. Choice for Governor Slumps During Chat

Committee Will Select New Republican Candidate

CAMP CLATSOP (Or.) June 16. (AP)—Stricken while apparently in the best of health and at the height of his career, State Senator George W. Joseph, 58 years of age, Republican nominee for Governor, died while watching maneuvers on the drill field of the Oregon National Guard encampment here today. A clot of blood in the heart caused instantaneous death as he was conversing with officers of the encampment.

Adversity early beset Joseph and he struggled successfully against poverty and misfortune to acquire his early education and, later, a high place in the political affairs of the State. Bitter in his denunciation of what he considered wrongdoing, Joseph had many political enemies, but, those close to him say, many more political friends. An attack on several members of the State Supreme Court last month brought about his permanent disbarment from the practice of law in Oregon. He had charged members of the court with professionalism and with having pecuniary interest in cases on which they gave opinions. He won the Governorship nomination on a "vindication" platform.

Members of the court today, however, paid tribute to him for his honesty, sincerity and ability.

With officers of the National Guard, Joseph today was reviewing actions of troops when he suddenly sagged to the ground. Those around him thought he had fainted. Examination, however, disclosed he was dead and he had passed from life within a second or two after the blood clot had entered the heart.

The body was taken to Portland this evening with a company of National Guardsmen accompanying the cortege. Flags are at half-mast throughout the State. State officials in Salem, where Joseph had served as Senator for ten regular sessions and one special session, mourn his death.

The Republican Central Committee will select a successor to Senator Joseph to carry on the Republican fight for Governor at the November election.

REHEARING PLEA RECEIVED BY COURT

SALEM (Or.) June 16. (AP)—A few minutes after death of George W. Joseph, Republican nominee for Governor, his petition for rehearing of arguments in the disbarment case in which he was defendant, was filed with the Supreme Court. It came by mail. The Supreme Court last month ordered Joseph's permanent disbarment for attacks he had made on members of the Court. He charged political expediency and financial interests in cases before the court had influenced opinions.

NEW JERSEY VOTE SLATED FOR TODAY

NEWARK (N. J.) June 16. (AP)—With final expressions of confidence in the outcome, New Jersey's candidates for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate tonight wound up a campaign which has aroused widespread interest for weeks.

The polls open tomorrow at 7 a.m. (E.S.T.) and close at 8 p.m. The candidates:

Dwight W. Morrow, Ambassador to Mexico and delegate to the London naval conference, whose platform demands repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and State control of liquor traffic.

Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, former United States Senator, who supported the Eighteenth Amendment, but who now seeks its repeal and some system of centralized control of liquor.

Franklin W. Fort, Representative in Congress and former secretary of the National Republican Committee, who [illegible] race as a dry the day after Morrow announced his stand on prohibition.

John A. Kelly, real estate and insurance man, who describes himself as a soaking wet.

Morrow and Kelly, in addition, are contesting for nomination for a term from November, 1930, to March, 1931, made vacant by the appointment of Walter E. Edge as Ambassador to France.

For the long term, the Democrats are agreed upon Alexander Simpson, fiery antiprohibitionist. Miss Thelma Parkinson of Vineland is the party's nominee for the short term.

MEXICO CITY STREET NAMED FOR ZAPATA

MEXICO CITY, June 16. (AP)—President Ortiz Rubio today presided at a ceremony changing the name of Moneda street to Emiliano Zapata, honoring the revolutionary general who, in 1913 and 1914, destroyed most of the sugar factories in Morelos and later accupied Mexico City. Zapata was the first prominent agrarian leader of Mexico.

DIRIGIBLE BASE VOTE DELAYED

House Committee Postpones Issue Until December

Evans Springs Surprise on Chairman Britten

Action Regarded Favorable to Camp Kearny

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 16. (Exclusive)—By a vote of 11 to 8 the House Naval Committee decided today to postpone selection of a dirigible base in California until the short session of Congress in December.

The action was taken on motion of Representative Evans of Glendale, Cal., leading the fight for the Camp Kearny site near San Diego, who thus blocked the plan of Chairman Britten, proponent of the rival Sunnyvale site in Santa Clara county, to have an immediate final settlement of the matter, so far as the committee is concerned. Britten had said before the meeting that the committee would go on record, 15 to 6, for Sunnyvale.

Evans's coup came as both a surprise and a shock to the fiery chairman, who manifestly favored the northern site throughout the month-long hearing. The Los Angeles Representative had, however, carefully laid his plans and in an informal poll of the committee last week found that the majority favored further time to digest the transcript of the hearings and carefully balance the points at issue.

CALLS VOTE MISTAKE

Britten miscalculated his strength in the committee and believed that he could report out the Free bill for Sunnyvale by an overwhelming majority by "hurry-up" methods.

He characterized the vote today as a "mistake" and foresaw "considerable delay" in California's getting any base because of the committee's action.

Evans denied that there would be great delay, and explained that the committee wished to give reasonable consideration to the question and did not care to be driven into a snap-judgment vote by the whip of the chairman.

"I do not believe," Evans said, "that Congress is in any mood to pass a bill on the dirigible base before it adjourns, even if a bill should be reported out."

Had a bill been reported out and Congress laid it over until the December session the delay would have been practically the same.

SWING CONFIDENT

Representative Swing of El Centro, another leader of the Camp Kearny adherents, said today, "there is no question about the desire of the committee to make the right decision about this important matter. Their vote today to postpone shows that they want to go into the matter more fully. I trust that as many members of the committee as possible will come to the Coast and give us an opportunity to show them both sites.

"We feel sure that seeing the actual sites will result in the committee believing that Camp Kearny has superior merit."

Britten has given up all idea of appointing a subcommittee to make a personal investigation of the sites in controversy. He began to lose interest in the idea as soon as he checked over the committee and believed he had enough votes to force the selection of Sunnyvale. Moreover, both the Rules and the Appropriations committees of the House frowned on the proposed junket.

None the less several members of the committee have indicated that they will try to get out to California during the summer months and personally check over the Camp Kearny and Sunnyvale sites.

FREE'S CONTENTION

Representative Free of San Jose, head of the Sunnyvale contingent, tried to turn today's vote into a plea for the support of Sunnyvale. He contends that unless California gets together and backs Sunnyvale to the limit the State will lose the dirigible base. Inasmuch as the vote, 11 to 8, by which the committee postponed action can be considered a vote against the selection of Sunnyvale if not actually counted as favorable to the Camp Kearny site, it is difficult to follow Representative Free's argument.

"Nevertheless," he said today, "I had hoped that my bill accepting the Sunnyvale site would be acted upon this morning, but the matter has gone over until December. This simply means a delay over that period, as I understood that the committee stands 15 to 6 in favor of Sunnyvale. I hope that the Camp Kearny advocates will now become good Californians and will not take the risk of losing the site for California but will support us in our fight for the base at Sunnyvale."

MRS. KAHN TO MOVE AIR BASE SITE ACCEPTANCE

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—Representative Florence P. Kahn of San Francisco announced today she would move to have the House act before adjournment on her bill to authorize the acceptance for army aviation purposes of two sites on San Francisco Bay and the expenditure on them of $2,000,000 previously appropriated for use at Rockwell Field, San Diego.

Under the measure as approved by the House Military Committee Saturday an air depot would be established on 1100 acres of land in Alameda county, across from San Francisco, while headquarters for a bombardment group would be set up on a similar acreage in Marin county, on San Pablo Bay, eighteen miles north of San Francisco.

A formal report from the committee said the San Francisco Bay area "is recognized as the central and strategic point in the defense of our west continental coast." But that "at the present time this area is without any substantial provision for its air defense.".

"If the air defense increases in importance, as now is anticipated," the report continued, "the time will come when three bombardment groups probably will be located along the Pacific Coast, one at San Francisco, one in the Portland-Seattle area and one in the Southern California area.

"Provision for only one bombardment group seems possible at this time, with funds reasonably to be expected."

CAROL AIMS AT BIG-TIME CORONATION

President Hoover on List of Kings and What-Not Who Will Get Invitations

BUCHAREST, June 16. (AP)—Now that Carol II has swept all obstacles from his path to a full and valid kingship of Rumania, he is making plans for an impressive coronation that will be the last triumph in the journey of an exile to a throne.

It will take place at Alba Julia, where the late King Ferdinand was crowned, and has been set for October. It is believed likely that October 11 will be the date, for it was on that day in 1914 that Carol's father, King Ferdinand I, became monarch of the Balkan kingdom.

King Carol intends to invite all the crowned heads and presidents of Rumanian World War allies to the impressive event. Today he commissioned Gen. Prezan, an outstanding soldier who attempted to form a Cabinet last week, and Prof. Nicholas Jorga, his boyhood tutor and friend, to deliver the invitations personally. Both will leave Rumania the 30th inst., Prof. Jorga going to London and Washington, and Gen. Prezan visiting Belgrade, Rome, Brussels and Paris.

RAIN BACKS AUTHORITIES OF BOMBAY

Monsoon Drives Turbulent Gandhi Hordes to Cover; Sterner Rule Enforced

BOMBAY, June 16. (AP)—The monsoon, perennial deluge, today came to reinforce the thousand or more armed soldiers sent to the relief of sorely tried police and civil authorities in the Bombay residency.

At the same time the government gave the clearest indications it no longer will tolerate defiance of Viceroy Lord Irwin's picketing and boycott ordinances by decisively repressing a disturbance in front of one of the leading department stores of Bombay, where followers of Mahatma Gandhi were engaged in a demonstration. About a dozen persons were injured.

With the beginning of the rains it is predicted confidently there will be great abatement of open-air activities of the civil-disobedience volunteers for some weeks to come.

Education by Radio Urged on Interior Chief

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—Education by radio appeared a step nearer with the recommendation to Secretary Wilbur by an advisory committee that a section of educational broadcasting be established in the Federal Office of Education.

The radio section would study methods of broadcasting to schools and supply programs upon the request of educational or commercial stations.

The committee said it believed the expenditure of $200,000 a year for a period of three years, under direction of a nonpartisan committee of educators and laymen would be wise.

Wife Divorces Hawaii Flyer

RENO, June 16. (AP)—Mrs. Marjorie Elliott Drayton was granted a divorce here today from Harry Coleman Drayton, army aviator stationed at Honolulu, on grounds of mental cruelty. The couple married at Gardnerville, Nev., February 14, 1921.

No order was made affecting custody of two minor children.

UTILITIES LEVY TOTALS MOUNT

State's Revenue for Year Placed at $42,389,702

Phone and Wire Companies Disclose Greatest Gains

Income Figures Tabulated by Equalization Board

SACRAMENTO, June 16. (Exclusive)—State taxes totaling $42,389,702.80 have been levied by the State Board of Equalization against public utilities and insurance companies under the gross receipts and gross premium law, it was announced today by the board. The 1930 tax is an increase over last year's total of $2,566,902, or 6.44 per cent, as compared to a 3.26 per cent increase for 1929 over 1928.

Commenting on the increase, the board says in a statement:

"Because the taxes are based directly on the amount of business done, as California's activities and population increase the revenues grow larger proportionately. All this is automatic so that without changing valuations or rates the tax yield is so regulated as to anticipate with surprising accuracy changing revenue requirements.

"From the standpoint of economy of administration, the board has been able to establish an enviable record with this method of taxation. To do all of the work incident upon the assessment of more than $42,389,000 in taxes, the board has incurred a total expense of less than one-tenth of 1 per cent."

GREATEST GAIN

The greatest gain in taxes to be paid is shown, according to the board, by the telephone and telegraph companies, which will be required to pay $4,857,689 for the current year, an increase of 10.48 per cent over 1929.

"Indication of substantial growth throughout California," says the board, "is found in the increase of telephone and telegraph company revenues as well as the gain in gas and electric company receipts. The latter closely rival the former in their growth as they are shown by our records to be 8.63 per cent more than they were the previous year.

"Insurance companies are next in their ratio of increase with a gain in tax accruals of 7.86 per cent. There is undoubtedly a close relationship between the volume of insurance written and business expansion, so that these figures all point toward stability in our economic structure."

LEVIES TABULATED

The following table prepared by the board shows the taxes levied against the utilities for 1929 and 1930:

	1929.	1930.
Steam railroads	$11,967,586.22	$12,382,368.42
Short line st'm railroads ...	354,348.62	327,534.02

Insurance companies	6,516,307.04	7,028,555.40
	$39,822,800.04	$42,389,702.80

The members of the Board of Equalization are R. E. Collins, Redding; H. G. Cattell, Pasadena; Fred E. Stewart, Oakland; John C. Corbett, San Francisco, and State Controller Riley.

GOVERNMENT-PRINTED ENVELOPES ATTACKED

MILWAUKEE, June 16. (AP)—Federal printing and supplying of envelopes was attacked in the report today of H. C. Hotaling, St. Paul, field secretary of the National Editorial Association. Speaking at the opening session of the association's forty-fifth annual convention, Mr. Hotaling characterized the policy as "unjust and unfair," and said, "no private industry can compete with the government, which utilizes its postmasters as salesmen and makes no charge for transportation."

—uses the Steinway piano

"In my many years' experience with the Orpheum circuit . . . in musical comedy productions and lately in the musical side of talking pictures . . . I have found the Steinway one of the most valuable adjuncts to my business. No piano I have ever found can surpass the Steinway in tone quality. No instrument either, that I have ever found can surpass its steady reliability in the grueling grind of stage rehearsals, orchestra practice and the long continuous work of a moving picture set. Its sturdy construction and magnificent workmanship . . . the product of years of craftsmanship of the most expert instrument makers . . . are the sterling qualities built into the Steinway that have made it the "Old Reliable" in all concert, theatrical and movie work. I know many great artists, personally, who will use no other piano. I know that whenever, in the old days, we arrived at a theater and found a Steinway in the pit, we knew our piano troubles were over. On the movie sets, today, I have found the same to be true. For endurance, appearance, tone quality . . . give me the Steinway. Many years of experience have taught me this."

HOOVER INSISTS ON PACT ACTION

Naval Treaty Disposal This Session Desired

President Reiterates Threat of Special Meeting

Conference With Dawes Held on Situation

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 16. (Exclusive)—White House conferences today developed the fact that President Hoover is more insistent than ever that the London naval treaty be disposed of before the Senate leaves Washington.

Mr. Hoover conferred with Senator Watson, Republican leader, at breakfast, and later in the day with Secretary of State Stimson and Charles G. Dawes, Ambassador , England, and member of the American delegation to the naval conference.

It is understood Mr. Hoover reiterated to Senator Watson his determination to call the Senate into special session if the treaty is not disposed of at the current session Hope for such disposal appears re- indeed.

LONG DEBATE EXPECTED

Opponents of the treaty are preparing for extended debate when the instrument finally is reported to the Senate floor, and their threats in this direction have strengthened the purpose of colleagues anxious to get out of Washington to force postponement of consideration at all costs until fall. Various Senators assert that under no circumstances will they remain in Washington after adjournment of the regular session. There is continuous discussion of the possibility of the special session, if it is called, recessing until late in the year, probably November. This plan may be attempted. Should it fail, opponents of the treaty can delay consideration merely by absenting themselves from the Senate to the end that it will be difficult or impossible to obtain a quorum.

Mr. Dawes is an overnight guest at the White House. This was the first meeting between the President and the Ambassador since the London treaty was negotiated. It is taken for granted there was detailed discussion of the treaty itself and the situation in the Senate bearing upon it, but Mr. Dawes refused to discuss his conference with Mr. Hoover. He was with the President more than an hour. He told correspondents he had learned since becoming an Ambassador that it is wise and safe to plead the protection of his ambassadorial status when pressed to answer questions or supply delicate information.

KNOWN AS "GENERAL"

Dropping his ambassadorial role, the former Vice-President sauntered into the Senate press gallery this afternoon to meet and exchange repartee with old friends among the correspondents.

No one thought of addressing him as "your excellency" or as "Mr. Ambassador" or even Vice-President. Everyone who spoke to him called him "General."

With the famous underslung pipe tightly clenched in his mouth, his eyes twinkling as of old, he fired answers through his teeth, barked out a new resentment over the failure of the Senate to modernize its rules.

"One Senator can bring it about and stop this eternal bartering and bickering," he shouted. "You bet I am still for revision of the rules. Just let one Senator stand up and object to all legislation until these rules are revised and you will get it."

"What's the low down on the naval treaty?" asked a correspondent of small stature. Dawes towering above him give him a glance and replied:

"You're down there where you ought to know."

"What do you think of the treaty?"

QUESTIONED ON CHICAGO

"The President has a statement on that today," replied the Ambassador to Great Britain, "and I never stole the headlines from but one President in my life. That was Coolidge."

"Yes," interposed one of the questioners, "and he never forgave you for it."

Dawes pretended not to hear this comment on the events of the day when he and Calvin Coolidge were inaugurated President and Vice-President, respectively, and he created a sensation by denouncing to the Senate its archaic rules of legislative procedure.

Recently the papers have carried reports that because of the crime wave in Dawes's home city of Chicago, he might resign as Ambassador to Great Britain to run for Mayor.

"Are you going to resign as Ambassador?" he was asked.

"Haven't I made a good Ambassador?" he countered.

"Will you take the job of cleaning up Chicago?"

"I never refuse a job that has not been offered to me."

"Are you going back to London as Ambassador?"

"Yes, in about three weeks."

BROTHER OF AL CAPONE SENTENCED

Three-Year Term and Fine of $10,000 Imposed for False Tax Returns

CHICAGO, June 16. (AP)—Ralph J. Capone, brother of Al (Scarface) Capone, today was sentenced to three years in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and fined $10,000 for having defrauded the government by filing false income tax returns.

Capone was convicted on two charges. On one count he was sentenced to serve three years at Leavenworth and fined $10,000; on the other, he was sentenced to two years in the Cook County Jail and fined $10,000. The terms were made concurrent, however, and the second $10,000 fine was suspended.

Government testimony showed Capone had maintained several separate bank accounts under assumed names and had deposited $1,871,000 from 1924 to 1929. His profits from gambling, bootlegging and other activities were estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

DELAY LOOMS FOR CONGRESS

Veterans' Bill May Block Senate Adjournment

Work on Rivers and Harbor Measure Speeded

Steps Taken to Prevent Filibuster on Dam ,

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—Demands today in the Senate that no adjournment be taken until the veterans' relief measure has been sent to the White House and approved or vetoed by President Hoover complicated the early adjournment program.

Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, informed President Hoover at a breakfast conference there is no likelihood of carrying out the plan of House leaders for ending the session this week.

However, the Senate speeded its work on the huge rivers and harbors measure, and Senator McNary, Oregon, the assistant Republican leader, expressed hope tonight that the Saturday adjournment might be carried out.

Speaker Longworth came to the Senate to inform leaders of the desire of the House membership to get away by the end of the week, but he was advised to withhold the adjournment resolution for several days.

Meantime the Senate fears a filibuster on the Boulder Dam appropriation in the second deficiency appropriation bill and teps were taken to prepare a cloture petition to shut off debate if that occurs. The Arizona Senators are prepared to fight this appropriation.

Until the second deficiency bill, carrying vast emergency appropriations, is enacted, Senate leaders intend to make no move toward adjournment.

G.O.P. ACCEPTS TARIFF AS ISSUE

Democratic Challenge Taken Up by Senator Watson

President Made Target for Vituperation by Harrison

Customs Service Ready to Collect New Rates

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The challenge of the Democratic National Executive Commiteee that the tariff be the issue in the November Congressional elections was accepted by Republican leaders today as President Hoover arranged to sign the bill and Democrats in and out of Congress assailed the Executive's week-end statement.

"Let it be an issue," said Senator Watson, Indiana, the Republican chieftain. "We have never lost yet on that issue. The people of America have prospered under tariff protection."

Taking the floor soon after the Senate met Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, accused Mr. Hoover of "hypocrisy and deception" in his statement announcing he would approve the Hawley-Smoot measure.

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the Democratic leader, in a statement to the press, described the President's announcement as "an approval of the tariff bill with emphatic and important reservations."

The Harrison attack came soon after Vice-President Curtis had signed the bill and sent it to the White House.

If it is signed tomorrow it will take effect at midnight tomorrow night.

Despite the brief grace allowed between the old and new rates, Treasury officials announced they are ready to administer the new tariff structure.

ARTISTS' HOME TOO HOMELIKE

Carnegie Quarters in Paris Shunned by Students

No Wine, No Women, No Song, No Tenants, Either

Lone Painter's Unclad Model Scandalized Janitor

[Copyright, 1930, Chicago Tribune]

PARIS, June 16. (Exclusive)—The sumptuous American students' home in Cite Universitaire, which was hopefully intended to replace the traditional dingy garrets on the left bank of the Seine, which have been the haven of young intellectuals abroad, remains virtually deserted more than a month after its opening, due to the objections of the students to what they consider the monastic way of life prevailing there.

By monastic life the students mean that drinking is frowned upon and the inmates are strictly forbidden to entertain members of the opposite sex in their rooms. Furthermore, a young artist recently rented a studio, only to find that he could not introduce a model, so he left in a huff the next day. The word of this spread like wildfire around Montparnasse, and the home is boycotted by the artists.

"HOME" DESERTED

Although every week a new boatload of students arrives, the home is practically empty and scores of artists of the left bank who were on the point of flocking there, have settled back in the drab, but broadminded little French hotels.

The situation is distressing to the Carnegie Foundation and other charities that sponsored the erection of the home in order to provide American students with clean, cheap lodging with all American comforts—and also to steer them away from the city's pitfalls.

The American students' home is a handsome five-story brick and stone building flanked by the student homes of other nations, which compose the Cite Universitaire. It is decorated within in tasteful modern style, has luxurious lounging rooms and spacious halls. The rooms are airy and comfortable.

TOO MUCH LIKE HOME

Every floor is equipped with baths and showers, whereas the average student in the garrets in the Latin quarter do not even have running water. The rentals are less than a student pays for a two-by-four cubby-hole under the eaves of a crumbling tenement. On the top floor of the building is a row of magnificent large artists' studios, probably the finest in all Paris.

Despite all these attractions a visit to the home today disclosed the spacious hallways empty, the corridors as silent as a tomb, and the row of superb studios ironically empty. The girls and boys are segregated in different wings of the building and the students resent this. They would rather stay in the dingy garrets where they can throw a little party now and then.

PIONEER REPORTS

James Newell of Philadelphia, the lone artist who occupied the top floor, for twenty-four hours, today gave an account of the affair.

Newell, who is a fresco artist, had a model come to his room to pose for a large mural which he was painting. He was out getting his brushes and easel and the girl was disrobing on the balcony when there was a knock on the door and the janitor entered.

"Have you a girl in your room?" he demanded. Then he glanced up on the balcony and caught a gleam of white flesh and the flash of scanty pink panties and ran out horrified. The director was summoned, who refused to listen to Newell's indignant remonstrance, so the artist packed up and left.

"It is an outrage," he declared. "Americans have no right to try to impose American puritanism on Paris. It is a farce to have studios for artists and then not permit them to use models. Anyone who wants to go wrong has plenty of opportunities in this town without going to the trouble of hiring a model for the purpose. Besides, just try to get fresh with the average model and see what happens."

Intellectual circles of Montparnasse are indignant and a number of leading artists are planning to make a public protest.

NEW COURT SITE BEING CLEARED

High Tribunal Building Will Provide Greater Office Space

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—Work begins this week on a project the ultimate aim of which is the elimination of serious handicaps under which the members of the Supreme Court have worked for years.

This is in preparation for the erection of the new Supreme Court Building, across the Plaza from the Capitol, near the Library of Congress. The immediate operations concern the removal of buildings now occupying the selected site.

The importance of the new building will not lie in providing a commodious courtroom, but in giving the members of the court adequate office rooms. For years most of them have been forced to do the onerous work of preparing opinions at their homes without adequate library facilities.

When the building is completed each justice will have ample office space in it where, surrounded by his clerks, he will have proper facilities for discharging his important duties. There will be provided a large law library, an indispensable facility in the study and decision of law controversies.

Relapse Following Operation Responsible for End

His Brain Children Given Distinct Personalities

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Elmer A. Sperry, perfecter of the gyroscope, died today at St. John's Hospital.

In addition to the gyroscope he invented the gyrocompass airplane and ship stabilizer, high-intensity searchlight, compound internal-combustion engine, fire-control apparatus and numerous special devices, many of them for the United States Navy. He had been a member of the naval consulting board since 1915.

Mr. Sperry underwent an operation several weeks ago and apparently was recovering when he had a relapse.

From his childhood in Cortland, N. Y., he had a predilection for mechanics, toys and gadgets, and at his death had filed 400 patents.

His inventions to him had distinct personalities and he spoke of them as "he," "that fellow," "that brute." In an interview recently he said:

"Take an ordinary engine. Here's a boy and a girl and they want to get married. They're the air and gasoline in the cylinder. They chase each other around and then comes a spark. That's the parson."

Two years ago he disposed of his last business enterprise, the Sperry Gyroscope Company, to the Curtiss Airplane Company, to devote his activities to research only.

Government Army Moves Back to Railway

SHANGHAI, June 16. (AP)—The Nationalist government forces today halted the drive of the southern rebels close to Wuchang's walls, but were reported thrust back by the northern rebels fighting toward Wuchang and its sister cities, Hankow and Hanyang, Central China.

Fifty thousand Nationalists fought off the southerners. President Chiang Kai-shek in person commanded the government troops, who, after recent retreats from Changsha and Yochow, gave way again Saturday.

The northern alliance rebels, however, were reported to have forced back the Nationalists in sharp fighting north of Hankow. Weakened by withdrawals of its troops to fight the southerners, the government army withdrew to Chumatien, 125 miles south of Chengchow, Honan Province, along the Peiping-Hankow railway.

AMERICAN RAIL MAN SLAIN IN HONDURAS

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The American Legation at Tegucigalpa informed the State Department today the American roadmaster of the Standard Fruit and Steamship Company, named Terry, was killed near Ceiba by Felix Sandoval.

Terry's first name was not reported. The only motive was said to have been Terry's refusal to deliver a railway automobile to Sandoval.

PEERLESS: "ALL THAT THE NAME IMPLIES"

'round the town with don herold

THIS day and age! I asked a saleswoman on the glass and china floor at Parmelee-Dohrmann's to show me the "bride's register" in which friends of a bride can register the china or glassware pattern favored by the bride. (There's one for silver, too.)

It is quite a thick book, and while we were looking at it, three or four saleswomen came up to refer to it for customers then in the store. It works!

Parmelee-Dohrmann can tell us what her other friends are getting Wedding invitation

When a purchase of, say, six bread and butter plates is made, it is entered in the book—so the bride will not get 54 bread and butters and no cups and saucers.

It's a good idea. The bride herself has nothing to do with it. It's calculating but it's her friends who are calculating—for her greater happiness. So why not?

ALL adult feet were children's feet once. And most adult foot trouble is the result of wrong shoes in childhood.

Children need Arch-Preservers even more than adults because these shoes are essentially preventive rather than corrective.

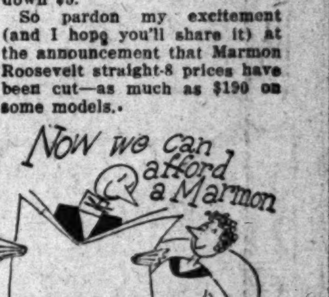
Indians and normal children toe in and walk on the outside of their soles. Arch Preservers teach the child to walk this way, and this strengthens the arches.

You see, shoe heels are the villains in this drama of feet, and all that Arch Preservers do is to offset heels. Arch-Preservers put a concealed steel-shank under your arch, giving your arch the same support you get walking barefooted on soft earth, grass or leaves. Your children will be more like little Indians (as to feet) with Arch Preservers than with ordinary shoes.

And Gude's 725 S. Broadway store now has a mighty handsome line of Arch Preservers for children from 2 years up.

WE ALL feel, somehow, that it is money in our pockets when any automobile company reduces prices. Why, I even walk more buoyantly all day when Ford prices go down $5.

So pardon my excitement (and I hope you'll share it) at the announcement that Marmon Roosevelt straight-8 prices have been cut—as much as $190 on some models.



Now we can afford a Marmon

Just think of being able to own a straight-8 of Marmon quality, a closed model, at—well, not an awful lot more than $1000 — a Marmon-Roosevelt! And with the new Marmon full-year warranty. Listen in on KHJ at 7:30 to 8 tonight for more Marmon-Roosevelt price news.

A "NO-SKIRT" swim suit cramps one's style no more than the birthday suit in which he used to swim in the old swimmin hole. It is scant and snug, yet it avoids that element of strut which marks the usual comfortable but too-revelatory swim suit for censure and censor.

As you stroll down the beach, nobody is tempted to take a shot.

I'd describe the "No-Skirt" non-technically as a swim shirt with a concealed pair of pants built into it. It is a real invention in a swim suit with an exclusive in-built support feature, and no skirt or tail to crawl up or to flap in the seaside breeze.

When you take it off you can hang it on one hook—not two or three. You put it on as one garment—it looks like one garment—and you take it off as one garment—not two or three.

Desmond's sell "No-Skirt" swim suits for men in best grade worsteds for $5.50 and $6, in one solid color or in two or three colors. For boys, $4.50.

Here again next Tuesday.

CHICAGO INFANT LIVING WITH BULLET IN BRAIN

CHICAGO, June 16. (AP)—The 6-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Stensland is still alive and eating heartily although a .22-caliber bullet is lodged in his skull.

On the 4th inst. Mrs. Stensland stood in front of her home holding the baby in her arms. She heard a gunshot; the infant, Laurence, began crying. The mother saw a blood spot on the right temple.

At first it was believed a blood vessel had been punctured, but later physicians found a hole in the temple. An X-ray showed a bullet lodged in the skull and the brain pierced. Surgeons were unable to extract the bullet Saturday and unless the condition of the baby becomes serious, no further operation to remove the bullet will be attempted.

Police could not learn who fired the shot.

ALL-NIGHT RADIO OFFERS PUZZLE

Mystery Cloaks Listener-in of Darker Hours

Scant Chance to Determine Type of Audience

'Advertising Leader Will be Heard Via KHJ

> The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m.: Dr. Frank McCoy, author of "Diet and Health" in the Sunday Times; and Jennie Durkee, instrumentalist.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

"It's Three O'Clock in the Morning"—

One of the most intriguing phases of radio broadcast is the audience scattered throughout the country "all through the night." In the daylight hours and early evening, stations have a fair idea as to listeners reached by their programs. But after midnight, when the weary dancers wend their way homeward, who is it that turns on the set and listens—at 2, 3 or 4 o'clock.

A cross-section might reveal the proverbial father who hoofs it with Lil' Snookums till the latter signs off, or the irate housewife who is waiting for friend husband—"and how." Then there are the disconsolate lover who cannot sleep for thoughts of his hearts' desire, the somnambulist and finally the ever-hungry DX operator who likes to "pick up" distant stations when the air is fairly clear.

There is drama, too, in these radio calms before the dawn—stories no doubt of people who have loved ones lingering at death's door in hospitals, while they cannot sleep at home. Of those who have lost the things of life, and sit by themselves long into the night.

What motley crowds the twenty-four-hour station touches with songs and music nobody knows. Yet, if one human heart is eased, if one human heart is pleased—even if friend wife, waiting to extend a frigid reception to her lodge-going husband, is driven to tears and forgiveness by the tremolo touch of a sentimental record—this service is worthy of the thanks of radioland and of the husband who gets the break.

WHERE TO TURN TODAY

Business men will tune in on KHJ at 12:45 noon today to hear T. W. Le Quatte, executive vice-president of the Advertising Federation of America. At 4 p.m. the battle royal or bally hoo will find the mike free again and numerous KHJ staff artists will deliver a little extemporaneous patter and song. At 5:30 p.m. unusual vocal and instrumental arrangements are to be included in the program to be presented by Freddie Rich during the mardi gras radio festival. A forty-five piece orchestra, Chick Endor, character singer, and a host of individual soloists will put on a lively program built around life aboard a showboat on the Mississippi River. At 6 tonight poor Joe will hear plenty from Vi. He's about to become a truck gardener to support his rent-free house in the country. "Melodies of Broadway" at 7:30 tonight will include "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Puttin' on the Ritz" and "Alice Blue Gown," while 8 p.m. KFRC's Ice Carnival is to find another winter sport locale and bring plenty of ice, music and song. A concert program with Dr. Carl Omeron as soloist promises to hold the dial from 8:30 until 9 tonight. At 9:30 another interesting playlet will be presented by Stuart Buchanan and a competent cast. This is a bit of radio variety you'll like.

"IL TROVATORE"

KFI at 7 tonight is to offer Arthur Lang and the North American Ensemble in a repertoire of baritone songs and orchestral niceties by way of preparation for the Adohr Opera of the Air, "Il Trovatore," by Verdi, at 8 p.m. Hazel Hayes, winner of two national music and radio contests, will assume the leading role. Mme. Luisa Silva will have the contralto part and Ludivico Tommarchio and Culic Dragoni will be heard as tenor and baritone, respectively. For lovers of opera this work of Verdi should hold the dial. At 10:45 tonight, Mae Murray, film star, will be presented.

KECA at 3:15 this afternoon is to feature a talk by James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston. At 8 tonight there will be the Royal Hidalgos Orchestra, replete with guitars and castanets. At 9 o'clock Jeanne Dunn, guest soloist with the Van Dyne Orchestra, is to be featured in "blues and tantalizing tunes."

"LAUGH-O-GRAPHS"

KNX at 9:30 p.m. is to present a new "Laugh-O-Graphs" feature. A narrator will set the picture, whereupon actors are to carry out the "action," which will deal with humor exclusively. At 8 tonight June Pursell, crooner and talking-film artist, is to appear with the KNX Orchestra, in an hour of current musical hits. At 7 tonight a special program presenting Rosalie Barker Frye, Walter Ferner and Nell Sheridan in a music and song recital, will be offered. Mayor Porter will be heard at 7:30 p.m. on what he has done and what he proposes to do as Mayor of Los Angeles.

KFWB will throw all varieties of radio entertainment into the hat tonight. At 8 p.m. there will be a Miniature Musical Portrait continuity dedicated to Edvard Grier, Norwegian composer; then at 8:30 selections from Victor Herbert's "Orange Blossoms," besides excerpts from "The Prince of Pilsen," "R[illegible] Marie" and "Kid Boots." At 9:30 p.m. Jack Thompson, welterweight champion, takes on Joe Cardoza at the Olympic Auditorium, while Ben Bernie's Dance Band is to be back again at 10 and promises to be a thirty-minute habit at this hour six nights a week.

FOUR ARRESTED IN KIDNAP WAR

Detroit Police Now Hold Eight Ring Suspects

Many Months' Investigation Results in Round-up

Six Abduction and Murder Cases May be Solved

DETROIT, June 16. (AP)—Four arrests tonight brought to eight the number of persons held in what police declare is a death blow at a kidnap gang which has preyed upon Detroiters for more than two years.

The round-up came as the climax of a six months' investigation by local and State police.

Those arrested tonight are Mrs. Grace Black, Ferndale, living in the same house with a couple already under arrest; Mrs. Doris O'Riordan, Detroit, wife of Joe O'Riordan, sought by police as one of the chief members of the kidnaping ring; James Riley of Elkhart, Ind., former Ohio convict, and a man named Marcus, identified by police only as a friend of Riley. They are held for investigation.

The four arrested late last night and early today are: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley De Long, Ferndale; Harry Hallisey, asserted "blind pig" operator of Detroit, and Benny Rubenstein, Detroit. They are booked on charges of suspicion of kidnaping.

At least six kidnapings and slayings are expected to be solved as a result of the arrests.

Mrs. Beal Sues Ex-Mate Again

REDWOOD CITY, June 16. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Beal, Burlingame society woman, filed an amended complaint in Superior Court here today, asking an accounting of all her divorced husband's oil activities, a lien on his Kettleman fields properties, and half of his profits on future leases.

Mrs. Beal charged that her ex-husband, Carl Beal, wealthy Los Angeles oil operator, "defrauded and cheated" her out of more than $100,000. They were divorced in 1928.

Mme. Romaine, Pianist, Expires

TOLEDO, June 16. (AP)—Information reached Toledo today of the death from smallpox in Srinagar, Kasmir, extreme North India, of Mme. Ninen Romaine, Toledo, internationally famous pianist. She died May 2, while on a world tour.

Mme. Romaine had played concerts in every European capital and throughout the United States and Canada.

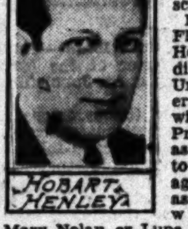
BANDIT LOCKS SIX IN STORE REFRIGERATOR

SACRAMENTO, June 16. (AP)—After locking six persons in the store refrigerator, a lone bandit succeeded in a daring daylight hold-up of one of Skaggs chain grocery stores here late today, robbing C. L. Azevedo, manager, of $110.

"FLIRT" TO BE MODERNIZED

Paramount Favorite Plays Ingenue in Berlin Picture; Noted Designer Taking Charge of Fox Effects; Albertson-Macloon Dipping Into Films

BY GRACE KINGSLEY



HOBART HENLEY

I hear that fans throughout the country are eagerly looking forward, in many cases, to seeing old silent stories made into talking pictures and becoming audible on the screen.

Now it is "The Flirt," which Hobart Henley directed for Universal several years ago, with, I believe, Priscilla Dean as star, which is to be produced again, this time as a talker, with either Mary Nolan or Lupe Velez as star.

Hobart Henley, under contract to First National, is to be loaned to Universal to again direct the story, which, incidentally, was one of the most popular Universal ever produced.

GINGER ROGERS LOANED TO ARTISTS

That clever young actress, Ginger Rogers, is forging ahead at a quite unprecedented pace.

GINGER ROGERS

Miss Rogers, under contract to Paramount, is now being loaned to United Artists to play the leading ingenue role in the Irving Berlin production, "Reaching for the Moon," we learned yesterday.

The actress is now in New York, where she has been appearing in Paramount pictures, including Jack Oakie's starring vehicle, "The Sap from Syracuse." She also played the lead in "Queen High." The youthful player will come west about July 1 to start on the United Artists picture.

JOSEPH URBAN TO DESIGN FOR FOX

That famous designer, Joseph Urban, has been engaged by Fox to supervise and design sets and costumes for two of the features which the organization will produce this year. He will arrive about July 4, and his salary, it is said, will be $7000 per week.

Something unusual in the way of settings is naturally to be expected, and as both the productions of which he will have charge readily lend themselves to imaginative treatment, there is no doubt but that a treat is in store for lovers of beautiful and unusual stage and costume effects.

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" and "The Man Who Came Back" are pictures on which the noted artist will work.

Stage Producers' Plans

LILLIAN ALBERTSON

It is understood that September 1 will see those two versatile stage producers, Louis Macloon and Lillian Albertson, thoroughly launched as picture producers. They are abandoning their theatrical activities in the near future, they admitted yesterday.

During the past few years, these two have been the principal western stage magnates. They have brought to Los Angeles many notable productions, and it is entirely to be expected that their screen activities will be in keeping with their stage records. Incidentally Miss Albertson left yesterday by Western Air Express for New York. She will return within the week.

Peter B. Kyne has a new story which Macloon is anxious to produce for the screen, the name of which is not revealed.

In the meantime, three actors under contract to Macloon and Miss Albertson are being sought for pictures. They are Clarke Gabel, Perry Askam and the beautiful Josephine Houston.

Gene Towne Goes East

Gene Towne, well-known scenario writer, is on his way to New York, where Otto Warnack is to produce "Cross-Sea," Towne's new play, if all goes well.

Hobart Bosworth Wins Role

That very skillful actor, Hobart Bosworth, has just won another important role for himself. He has been signed by Fox to play a featured part in "Just Imagine," which is to be a musical written by De Sylva, Brown and Henderson.

Edward Laemmle's Contract

Edward Laemmle, who has to his credit several Universal pictures, has just been signed by that organization on a new contract to direct.

He is at present searching for stories, and is considering several, one of which is to be selected as his first vehicle under his new contract.

Film Folk's New Beach

Film folk are to have a new beach on which to frolic, we learn. Down at Lido Isle, on Newport Bay, is the location of the new section where screen players are settling. Guy Price has the section in hand and states that because of expiring leases several Malibu beach colonists are now purchasing summer home sites at Lido.

Dry Enforcers Say Cause Has Gained Support

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—After a meeting today of the executive committee of the central co-operative committee for prohibition enforcement, embracing various prohibition organizations, Patrick H. Callahan of Louisville, chairman of the group, said in a statement that the advocates of prohibition are as numerous as ever before.

"A minority of the people now declare liquor has won and that the American nation should now confess defeat by repealing the Eighteenth Amendment," he said.

"While liquor has received some influential reinforcements," he continued, "the final outcome should never have been in doubt. The law is strong, the Constitution is strong, the churches are strong, and the people who have advocated this measure are as strong and as numerous."

Federal Agent's Slayer Housed in San Quentin

ALTURAS, June 16. (AP)—Rodney Selby, filling station attendant, today pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in connection with the slaying of Albert Brown, Federal prohibition agent, last week.

Selby was sentenced by acting Superior Judge Bonner and left immediately with Modoc county officers for San Quentin prison. Selby, fugitive in the mountains of Modoc county since the slaying the 9th inst. at Indian Springs, gave himself up Friday night.

The law provides an indeterminate sentence of ten years to life for second-degree murder.

Phoenix Traffic Crash Kills One

PHOENIX, June 16. (AP)—One man was killed and four persons were injured here tonight when their automobile sideswiped that of Dr. Charles E. Borah, former college sprinter, and plunged over an embankment. Dr. Borah was not injured.

Raymond L. Smith, 47-year-old Phoenix miner, was killed almost instantly.

Phoenix Receives Welcomed Rain

PHOENIX, June 16. (AP)—Rain fell in Phoenix tonight for more than an hour. It was the first shower of the summer.

Douglas and Tucson also reported light showers and thunderstorms during the day.

Sandstorms during the afternoon throughout the southern and central sections of the State paralyzed air travel.

Rain also fell in Flagstaff.

'Border Legion' Adapted From Popular Novel

"The Border Legion," starting Thursday at the Paramount Theater, is a picturization of Zane Grey's novel of a lawless, hard-riding band of outlaws and the defeat they meet from a lone woman who finds love in their midst.

This romance of the West provides a vehicle for Jack Holt. Holt, in the role of the legion leader, was born in Virginia, as was Richard Arlen, the other featured player. Cast opposite these two actors is Fay Wray.

Others in "The Border Legion" cast include Eugene Pallette, Stanley Fields and E. H. Calvert. Otto Brower and Edwin Knopf directed.

Ramon Novarro to Star in New Film at Loew's

Ramon Novarro makes love, carouses with Spanish students and sings dreamy romantic love songs in his second talking screen vehicle, "In Gay Madrid," starting Thursday at Loew's State.

The romance of the old-world atmosphere is said to be in keen contrast to the many recent stories of modern jazz youth. Dorothy Jordan, Lottice Howell, Beryl Mercer, Claude King, Eugenia Besserer, William V. Mong play supporting roles. Robert Z. Leonard directed.

The current program offers "Not Damaged," a romantic comedy.

Piano Numbers Prove Popular

The outstanding features of the Barker Brothers concert yesterday afternoon were the two piano numbers of Ann Thompson McDowell and Evelyn Paddock Smith. The ability of these two interesting young women is well known throughout Southern California.

Miss McDowell has appeared throughout the country in recitals and also with Ruth St. Denis as co-artist.

"CAPRICE" GAY IN REPARTEE

Fay Bainter Delights in Comedy Mood

Risque Plot Embellished With Clever Talk

Reginald Owen Acts Central Role in Play

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

The counselor-at-law is a reprobate. A bachelor, he has lived a thoroughly miscreant romantic life. He has philandered among charming and attractive clients, while he won their cases in the courts. He has even—er-hem—an heir. Yet, at the finale, there is for him a pleasant prospect of happiness . . .

Perhaps, under the circumstances, it is just as well that the play, wherein all this eventuates, is called by the utterly indefinite and ingenuous title of "Caprice." The name would seem to apply admirably in the case of the amusingly reprehensible stage piece by G. Sil-Vara, which opened last evening at the Belasco Theater, and brought with it the renewal of Fay Bainter's fascination as a footlight star.

Quite naturally, she did not play the role of the bachelor (who is really the central personage in the play.) That as it happens was very competently done by Reginald Owen, featured in a cast, which also prominently names Lily Cahill, seen in the original production on the New York stage.

SMART EVENT

It was a smart evening in the theater, all told. The first line initial-nighters were present, and were pleased. They reserved the largest ovation for the final curtain on the play. When it did come the applause was a lavish index of interest. Miss Bainter and Mr. Owen were the primary sharers in this recognition of their very excellent work.

In New York "Caprice" was a Theater Guild presentation of about two seasons ago, well favored, and played by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne.

The role of Ilse Von Ilsen interpreted in the cast by Miss Fontanne has an undeniable suitability to Miss Bainter who assumes it in the West. Certainly the character removes itself far from the one that she last enacted in "Jealousy."

The mood is for comedy, and Miss Bainter has the chance to flash, to flaunt and perhaps even to flounce in an exit or two, in this particular portrayal. Moreover, the role is a very gownish affair, and gives her in one act a blonde wig to wear. Additional revelation this of personality.

I like Miss Bainter in comedy. She always does it engagingly. And in "Caprice" she is wholly ultra while amusing. There are no restrictions on the sophisticate manner, and she gleams in such a milieu. I would say that it is one of her most delightful bits of acting, even though it is decidedly not the stellar role in the play as written.

REPARTEE THE BEST

"Caprice" itself is very much in the repartee, with a plot that holds in its way, because it is designed with a certain freedom. The American adaptation was made by Philip Moeller, it should be noted—and there is marked brilliancy in the lines, some of which are individually worth the evening.

None more graceful, perhaps, than the bit of repartee between the bachelor and his fiancee, after she has fled from him, when his son by a former indiscretion and the indiscretion herself arrive.

"Why, you've changed the color of your hair since you went away," he says. "Did you dye it?"

"No," she replies, "it turned gold from grief."

Timorously conservative souls may shrink from "Caprice," needless to say. It is the essence of naughtiness per implication, and it even has a love scene not wholly unembarrassing.

In some ways, if you want to analyze it, the piece has less actual reason for being than almost any play that has appeared upon the stage—that is on a moral ground. But it lives up to its title in being utterly and in many respects most delectably just "Caprice."

To Mr. Owen as the counselor goes chief approbation for sustaining with credibility the essential role in the plot. I marvel at the immobility of his monocle. I think his interpretation needs more nuance. However, it is positively and effectively done, with marked emphasis on the humor, especially in the scenes with his son.

Miss Cahill gives an adequate impersonation of a rather boresome provincial person. It is not an ingratiating part to play, but it is all the more to her credit that she does it so convincingly. David Scott as the idealistic boy is not wholly a victor in this rather essential part. He has approvable moments, but one misses a certain realistic note of naivete in the portrayal. Gladys McConnell, good in an introductory scene, Alice Parks and Frederick Sullivan and Lucien Self are others.

If you like comedy that is exceedingly bright conversationally, but duly risque in the continental fashion, and a bit frothy, perhaps, too, "Caprice" is the play. With Miss Bainter it unquestionably gains facets of appeal.

Husband, Wife Collaborate on M.-G.-M. Film

Husband and wife are responsible for "The Big House." George Hill, director, and Frances Marion, scenarist, are given credit by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for the society and underworld drama, which succeeds Norma Shearer's vehicle at the Criterion Theater on the 25th inst.

M.-G.-M. officials point out that as a result of this happy combination of husband and wife in the making of "The Big House" there is a perfect balance of masculine and feminine interest in the picture.

Frances Marion selected Leila Hyams for the role of the society girl, and George Hill chose Wallace Beery for what is said to be the most successful role of his career, that of a grimy humorous underworld character.

Noted Wit Takes Second Film Trip

And screen family journey to the British Isles in "So This is London," which starts a run at the Carthay Circle Theater Thursday night. The picture is somewhat of a sequel to the humorist's first talkie, "They Had to See Paris."

STAGE REVUES PLANNED

J. L. Warner, production head of Warner Brothers, announces that starting July 4 Larry Ceballos will again produce his spectacular stage revues at Warner Brothers Hollywood Theater.

Ceballos's productions opened the Hollywood Theater and for over a year were popular with the theatergoing public. The presentations won for the director a long-term contract with Warner Brothers.

Warner is quoted as saying "The same type of revues will return, but will be staged on an even more lavish scale than ever before. Mr. Ceballos has proved himself the outstanding genius of original dance steps and scenic effects. Our decision to return his revues came after receiving thousands of requests from patrons of the Hollywood Theater. Rehearsals are scheduled to start within the next few days."

DIXIE LOVE STORY TOLD ON STAGE

"Under a Virginia Moon" Presented by Fawcetts at Vine-Street

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

A tale of romance in a southern garden, a delightful, walled-in garden where honeysuckle and rose vines clamber in profusion, was placed before playgoers of Hollywood last night in the Vine Street Theater as "Under a Virginia Moon."

George Fawcett was the producer, Miss Percy Haswell (Mrs. Fawcett,) the principal player, and the author, although programmed as Kenneth Kole, is said to be none other than Miss Margaret Fawcett, their daughter. Thus, the production was rather in the nature of a co-operative family effort, although it carried a distinctly professional aspect.

The plot of "Under a Virginia Moon" concerns itself with the multiple romances of Miss Haswell in the person of a charming southern woman, who, despite a marriageable daughter, is herself in and out of one affair of heart after another.

Her daughter, a trim-minded miss just graduated from a northern school, will have none of her stepfather, Miss Haswell's current husband, a soft-spoken, irresponsible inebriate. Daughter makes a scene, and husband, always the gentleman, makes an exit. Then there is a divorce—quite an advanced step for the little Virginia town—but mother, in widow's black, endeavors dramatically to make the best of it. Besides, there is the lawyer. It looks as if he is about to be husband No. 3, when—well, why go into the story further.

Incidentally, daughter has her own romance to take care of the while she is taking care of mother. This complicates the situation. In due time a double wedding and a party with punch provide the happy ending.

"Under A Virginia Moon" bears a close resemblance to a play shown at Egan's a year ago, called at that time, "The Old Shoe," in which Miss Haswell played and which Miss Fawcett wrote.

The current effort has been embellished with music, rather on the order of music in the talkies. Songs just happen at intervals during the production. For example, Miss Dulcie Cooper, who plays the daughter, and Randolph Scott are sitting on the steps holding hands when they break into the refrain of "Sleepy Time Down South." It is taken up and sung, to excellent effect, by Clarence Muse in the person of Jackson, the Negro servant. Muse has another song, "Go Down Moses," in the second act. Then, later on, Pierre White (the attorney) and Albertine Pickens sing, respectively, "Me and the River" and "11:30 Saturday Night."

"Under a Virginia Moon," moving leisurely through its three acts and various songs, manages to capture and convey a certain charm. It is an adventure in pure romance and should come, to some folks, as a relief after the penetrating forays into realism of most plays of this season.

Miss Haswell, as the middle-aged belle, is ever the center of attention. She gives an amazingly human portrait of the honey-toned, drawling Amanda Rutherford. Vernon Steele, the irresponsible inebriate, gives a capital performance. Dulcie Cooper, as the daughter, the only one of the cast, to my recollection, who doesn't drip a southern accent, acquits herself capably, while John Webb Dillon, a stiff-necked southern major, Pierre White as the attorney, Edna West and Grace Goodall are in character roles.

Japanese Here to Learn About Talking Films

Matsui Suisei arrived from Tokio, Japan, to learn what to say before a talkie is unreeled in a Japanese motion-picture house. For the young and scholarly Suisei is a master of ceremonies in a movie theater, that is, he explains to the oriental audience what the players are saying in English.

He reports that the people of the Cherry Blossom Kingdom are enthusiastic about this new mystery of sound, and crowd the picture theaters day and night, although only one out of every 100 understands English.

The favorite actor of the girls there is Gary Cooper, because he is "a bit rough," and most of the men they know are imperturbable orientals. The young blades, of course, favor Clara Bow, while the schoolgirls adore Nancy Carroll. Middle-aged ladies flock to see Adolph Menjou.

Suisei will be attached to the foreign department of Paramount for several months. He is staying at the Hollywood Plaza.

Player's Name Made Informal by Paramount

Leaving New York a few days ago as Charles Ruggles, that motion-picture comedian arrived in Hollywood last evening as Charlie Ruggles. While Ruggles was on the train an executive meeting was held at the Paramount New York studios, where he is under contract as a film player, with the result that his name was officially made informal.

Just before reaching Los Angeles, where he is to appear with Jeanette MacDonald in a musical film at the Paramount studios, Ruggles learned of his rechristening by telegraph. The change was made because practically all of his fan mail has come to him as "Charlie," showing a fan preference for this name.

Ruggles returns for his first talking picture in his birthplace and the city in which he made his debut as a stage player. He was a stage and musical-comedy favorite before making his talking-film debut in "Gentlemen of the Press."

Moments of Humor Lighten Prison Drama

Although "The Last Mile," drama of prison rioting, now at the Majestic Theater, is a powerful story of life and death, it is not without its humorous moments.

In writing the play John Wexley reported conditions just as he found them in the death house of a State penitentiary. No obvious attempts were made at comedy, therefore the humorous situations are perfectly natural and form a contrasting relief to the tension of the play.

With its comedy, drama, pathos and bristling lines, "The Last Mile" offers diversified appeals and contains all the elements of good entertainment it is said. The cast includes Clark Gable, Edwards Woods, Russell Hopton, Paul Fix and others.

BURLESQUE PLEASING

"Girls in Blue." current attraction at the Follies, is good burlesque entertainment. New comedy bits and scenes are plentiful. Evelyn Myers reveals herself as a versatile soubrette, and Wanda Devon again charms. The comedy is taken care of by Bumps Mack and Ray Parsons. The chorus of forty contributes dancing ability and pep.

GUNS BARK IN NEW THRILLER

"Crime" Proves Energetic Stage Production

Melodrama Progresses at Exciting Tempo

Kenneth Daigneau Has Chief Role at President

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

They shoot from the hip and talk about it afterward—these gunmen and others who people the stage of the President Theater where "Crime" opened last night. As filled with incident as a movie, this melodrama of Samuel Shipman and John B. Hymer boasts four energetic acts in which plot and counter-plot meet in a death struggle. When the smoke clears away one adduces a moral: Crime doesn't pay. The exception that may prove the rule is this "Crime."

For audiences, I gather, are going to enjoy themselves in this dime-museum underworld which this duo of playwrights—earlier identified with, of all things, "East Is West"—has brought to the boards. Being old hands at the theater, they know how to keep events progressing without too much insistence on the truth. I should hate to think that such noble crooks existed as the one who calls himself, for example, Eugene Fenmore. But he is good fun for the playgoer.

EXCITEMENT A-PLENTY

The high point of the current shenanigans is reached with the spectacular hold-up and robbery of Goldberg's Jewelry Shop in Times Square, early one spring morning. This is touched in the first scene of the third act, and is filled with enough excitement for one morning—or evening. The cold-blooded murder of one of the gang, in the scene that follows, is just so much velvet. So is the detailed radio description of the late affair which comes to the slightly flabbergasted audience through loud-speakers scattered about the auditorium; interesting, but a little superfluous, considering that the same audience has already heard the plot mapped out, iota by iota, in a long second act, and then has seen it carried out.

However, there is no intent to be "deep" in this piece. "Crime" is no more subtle than a .38-caliber gat without benefit of silencer. It may be easily charted on the way it will go before the first-act curtain drops; but pleasure may well be derived from it in the satisfaction of being a good guesser. The big-hearted "chief," one knows, will go on being big hearted to the end; and the boy and girl who, all unwittingly, become "dupes" of the gang, will go free—or comparatively free, and so into matrimony and a blissful, theoretical fifth act.

SEVERAL PLAYERS NOTED

It is just how it is done that matters; and Old Hands Shipman and Hymer have looked after that. So have the players assembled by Producer Henry Duffy, with adequate performances being checked all along the line, and even better than that, in the instances of Miss Flora Bramley, who grows increasingly proficient in her business; Mr. Leonard Strong, especially in his "third degree" scene; Mr. Kenneth Daigneau, as the "master crook" with a policy of "nonviolent resistance;" and Mr. George Henry Trater as old Mouse Turner, who knew the game "when." Conspicuous, also, are Messrs. Jerome Sheldon, Francis Bolger, Frank Killinger, Arthur Wellington, Ralf Belmont and William Abram. Miss Marie Myers acts the jealous underworldling with such vehemence in her calmer moments that I should dread seeing her really riled.

"Crime" is made to order for the pictures. Its only deterrent, it would seem, is its transgression of the code specifying that methods of lawbreaking shall not be shown in detail. And that should be a simple matter to the skillful studio scriveners, even if, in making the play safe for the cinema, they completely dispense with its real "kick"—the daylight "job" at Goldberg's. At any rate, it is there in the show at the President, where you may anticipate it tonight if you still remember "Diamond Dick" with affection.

Westerns Again in Favor, Says Wallace Smith

The return of the western drama to the popularity it enjoyed a few years ago is predicted by Wallace Smith, author and scenarist, whose original story, "Beau Bandit," is now having its first western showing at the California Theater. This picture is a story of the Mojave Desert and the characters are the rough, human folk of the wild West.

Other types of pictures may enjoy temporary favor, declares Smith, but when the public tires of the society drama, the war play, the gangster story or other special classes of drama, they always refresh their interest in the theater with the western picture.

"Beau Bandit" is a typical western thriller, produced with all of the modern picture technique. Rod La Rocque is starred in one of the most colorful roles of his career, that of a reckless and chivalrous knight of the plains.

Former Convict Advises on New Powell Vehicle

For William Powell's latest starring picture, "Shadow of the Law," a former convict was employed as technical adviser. This Paramount production starts Friday at the United Artists' Theater, following the current attraction, "The Big Pond."

Supporting Powell in "Shadow of the Law," are Natalie Moorhead, Marion Shilling, Regis Toomey, James Durkin, Richard Tucker, Paul Hurst, Frederic Burt and Walter James.

"The Big Pond" has set new attendance records for the year at the United Artists' Theater, according to an announcement.

COME

to the Crescent Bay of Monterey... to Carmel's Pine-Clad Hills

THERE'S a new kind of vacation waiting for you on the Monterey Peninsula. No crowding—no summer heat. Instead, you'll find miles of cool sanded seashore where the waves roll in from China. And up above the ocean, pine-wooded hills and bubbling mountain streams with fish that bite. (They bite in the ocean too, and your day in a deep-sea boat may mean a life-long boast.) Then, if you tire of the coolness of the coast, in twenty minutes you can be in the sun-drenched valley of the Carmel.

At Carmel, Monterey and Pacific Grove you have a choice of fine hotels and modest cottages either high on the hills or close beside the sea.

TREASURY RIDES FLOOD OF GOLD

Totals of Tax Payments Reaching New Heights

Hoover to End Fiscal Year With Comfortable Surplus

Government's Yearly Income to Top $4,000,000,000

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—With more than $1,500,000,000 passing through the United States Treasury today the second payment of taxes on 1929 incomes poured into the government coffers to swell such collections to unprecedented totals.

Treasury experts estimated today's collections to amount to $500,000,000 or more. At the same time the government paid off $450,000,000 in maturing certificates of indebtedness, taking in $450,000,000 from the sale of such securities and paying about $90,000,000 interest on the public debt.

HUGE COLLECTIONS

On the 12th inst., the last day shown in the Treasury's daily statement, the government had collected for the fiscal year which started July 1 a total of $3,457,920,019 and had spent in the same time $3,698,572,649. Though this left a deficit of $240,652,630 Treasury officials expected President Hoover's first full fiscal year in office to end with a comfortable surplus.

BEATS LAST YEAR

The total income for the year to the 12th inst. was $105,000,000 more than received in the same period of last year while the expenditures were $177,000,000 greater, due in part to increasing government activities and the operations of the Federal Farm Board.

With at least $500,000,000 in income tax expected by the Treasury before the end of the fiscal year on the 30th inst. indications are that the government will have a total income during the year of a little more than $4,000,000,000, and end the year with a surplus of $100,000,000 or more.

Cash payments by foreign governments on account of their funded indebtedness to the United States totaling $117,114,598.24, gave further assurance to the Treasury today that it can complete the fiscal year with a surplus.

Of the total, $45,786,467.50 was on account of principal and $71,355,130.74 interest.

FITTS ASSAILS YOUNG'S POLICY

Agricultural Aid Methods of Governor Scored

Board Plan Held Means for Shirking Responsibility

Reduction of Taxes Cited as Paramount Issue

SANTA ROSA, June 16. (Exclusive)—The agricultural policy of the administration of Gov. Young was assailed tonight by Buron Fitts, Los Angeles District Attorney and former Lieutenant-Governor, in a speech which opened the Sonoma county campaign of Fitts for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Fitts arrived here from Petaluma and San Rafael, where he addressed the Rotary Club at noon. His speech here tonight, before several hundred persons at the Elks' Club, was in the nature of a reply to the address at Marysville last week of Gov. Young on agricultural problems.

YOUNG PLAN SCORED

"Gov. Young said that he would continue to furnish relief to the farmer," said Fitts. "Four more years of such relief as we have had from the present State administration and the farmers will be relieved of their farms."

The candidate charged the administration had broken its promise to the farmers on the shipside cold-storage plant at San Francisco and declared that furnished "a forecast what you may expect if California should be so unfortunate as to face four more years of the same kind of mismanagement of agricultural problems."

"The trouble in California during the last four years," he asserted, "is that we have been forced to put up with a policy of evasion and vacillation, a policy aimed at dodging responsibility. Delay, linger and wait has been the motto of the present State administration and the results are evident in the manner of evading action on every vital problem the State has faced.

SHIRKING CHARGED

"In agriculture we have had a glaring example of it in the creation of the agricultural advisory board. Gov. Young signed the bill creating this board in the face of opposition from all of the nationally recognized farm organizations. The farmer does not want any buffer to stand between him and the State Director of Agriculture. The State Director of Agriculture should be so well qualified for that important position as to need no advisory board to tell him what to do. We cannot have a Director of Agriculture who finds it necessary to shirk responsibility or hide behind an advisory board with no responsibility to the people, to the farmers, nor to anyone else.

TAX RELIEF URGED

"What consideration was shown the farmer in the matter of taxes? The old Tax Commission turned its back on the tax problem of the farmer. Certainly no measure of relief from the heavy tax burden borne by the farmer came as a result of the tax investigation. The present Tax Commission appointed by the Legislature has been warned by the leaders of farm organizations that unless some adequate relief is provided, the individual independent farmer is going to become extinct in California.

"Unless tax relief is provided for the farmers, we are going to see the small farmer driven to the wall and our agricultural system replaced by tenant farmers."

SISTER OF SHORTRIDGE IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

SACRAMENTO, June 16. (AP)—Clara Shortridge Foltz, Los Angeles woman attorney, filed with the Secretary of State's office today her declaration of intention to run for Governor as a Republican candidate in the coming August election. Officials said this is the first time in the history of the State that a woman has filed for this office.

Mrs. Foltz is a sister of United States Senator Shortridge of California. In her papers she stated she has been a resident of California for thirty-five years.

Senate Adopts Merger Quiz

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The Senate today adopted the Couzens resolution authorizing investigation by its commerce committee of railroad consolidations and their effect upon the public interest.

Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, explained that the study, which will be made during the summer recess, contemplates the preparation of new legislation and "follows naturally" the adoption of a measure restricting unification until new regulaitons are enacted. The latter measure is before the House.

WORLD BANK LOAN POLICY STIRS CLASH

Senate Asks Explanation from State Department of Approval Given Bonds

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP)—The Senate today adopted a resolution by Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, calling on the State Department to inform the Senate by what law it assumes "to approve or disapprove" the proposed flotation in this country of $100,000,000 of reparations bonds through the international bank.

Glass said he had been informed the State Department had assumed the function of passing on loans in 1922 "to compel a foreign government to adjust its indebtedness to this country."

"That untenable excuse no longer applies," Glass, who is a former Secretary of the Treasury, asserted. He explained that the indebtedness already has been settled.

"For the last two years," he continued, "it has been exceedingly difficult for States to float loans on the American market. Yet here the State Department assumes the right to approve foreign loans which must compete with domestic loans."

Burglar Steals Capone Perjury Case Documents

MIAMI (Fla.) June 16. (Exclusive)—An attempt to steal evidence proving the charges of perjury against Al Capone was made some time Sunday, it was discovered today. The desk, files and safe of Richard H. Hunt, special prosecutor of the County Solicitor's office, were ransacked and all matter pertaining to the Capone case was taken.

Entrance to the office had been made through a forced door. The affidavits in the Capone case, which had been left on the desk were missing. In the safe was $150 in cash, which had not been molested.

Mr. Hunt said that the robber had obtained only carbon copies, as he had taken the originals to the Courthouse Saturday, where they had been locked in the Courthouse vault.

DANVILLE (Va.) June 16. (AP)—Frank W. Davis, 58 years of age, farmer who recently broke a fast which he had continued for twenty-six days in an effort to end his life, is dead from a shotgun wound.

Davis was found dead in his cabin yesterday by neighbors. Authorities said it was suicide.

WINE MAKERS BALK SIGN-UP

Doran Would Aid Campaign of Grape Growers

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (Exclusive)—In the belief that the campaign to sign 85 per cent of California's grape tonnage to the Federal Farm Board's stabilization program is being hindered by those who purchase grapes for bootlegging purposes, James M. Doran, National Prohibition Commissioner, today offered co-operation.

His assistance was sought by executives of the campaign following a meeting of representatives of State industries, banks, farms and universities, at which William G. Walker, prohibition administrator for Northern California, pledged his support.

News Boycott Scheme Urged

MILWAUKEE, June 16. (AP)—Stopping the flow of small-town news at its source was suggested to country editors today as one way of ending competition from near-by metropolitan dailies.

Speaking before the national association in convention here, Mrs. W. W. Henderson of the La Plata (Mo.) Home Press, said editors should stop sending news to the dailies when it is used as an opening wedge to greater rural circulation.

STATE REQUIRES BORDER CIVILITY

Agricultural Guards Must Not Annoy Tourists

SACRAMENTO, June 16. (AP)—Assertions that inspectors of the Department of Agriculture border stations had caused tourists unnecessary inconvenience were answered today by department officials who said that such tactics will not be tolerated.

While stating that California's $750,000,000 farm industry must be protected from importation of damaging pests, officials pointed out that inspectors of the twenty-two stations had been instructed to show every courtesy and convenience to incoming travelers.

"We do not want to give tourists a bad impression of California," officials said.

GLIDER PILOT GIVEN CHECK

Jack Barstow Remunerated For Endurance Flight

Unofficial Holder of World Record Gets $1250

Detroit Aircraft Corporation Sends Cash

SAN DIEGO, June 16.—Jack Barstow, local glider pilot, who on April 29 and 30 unofficially broke the world's endurance-flight record by soaring over Point Loma for fifteen hours and thirteen minutes, today received a check for $1250 as his share of $2500 in prize money for the feat from E. S. Evans, president of the Detroit Aircraft Corporation and honorary president of the National Glider Association. Absence of a barograph in his glider robbed Barstow of an official world's record.

He went aloft again May 3 in an attempt to set an official record, but crashed on the cliffs at Point Loma when his glider was caught in a treacherous air current. Injured seriously in the accident, Barstow was in a hospital until eight days ago, when he was removed to his home. It is expected that he will be confined to his bed for about five more weeks.

The $1250 check for Barstow today was received by William Van Dusen of the Chamber of Commerce, who observed and timed the fifteen-hour flight in April.

Evans, who heads the $100,000,000 Detroit Aircraft Corporation, owner of twelve subsidiary organizations, including the Ryan Aircraft Corporation and the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, had offered $2000 for the first American ten-hour flight and $100 for each hour over that time. Half of the $2500 goes to Barstow and half to Pacific Coast Gliders, Ltd., for which he was chief pilot and instructor.

Ruth Alexander, well-known aviatrix, is local manager of the company, which bought out the Bowlus Sailplane Company. D. Martin is general manager.

Antelope Valley Stages in War Over Franchises

LANCASTER, June 16.—Members of the State Railroad Commission are to meet here tomorrow to hear the application of James R. Proper, owner of the Trona Stages, who is asking permission to stop at Lancaster and immediate points, en route to Los Angeles. Local interest will follow the hearing.

Opposing Proper's request is the Pacific Greyhound Lines, newly organized motor coach merger, which is contending that the service to Antelope Valley and beyond has not paid for a period of several years, and that further competition will probably cause a curtailment of its service.

The application of the Trona Stages followed the taking off of the evening stage south, by the California Transit Company, predecessor of the Greyhound line. The loss of this stage and the desirability of adequate connections with the Trona line have prompted the local Chamber of Commerce to support the efforts now being made by Proper.

Members of the Kiwanis Club also advocated the hearing tomorrow. Meanwhile, the Pacific Greyhound Line has improved its service so as to be in a better position when its representatives appear at the hearing.

Last Rites for Auto Victim Set

HERMOSA BEACH, June 16.—Funeral services will be held at the Niland mortuary in Redondo Beach on Friday at 2 p.m. for W. I. Bradbury, well-known local resident, who was almost instantly killed when pinned between his stalled car and a tow car near San Bernardino late Saturday night. Several members of his family with whom he was making the trip to their camp at Big Bear were in the car and were uninjured. Besides his wife he leaves seven children and his mother, Mrs. Clara Bradbury, living in Long Beach.

A son, Chester Bradbury, is a shipbuilder at San Pedro and a daughter, Mildred, is a student at the University of Redlands.

Another daughter, Vivian, was a member of the graduating class of the local high school on Thursday evening. A younger daughter, Ramona, graduated from the elementary schools on the same night.

Rev. C. E. Griffin, pastor of the Community Baptist Church, will conduct the services.

WARD RIDGLEY HEADS REDONDO LIONS CLUB

REDONDO BEACH, June 16.—Ward Ridgley, local merchant, has been named president of the Lions Club, the installation to take place early in July. He was elected by unanimous ballot and succeeds President Walter Linch. Other new officers are: Tom Donovan, first vice-president; Jet Gourley, second vice-president; Bun Lewis, lion tamer; Lloyd Waller, tail twister; Harry Hill, secretary, and John Spikes, treasurer. Tom Quinn, Walter Linch, Charles Pierpoint and Jim Chambers form the board of directors.

P.-T.A. NAMES OFFICERS

SOUTH GATE, June 16. — Mrs. Harry Morck has been installed as president of the Home Gardens Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Mabel Abarr becomes first vice-president; Mrs. Clara Dissett, second vice-president; Miss Velma Hall, third vice-president; Mrs. William Herman, secretary; Mrs. Vivian Bevington, treasurer; Mrs. Morgan, historian, and Miss Anna Hiltquist, auditor.

GASOLINE BURNS YOUTH

Flaming Liquid Injures Son of College Professor at San Diego, Damages Cars, Garage and Home

SAN DIEGO, June 16.—Flaming gasoline set fire to a double garage and a two-story dwelling at 4291 Hermosa Way this morning, damaging the garage and house and three automobiles and causing painful burns to Vernon Bryson, 16 years of age, firemen report. Bryson is the son of Lyman Bryson, State College professor and widely known author and publicist. The injured youth, suffering from second-degree burns of the hands and arms, was removed to Mercy Hospital.

Investigating fire officials declared that young Bryson was transferring gasoline from one automobile to another when the gas became ignited from some undetermined cause. The blaze spread rapidly from the burning cars and garage to the rear of the two-story Bryson dwelling. Firemen saved one automobile, but three others were badly damaged. The exterior of the dwelling was scorched and burned. Bryson was given emergency treatment by firemen.

Burbank Gives Key of Town to Druid Delegates

BURBANK, June 16.—More than 700 members of the United Ancient Order of Druids of California are in Burbank today and until Thursday as delegates to the sixty-sixth annual session of the Grand Grove, the thirtieth annual session of the Grand Circle and the eleventh annual convention of the Grand Chapter.

Among leading Druids here are Noble Grand Arch Louis Giovannoni of Stockton, Grand Arch Druidess Mary J. Collins of Stockton and Grand Chief Druid A. M. Michel of Bakersfield, with their respective retinues of assisting officials.

Convention headquarters at at 130 East San Fernando Boulevard, where all visitors are registering. A large parade took place tonight, headed by the Burbank Municipal Band and Chief of Police Bergh. At 8 p.m. exercises were conducted in the Burbank City Park at Third and Olive streets, the address of welcome being made by Mayor H. E. Bruce. The response was by Noble Grand Arch Giovannoni.

Addresses also were made by J. L. Norwood, president of the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. L. I. Mulvey, president of the Burbank Woman's Club, which were responded to by Grand Arch Druidess Collins. The exercises ended with fireworks and a program of street dancing. Tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday will see various business sessions and a number of entertainment programs that have been prepared for the visitors.

The convention will close with a grand ball to be given in the Sunset Canyon Country Club in the foothills east of Burbank.

Boy's Pole Trip Story Now Said to Be "Dream"

REDLANDS, June 16.—Raymond Mercola, who told a wonderful tale when he passed through Redlands some weeks ago on his way home to Chicago about being a member of the Byrd expedition and being broke, was a dreamer, according to word received here.

It has been discovered that Raymond was a mess boy on the Eleanor Bolling, supply ship of the expedition, but that he was discharged in Australia.

In fact, Mercola's closest connection with the Byrd expedition was his two months' employment on the Eleanor Bolling, the steamer used to transport the supplies to the Byrd base, as a mess boy. Mercola was discharged by Capt. Brown while the ship was in an Australian port in February.

In San Bernardino Mercola talked at the schools and secured funds. Then he came to Redlands, decided there was small chance of getting money here and took a bus to Phoenix.

PAUL CLAGSTONE TO SPEAK AT ONTARIO

ONTARIO, June 16.—All members of the City Council and other city officials will be special guests of the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night at a dinner given in honor of Paul Clagstone, manager of the western division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, at Hotel Ontario. Clagstone is to speak on "What's Ahead for Business." Newly elected officers of the chamber and the directors will seek at the meeting to co-ordinate the chamber work more closely with that of the City Council.

NEIGHBORS AID WOMAN TO SHED COURT FINE

BURBANK, June 16. — Mrs. Blanche Blouch of 2009 Grismer avenue appeared in Judge Watson's court with a petition signed with 221 names asking for lenience. Several days ago she was assessed a fine of $500 or 500 days in jail on a charge of possessing a quantity of wine. Judge Watson suspended the punishment after reviewing the petition, but told Mrs. Blouch that a repetition of the offense would immediately put the penalty in operation again. The petition was signed by all in the neighborhood where Mrs. Blouch lives.

Youths Choose Wrong House for Canvassing

SAN DIEGO, June 16.—Full of pep and persuasiveness that would not permit them to take no for an answer, Edward Hilton and Stanley Rowsey, a pair of youths decked in blue coats and cream-colored trousers, came down from Los Angeles to sell magazine subscriptions to the housewives of San Diego. Today, under suspended sentence of thirty days in jail, they were understood to be on their way back home.

If they do not return, and Township Justice Arthur L. Mundo hears about it, they will be made to serve out the thirty days.

Friday, the 13th, was certainly their unlucky day. For it was on that day they picked the home of Sheriff Ed Cooper as being that of a likely prospect. But Mrs. Cooper said "No," most emphatically, and when the two youths tried to enter anyway, she put in a telephone call to headquarters. Deputy Sheriff Jack Tillery, responding, found the youths at another Mission Hills home, trying to gain entrance by the expedient of putting a foot in the door, he said. They spent a night in jail, and yesterday were found guilty of disturbing the peace.

Loser of Fight Wager Pays by Pushing Barrow

ALTA LOMA, June 16.—William Miner, local merchant, spent a painful morning today, paying for his interest in a recent heavyweight prize fight.

The pugilist that Miner supported wasn't as fortunate as the one Gordon A. Billings, Alta Loma grocer, favored, and as a result, Miner today pushed a wheelbarrow all the way from Alta Loma to Upland. Miner was followed by a noisy parade, and was not permitted to ride on anything en route or rest too long in one place.

Half of Upland turned out to welcome Miner and his one-wheeled chariot and the parade that followed.

TAXPAYERS ABANDON STREET-PAVING PLAN

SEPULVEDA, June 16.—The plan to pave four miles of streets in the Sepulveda Boulevard - Parthenia street improvement district here has been abandoned, following a vigorous protest from local taxpayers who said they were sufficiently burdened with various special assessments and that the proposed improvement could wait over for the time being until they could catch up on some of their present incumbrances." The job as planned would have cost $125,000.

PERMIT GRANTED FOR PROJECT AT BURBANK

BURBANK, June 16.—Permission today was granted by the State Railroad Commission to widen Olive avenue over the tracks of the Southern Pacific Railroad here. The cost of the project is estimated at $7000. The sum will be apportioned between the city of Burbank and the railway company.

JUDGE WHITE SEEKS JUSTICESHIP AGAIN

POMONA, June 16. — Judge Ulysses E. White of 1158 South Towne avenue, today formally announced his candidacy for re-election as justice of the peace of San Jose township, following the filing of his nominating petition, which will place his name on the August primary ballot.

MICHELSON COMING WEST

Renowned Physicist Returning from East to Continue on Irvine Ranch Experiments on Speed of Light

PASADENA, June 16.—Dr. A. A. Michelson, accompanied by Mrs. Michelson, today is en route west to Pasadena where the noted scientist will establish his summer headquarters before resuming his research in the speed of light at the Irvine ranch near Santa Ana. Mrs. Michelseon is accompanying her husband West for the first time in several years.

Preparing for the arrival of Dr. Michelson, probably on Wednesday, Dr. F. G. Pease, Mt. Wilson scientist, today left for the Irvine ranch, where he will supervise installation of delicate apparatus in the mile-long vacuum tube which will be used in the new light-speed tests.

Decision to continue experiments formerly conducted by flashing light from the top of Mt. Wilson to reflectors on Baldy Lookout was reached when Dr. Michelson noticed that the light image shimmered, just as a star twinkles. He expressed the opinion that if the light beam could be sent through a vacuum tube the shimmer would disappear, perhaps increasing the accuracy of his measurements. At first he planned to erect the tube at Ross Field, Arcadia, but later had it transferred to the Irvine ranch. Lateness of the season made completion of the test last summer impractical, and Dr. Michelson is returning this year to continue his work.

Although critically ill last winter, Dr. Michelson has recovered his health beyond all expectations, friends here said.

AUTO TOUR COMES TO TRAGIC END

Luther Seibert, Phoenix Man, Drowned While in Surf at San Clemente

SAN CLEMENTE, June 16.—A vacation trip of an Arizona couple on a motor tour of Southern California came to a tragic end yesterday when Luther Seibert, 39-year-old Phoenix resident, was drowned in the surf off the coast here while his wife watched from shore.

A rip tide caught the swimmer and carried him out. Even though the body was recovered within a few moments' time efforts to revive the man were futile.

An inquest was conducted by John Martell, acting County Coroner, at the Divel funeral parlors here to day and a verdict was reached of accidental drowning.

The body will be sent to Phoenix tonight. Seibert was manager of the Simplex Piston Ring Company in Arizona. Besides his widow he leaves a father, mother and two brothers in Ohio.

A similar drowning occurred at Laguna Beach earlier in the season, when S. Varley, grocer of Hollywood, lost his life. He and his wife and two relatives were on a holiday in the southern city. Varley slipped from a rock and was drowned while his wife looked on. His body was removed almost immediately but working over him did not save him.

Mexican Youth Hailed as Most Worthy Scout

UPLAND, June 16.—Pedro Espino, Mexican youth, today wears a medal which points him out as the most worthy Scout in Old Baldy Council, which includes Scout troops in Upland, Ontario, Pomona, Claremont, Chino and other communities. Espino, Scoutmaster for a local Mexican Boy Scout troop, sponsored by the Rotary Club, made a remarkable record in school, completing his grammar-school year in much less time than has ever been done before here. His work among his fellow-Mexicans has been outstanding and largely through his efforts the local Scout troop was formed and has progressed.

His scholastic accomplishments stamped him as the most worthy Scout of the entire district, and the award of the medal was made with acclamation.

Scout Executives O. A. Alderson of Pomona and Lex R. Lucas of Chaffey district attended the dinner given by the Rotary Club to the Mexican Scouts, which was featured by presentation of the medal to Espino. V. B. Anderson, principal of Sierra Vista school, is assistant Scoutmaster, with Espino.

Santa Ana Lags Behind Others in One Respect

SANTA ANA, June 16.—Santa Ana lags far behind other Southern California cities in humane treatment of animals and steps should be taken at once to remedy the situation, Charles D. Ocain, president of the Orange County Humane Society, declared in a letter sent to the City Council.

Ocain said that the poundmaster did the best he could under the conditions, but even at best little is being done for the proper treatment of stray cats and dogs. The poundmaster must buy ammunition with which to shoot unwanted dogs and buy his own chloroform to kill cats, Ocain said. There is neither light nor water in the pound, the Humane Society president declared.

Ocain suggested that the city deed the society property on which it would build a shelter and operate a pound in return for a small share of the dog-tax license fund. The Council voted to take the letter under advisement.

WOODMEN TO MEET IN SAN FERNANDO

SAN FERNANDO, June 16.—Three hundred visiting members of the Modern Woodmen camps, their wives and three drill teams will attend the initiatory meeting of San Fernando Valley Camp, No. 15063, at the Knights of Columbus Hall next Saturday evening. J. J. Reid is in charge of program arrangements.

Woodmen from Los Angeles, Glendale, Burbank, Alhambra, Vernon, Hollywood and Lancaster will take part in a parade that will march over the main streets before the start of ceremonies in the hall. A feature of the meeting will be fancy drills by the visiting drill teams.

FINLAYSON TO TALK TO VENTURA GROUP

VENTURA, June 16. — Deputy Chief of Police Finlayson of Los Angeles, criminology expert, is to speak to members of the Ventura County Peace Officers' Association Friday when they meet in the Oxnard Community Center, Deputy Sheriff Carl Wallace, secretary of the officers' body, announced today. Gov. Young has agreed to address the association.

ALHAMBRA SCHOOLS LESS COSTLY IN 1931

ALHAMBRA, June 16.—It will cost the city schools $206,623 less to operate during the coming fiscal year than it did the past year, the budget adopted by the Board of Education reveals. The total estimated cost for next year is $1,300,100 and the estimated income is $1,390,634, leaving about $90,000 for a reserve fund.

NINE RADICALS SENTENCED

Men Found Guilty of Criminal Syndicalism Following Imperial Valley Activities Hear Their Fate

EL CENTRO, June 16.—Nine radicals who were found guilty of criminal syndicalism by a jury in the Superior Court here last Friday night, were given sentences ranging from deportation to a maximum of forty-two years in State prisons by Presiding Judge V. N. Thompson in Superior Court this morning.

Five defendants, Frank Sklar, J. C. Miller, I. Horiuchi, Frank Spector and Lawrence Emory, were sentenced to from one to fourteen years in Folsom prison on each of the three separate counts, the terms to run consecutively. Danny Roxas was sentenced to San Quentin, two terms of one to fourteen years each, to run consecutively, and the third term to run concurrently.

Emilio Alonzo was sentenced to San Quentin, but given a five-day suspension to permit deportation to Mexico. Braulio Orosco and Edward Herrera applied for probation and the passing of sentence was postponed until after the hearing on the petition, which was set for the 29th inst.

Motions offered by defense attornels for new trials and for bail were denied by Judge Thompson immediately after court convened this morning. Notice was given that the court's decision would be appealed.

The men sentenced today were arrested in Brawley and El Centro April 14 on complaints accusing them of having conspired to overthrow the established agencies of the government. More especially they were charged with a plot to disrupt the melon harvest in Imperial Valley by intimidating workers and the destruction of property.

Following their arrest, grand jury indictments involving three counts against each of the men were voted. Trial was started on May 26 and the verdict of guilty was brought in by a jury of nine men and three women last Friday night after two hours of deliberation.

On the witness stand at least two of the defendants admitted that they were members of the Communistic party, but denied that they had intended to commit any acts of violence.

The evidence against the defendants was obtained by special detectives employed by Dist.-Atty. Elmer Heald after anonymous circulars had been distributed throughout Imperial Valley calling upon all farm workers to unite in a general strike.

HONORARY DEGREE FOR J. C. HARPER

Pomona College Confers Doctor of Laws Upon Faithful Trustee

CLAREMONT, June 16.—Jacob Chandler Harper of La Jolla, attorney and publisher, today received an honorary degree of doctor of laws at the open-air commencement exercises of Pomona College at which bachelor of arts degrees were conferred on 159 candidates.

The honorary degree was conferred on Harper in acknowledgment of his former service as a trustee of the institution, as chairman of the Board of Trustees of Scripps College and on the Board of Fellows of Claremont Colleges. He is the only member who has served on all three boards of the associated institutions.

During the exercises President C. K. Edmunds of Pomona College announced expansion programs for the school, and urged that needs for women's dormitories and athletic facilities be speedily met. He said the school's financial condition is gratifying.

"Our total resources," Edmunds said, "have increased since June, a year ago, by $192,000, not counting outstanding pledges, which are considerable. Of the $192,000 increase, $147,000 has been added to endowment and $45,000 to the plant, not counting $330,000 which has been shifted from trust funds to investment in productive plant, namely the men's dormitories."

Rich New York Sporting Goods Dealer Passes

SANTA BARBARA, June 16.—Ezra H. Fitch, 65 years of age, retired sporting goods dealer of New York City, died on his yacht, Content, in the local harbor, this afternoon. He was seized with a heart attack and expired within a few minutes after being carried to his cabin.

Fitch had been here since September. He was in ill health and recently ordered the Content specially built for use in southern waters. He planned to leave in a few days for a cruise along the Mexican coast and into warmer climates in search of health.

Funeral arrangements are being held in abeyance until word is received from his widow in New York.

Fitch just received the boat last week, and went aboard on Wednesday. Dr. Franklin H. Nuzum, his physician, had just reached his bedside when Fitch passed away.

Grass Fire at Ball Game in Ninth Iinning

SANTA MARIA, June 16.—A grass fire which threatened the home of Mrs. Florence Edel de Blute in Santa Ynez interrupted a ball game between the Valley nine and the Elwood Oil Field team yesterday.

The fire broke out in the first of the ninth inning when the score was tied. All the players and many of the spectators assisted in putting out the blaze, which started in a near-by field.

On returning the game went for four more innings for the Santa Ynez team to win, 9 to 8.

Starting from an undetermined source the fire burned over some three acres of dry pasture land and destroyed two small outbuildings. The county fire-fighting force, under Lawrence Libeu, arrived in time to assist in keeping the flames from the Edel de Blute home.

Pomona Elks in Initiation Rites Wednesday Eve

POMONA, June 16.—Elks from over the Southland are expected to be in attendance at the Pomona Lodge Wednesday night, when the famous degree team from Los Angeles Lodge, headed by Jack Doyle, will exemplify the ritualistic work in the initiation of a large class of candidates into the local lodge.

J. F. Foto, secretary of the Past Exalted Rulers' Association, has promised a record attendance of past exalted rulers, according to a notice received today by Fred E. Brown, Exalted Ruler of Pomona Lodge.

LIQUOR-POSSESSION CASE HEARD TODAY

BRYN MAWR, June 16.—R. L. Moss, arrested in a raid on Cozy Camp, between here and Redlands, and charged with possession of liquor, is to make his plea before Judge McIver in Redlands tomorrow. Moss was given time to make his plea in order that he might get an attorney, for the first man he called to take the case refused to have anything to do with it. Moss was arrested at the camp, when officers made a raid and found gin and whisky hid in small holes in the ground and covered with leaves, they assert. There were about twelve of these holes scattered around the camp, the officers said.

Fair Grounds Purchase Will Go to Voters

SANTA ANA, June 16. — The Orange County Board of Supervisors has voted to include on the November ballot a proposal that the county purchase the fair grounds.

Ross Shafer of Tustin, chairman of the recreational committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, presented the request.

Shafer's proposal was that the county exercise an option which it now holds on the grounds, at $66,000 for thirty-six and a fraction acres. Under his plan, an annual appropriation of $26,000 would be provided in the budget. This would provide for three yearly installments of $25,000 each, in addition to $1000 a year for maintenance.

FIVE COMPANIES CUT SAN DIEGO GAS PRICE

SAN DIEGO, June 16.—With five major oil companies having cut their tank-wagon prices in gasoline 3 cents per gallon, the service-station retail price here today seemingly was fixed at 17 cents per gallon. The Standard, Richfield, Union and Shell companies cut prices Saturday and Associated joined in the cut this morning. Attack on the former 20-cent gallon price began here several weeks ago when a number of concerns operating previously in the Los Angeles area entered the local field and established a price of 16 2-3 cents a gallon, provided six gallons were bought at one time.

VOTES COUNTED TWICE IN SCHOOL ELECTION

SAN FERNANDO, June 16.—Geraldine Womack was elected vice-president of the San Fernando High School student body following an election so close that ballots had to be recounted. She defeated Les Taylor by a close margin. Roy Robbins was elected president of the organization. All students admit they did some "tall" campaigning before all the votes were in.

RESTAURANT MAN DIES BY OWN HANDS

William Van Welchance of Fillmore Shoots Himself Through Head

VENTURA, June 16.—Firing a pistol bullet through the base of his skull, William Van Welchance, Fillmore restaurant man and formerly of this city, died four hours later at Big Sisters' Hospital here yesterday.

According to the story told Undersheriff Howard Durley by Montey Langes, small boy who was in the restaurant about 9 p.m. Saturday making purchases, Van Welchance went into the back room, evidently for supplies.

Just then, according to the youth, he heard the restaurant man's wife plead with him, saying desperately, "Oh, don't."

The woman came dashing out of the room, and then, the youth said, he heard the shot.

The man was found by Leo Hawthorne, Van Welchance's brother-in-law, and rushed to Big Sisters' Hospital, where he expired.

Suit Brought by Teacher to be Test Case

ONTARIO, June 16.—Friends of Miss Minnie Newkirk, local teacher, were waiting today with interest the outcome of a test suit in Superior Judge B. F. Warmer's court, in which Miss Newkirk, former teacher in Mountain View district, seeks judgment of $982 salary, assertedly due her. The involved features of the suit are the first of this nature to be brought into California courts, according to Dep. Dist.-Atty. James L. King, attorney in the action. Miss Newkirk contends the school board could not discharge her and employ a substitute teacher, hired to take her place, when Miss Newkirk became ill in September and sought to return to her classes in February.

The school board sought to discharge Miss Newkirk on grounds of physical incapability. The school board decided the substitute teacher could better continue with the school work in the middle of the year than have Miss Newkirk seek to take up the work where Miss Mildred Gammell, the substitute, had progressed. The suit resulted.

Junior College Issues Largest of Year Books

PASADENA, June 16.—Described as the "largest year book of its kind ever published by a school of its character, 2500 copies of the Campus today were distributed to undergraduates of the Pasadena Junior College. Already admitted to be the largest book ever published by a Pasadena school, further honors were bestowed upon the all-student production by the statement of prominent commercial art firms.

The cover of the 336-page, four-pound book bears for the first time the official college seal, the creation of Archie Royall, art editor.

Arnold Huss, editor-in-chief; Gloria Caperon, associate editor, and Aaron Rothenberg, business manager, head the year book staff, Miss Gladys L. Snyder, adviser, for six years has directed production of year books. All composition and press work were handled by the college press under the direction of John K. Leberman and his two assistants, William J. Kingan and Olen S. McMahen.

No Oxygen Used to Revive Child

PASADENA, June 16. — Without using an ounce of oxygen, the fire department inhalator squad saved another life last night.

Angered because she had bumped her head against a table, 18-month-old Barbara Lee Jones held her breath until she became black in the face.

Frightened, her parents called the Emergency Hospital and the inhalator was dispatched with haste to the Jones home at 295 Grant street.

DAM SITE DECLARED GOOD

Proposed Location for Pasadena's Project in Pine Canyon Reported Satisfactory by Geologist

PASADENA, June 16.—Pasadena's site in Pine Canyon where the proposed $10,000,000 municipal dam soon will rise, is satisfactory in every respect, Dr. F. L. Ransome, noted geologist and California Institute of Technology faculty member, stated in a report made public here today by Samuel B. Morris, chief engineer-superintendent of the water department.

Morris also reported today that Louis C. Hill of Los Angeles, the city's engineering consultant on the San Gabriel Canyon work, had started his investigation to reach independent conclusions on the availability of the site for the proposed project. Details of the two reports will be released by Morris when Hill submits his findings.

While the city has completed its exploration work in the canyon, Morris stated that the tunnel crew is continuing its work of boring through the hills. The portion of the project upon which attention now is being focussed is the main tunnel which is destined to bring water to Pasadena. The city has constructed more than 2000 feet of tunnel and has about 3000 feet to complete.

Work has progressed rapidly enough so that the three shifts of men formerly employed have been reduced to two, but the number will be increased should occasion warrant. Morris stated that the State Division of Water Rights regards the work being done in San Gabriel Canyon as initiation of the city's water project. It will not be necessary to obtain an extension of the permit which required that work be started by July 1, 1930.

While on his way home from his recent eastern trip Morris stopped off in New Mexico and inspected the Elephant Butte Dam built fifteen years ago by the United States Reclamation Bureau. Engineer Hill was construction engineer on the dam, which is similar to the proposed San Gabriel project.

Crash in Pipe Line Halts as Bids Canceled

CHICAGO, June 16.—Because of withdrawal of bids, the specialist's book on Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line was closed today on the Chicago Stock Exchange. Trading will begin again as soon as the specialist matched up orders on his books. Twenty to thirty thousand shares was offered at the market. A dealer in the stock later was reported to have put in a bid for 20,000 shares at 25½.

Frank P. Parrish, president of the pipe line company, telephoned from New York that the company has supported the market as long as could be reasonably expected but apparently everyone desires to liquidate at the same time. He predicted that the flurry will blow over and panicky people will be the ones who will suffer.

The stock opened 20,000 shares at 21 and closed at 21. Considerable short selling during the past two days coupled with the general weakness of the market resulted in a selling volume that made it advisable for Frank P. Parrish & Co. to withdraw its supporting bids, an official of that company stated. It was pointed out in the statement, however, that this is a technical situation which does not in any way involve the value of the stock.

Export Copper Hit by Second Slash in Price

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—A reduction of 25 points in the export price of copper was made today by Copper Exports, Inc., bringing the export level of the metal to 12.30 cents a pound, c.i.f. European base ports.

The cut was the second made by Copper Exporters in the last few days, the export price having been reduced from 13 cents to 12.55 Saturday after custom smelters the day before had lowered the domestic price to 12 and 12 1-4 cents delivered.

Large producers as well as custom smelters today were selling copper for domestic shipments at 12 cents delivered.

BRUSSELS, June 16. (AP)—The director of the General Society of Minerals today denied cancellation by Belgian firms of American copper orders. He said: "We are copper sellers, not buyers."

Federal Water Utility Net Up

NEW YORK, June 16. (Exclusive) Federal Water Service Corporation and subsidiaries reported today consolidated net profits for the year closed April 30, last, of $3,252,965 after all charges, including subsidiary preferred dividends, equal after preferred dividends and under participating provisions of the shares to $3.11 a share on 544,242 no-par Class A shares outstanding, against $2,508,784, or $3.06 a share on 537,383 A shares the previous year.

Earnings for the year ended April 30, last, if applied directly to Class A stock would be equivalent to $4.15 a share and would compare with $3.39 a share in the preceding year. All the Class B stock is owned by Tri-Utilities Corporation.

Phillips Oil in Earnings Gain

NEW YORK, June 16.—Net earnings of the Phillips Petroleum Company for the first five months of the current year after all charges including bond interest and Federal tax reserve, but before depletion and depreciation were 16 per cent greater than in the same period last year, Frank Phillips, president, announced today. Earnings for May on the same basis were 44 per cent greater, he said.

The company is rapidly expanding its natural gas pipe line and marketing divisions, according to Mr. Phillips, and the percentage of earnings coming from sources other than crude oil is constantly increasing. For the first half of last year net profits of $8,510,807 were reported before depletion and depreciation, against $6,519,977 in the 1928 period.

AIRCRAFT REPORTS LOSS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Detroit Aircraft Corporation and subsidiaries reported today net loss for six months ended December 31, last, of $733,077 after development and experimental expenses and reserves, etc. Operations of subsidiary units are included from approximate dates of acquisition only.

GASOLINE SLASH HITS OILS

Refiners Hope to Stabilize Market at New 12½-Cent Wholesale Price; Peak Period Ahead

BY EARLE E. CROWE

On the Pacific Coast markets the severe beating administered to the oil shares stood out in yesterday's general decline in stock prices. The oils not only shared in the weakness affecting the whole list of stocks but were forced to aborb selling in reflection of the sharp cut in gasoline prices Saturday.

New low prices for the year were recorded in Union Oil, Union Oil Associates, Shell Union and Richfield. Standard of California was also under pressure but remained approximately 4 points above the 1930 low point.

REDUCTION FORECAST

Collapse of the gasoline market has been forecast for some time by the lower prices quoted by the independent dealers. The new wholesale price of 12½ cents and retail prices varying from 14½ to 16½ cents, as quoted by major company dealers, plainly indicate much lower earnings this quarter unless improvement materializes.

Prospects are, however, that the 12½ cent wholesale price will not remain in force long. At this point the market is expected to stabilize itself, probably in time for the seasonal advance to reflect the peak consumption in July, August and September.

At 12½ cents, even the major refiners are forced to resort to arithmetical gymnastics to show a profit on gasoline. Presumably the major companies refine at cheaper costs than the independents and are in better financial shape to stand a siege of unprofitable operation than the smaller units.

PROFIT FADES

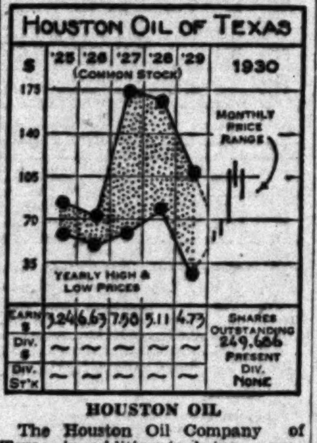
Wholesaling gasoline to dealers at 12½ cents, including the 3-cent State tax, means the major refiners are selling the product at 9½ cents a gallon wholesale. It is not easy to figure a profit on this price when the cost of manufacture ranges around 6½ and 7 cents a gallon, to which must be added from 2 to 3 cents for advertising, transportation and other costs.

So long as the larger company dealers were maintaining the retail price around 19½ cents, the smaller companies were winning enough new gallonage to show a profit on the lower prices. But with the majors now meeting the independents on prices, it is natural to expect them to win back a substantial portion of the lost business.

Never yet has a gasoline war been fought to the finish. Nor has anything of a permanent nature ever been gained by any company or any group initiating or participating in one of these wars. They come to an end when the companies concerned are tired of doing business on an unprofitable basis.

The situation this time, however, is not entirely a competitive price war. There is too much gasoline in storage and the refining companies are manufacturing too much crude oil. When less crude oil is run to refineries and reductions are made in the storage supply, the gasoline market will be in shape to post higher prices.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



HOUSTON OIL

The Houston Oil Company of Texas, in addition to being a producer and refiner of oil, has many and varied other interests. A subsidiary, the Houston Pipe Line Company, supplies gas from its 200 square miles of natural-gas properties to the communities of Houston and Galveston and other near-by communities. Another subsidiary, the Southwestern Settlement and Development Company, owns extensive timber lands. It is believed that most of the recent earnings expansion has come from the company's natural-gas activities.

Net income for the first quarter of 1930 amounted to $98,478, compared with a deficit of $20,411 in the corresponding quarter of 1929. For the full year 1929 a slight decline was shown, with a net of $1,731,000 against $1,812,000 in 1928.

Recent capital adjustments include a proposed four-for-one split of the common stock, and a 10 per cent stock dividend which were approved by directors on April 17th and which will be submitted to stockholders on June 17, 1930.

CAPITALIZATION

(On completion of bond financing)

Funded debt	$24,000,000
Preferred stock, 6 per cent cumulative ($100 par)	8,947,600
Common stock ($100 par)	24,968,000

CURRENT DATA

It is understood that the company's production of oil has been running higher thus far in 1930 than in 1929.

WESTINGHOUSE GETS HUGE UTILITY ORDER

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Union Electric Light and Power Company of St. Louis placed an order today for electrical equipment amounting to more than $1,000,000 with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company. The equipment is to be used in connection with the new hydroelectric project being constructed on the Osage River at Bagnell, Mo., which will be one of the largest hydroelectric installations in the country when completed. The order includes a six umbrella type vertical waterwheel generators, two vertical waterwheel generators and seven motor generator exciter sets.

OIL GROUP DIVIDENDS HIT RECORD

Companies in Standard List Pay $68,590,901 in Second Quarter

Representing the largest second-quarter disbursements on record, cash dividend payments by companies in the Standard Oil group for the second quarter of this year totaled $68,590,901, compared with $66,762,168 in the preceding quarter and $66,053,389 in the corresponding period of last year, according to a compilation released yesterday by Carl H. Pforzheimer & Co., specialists in Standard Oil securities.

Payments in the second quarter showing an increase of $1,828,733 over the first quarter were swelled by an extra payment of 20 cents a share by Standard Oil Company of Kentucky, bringing that company's disbursements to $1,539,271, against $1,026,180 in the first quarter, an increase of $513,091, and extra cash distributions by Southern Pipe Line Company and Cumberland Pipe Line Company from capital stock reduction account. The Southern Pipe Line dividend amounted to $5 a share or $500,000, while Cumberland's extra dividend amounted to $14 a share or $420,000.

Cash payments of the various companies in the group, with the exceptions noted, were approximately the same in the second quarter as in the first quarter, although allowance must be made for a semi-annual payment by Northern Pipe Line Company of $2 a share in the second quarter. The Solar Refining Company passed the semiannual dividend due in the second quarter.

The record of quarterly disbursements during the past few years follows:

	1st quarter.	2nd quarter.
1930	$66,762,168	$68,590,901
1929	63,101,701	66,053,389

Plans for Huge Merger of Oil Units Given Out

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Formal announcement was made today of the conclusion of an agreement for acquisition of the Trans-Continental Oil Company by the Ohio Oil Company, to form a $225,000,000 concern.

The transaction included a proposal by Ohio Oil to split each share of present common stock into two shares of new stock and take over the assets, including all of the liabilities of Trans-Continental Oil, paying for it in new stock at the rate of four-sevenths of a share of new Ohio Oil stock for each share of Trans-Continental Oil.

Application will be made to list the new Ohio Oil stock on the New York Stock Exchange. Directors of both companies have approved the plan and special meetings of stockholders will be called to act on it.

The merger will give Ohio Oil third rank among oil-producing companies in Texas. Gross production tax reports to the Texas controller place combined production for the first quarter of this year at 5,653,000 barrels.

Permit Issued for State Bank at Beach City

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (AP)—Permission was given by Will C. Wood, State Superintendent of Banks, today for the organization of the First State Bank of Huntington Beach. The application was made by L. W. Blodget for the following principal organizers:

L. B. Tannehill, C. C. Tannehill, Joseph Vavra, J. Ed Huston, H. T. Dunning, C. P. Patton, S. R. Bowen, J. K. McDonald, E. G. Conrad, Willis H. Warner, Ralph C. Turner, L. W. Blodget, P. B. Hess, Quincy Cass and C. H. Howard.

The bank is being organized to effect a consolidation of the Home State Bank of Huntington Beach and the First National Bank of Huntington Beach.

Associated Oil to Supply Navy

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (Exclusive)—The Associated Oil Company today received notification that it has been awarded the contract for providing oils for navy operations in the Pacific Coast area during the fiscal year 1930-1931, according to an announcement released by L. M. Edelman, supervisor of marine lubricant sales for the company.

The award includes approximately 1,000,000 gallons of lubricating oils, which will be used on board battleships, destroyers, submarines, aircraft carriers and other equipment, and in aircraft, out of Pacific Coast ports and Honolulu.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Low record prices were made in cotton here today under continued weakness in July, which was again attributed to trailing liquidation, and more or less general selling of later deliveries, influenced by easy Liverpool cables, reports of weakness in grain and stocks, a favorable construction of weather and crop advices.

BANK BANDITRY TIDE RISES

Prospect for 400 Daylight Robberies During 1930 Seen in Report of Association

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, June 16.—Bandit raids on American banks are on the increase. For the six months ending February 28, last, the banks reported for investigation 311 forgery cases, 107 holdup robberies, sixteen burglaries, two sneak thieves and eight mortgage swindlers.

"Unless an improvement is shown during the remainder of the year, the record-breaking total of nearly 400 daylight bank robberies is indicated," says a report of the American Bankers' Association.

How are these daylight robberies to be controlled? Unemployment undoubtedly has aggravated the problem, but the American Bankers' Association believes that a State police force is preferable in this crisis to the individual city force.

"Measured by the comparative number of bank robberies, the department's records reflect odds of 8 to 1 in favor of the State police force," say the bankers.

Some police departments like Detroit, St. Paul and Cleveland are operating their own radio broadcasting stations and using a low-wave length to which receiving sets are installed in cruising police cars. Examination shows that the average time which elapsed between the receipt of the radio calls by these cars and the 1325 arrests which followed, was one minute and forty-two seconds.

With modern up-to-the-minute radio co-operation, the number of robberies should decrease. Many other cities have given orders for the new radio police installation.

Three business men in the last three days have told me that they expect to spend their vacations in Alaska. Not one of them has ever visited the north country before.

Alaska is just beginning to grow up. It is a beautiful country in the summer time. Its natural resources are almost unlimited. Its vast timber resources are hard to beat. It is estimated that 1,300,000 tons of newsprint can be manufactured annually from the territory without endangering the forest—enough to supply one-fourth of the newsprint needs of the United States at the present rate of consumption.

Two paper plants are in process of construction now, the beginning of a new and important industry.

Mining in Alaska has always been a big industry. Two mining companies alone have produced $200,000,000 of copper during the last eighteen years of operation. The gradual depletion of these mines offers encouraging prospects for future mineral developments.

But more particularly a new active travel bureau has begun to function. With aviation becoming popular and the construction of new roads proceeding rapidly, Alaska is bound to become a big tourist center.

Alaska, after 100 years of neglect, seems to be coming into its own.

Dividend Passed by Pilot Radio

NEW YORK, June 16. — In view of expansion plans and for the purpose of conserving cash, directors of Pilot Radio and Tube Corporation ommitted today the declaration of the quarterly 30-cent dividend on the class "A" stock due at this time. The board approved the proposal to transfer assets of its radio-tube manufacturing division to Allan Manufacturing and Electrical Corporation, which holds a license from Radio Corporation of America and associated companies.

In consideration for this transaction the Allan company will issue 219,800 shares of capital stock to Pilot Radio and Tube. Each stockholder of record July 15, next, of the Pilot company will be entitled to receive one share of Allan company stock for each share of Pilot Radio held. After this plan is effected stockholders of Pilot Radio will control the Allan company.

SELLING FLOOD BREAKS PRICES

Total Turnover in Sessions 5,600,000 Shares

Heavy Liquidation by Tired Outsiders Noted

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—The world-wide period of deflation asserted itself forcefully on the financial markets today. Prices of stocks and commodities melted away rapidly in the severest liquidation of the year.

Share values on the New York Stock Exchange broke precipitately, plunging literally hundreds of issues, including many of the list's bulwarks, to new lows for the year. Wheat, corn and cotton were sharply depressed. Only the high-grade bonds showed any steadiness and the general tone of that market was irregular. New York bank stocks were weak.

The volume of trading gave a clew to the sources of the selling, for with sales totaling more than 5,600,000 shares, it was apparent professional operators were not responsible for all the liquidation. Large holders of equity securities had obviously become discouraged, not only with the market's recent performances, but with the prospects for as prompt a business recovery as had been thought likely. Quotable comment by prominent bankers, was, of course, withheld, but one prominent financier expressed the view that overproduction was still an evil to be dealt with.

BEARS IN CONTROL

The prospects that second-quarter earnings, which will be appearing in another fortnight, would be disappointing added to the general pessimism in speculative circles. Doubtless the tariff was seized upon by the bears as a selling point, but the part this legislation played was difficult to determine. Or, perhaps of more influence was the weakness of grain in the Chicago market.

Although some of the stock selling seemed to be coming from important holders, brokerage houses re-

Series "B"

Here is why. In 1921, combined surplus of 23 leading Standard oil companies was $1,500,000,000. In 1922, 13 of these 23 companies declared special stock dividends of 50% to 900%, totalling $1,770,000,000 in market value. Today, these companies have a larger surplus than ever before, indicating a similar huge distribution in the next few years.

Trustee Standard Oilshares, Series "B," represent ownership in all 23 companies, which paid over $4,500,000,000 in cash and stock dividends in the past 17 years. Had the trust been created five years ago, average annual return would have been 15.33% on today's market price of 10½ per share.

Grain Futures Sharply Off in Heavy Selling

CHICAGO, June 16. (AP)—Disturbed by stock market weakness and by much talk of probable foreign retaliation against United States agricultural products, wheat prices today fell as much as 4c a bushel. All other grain values collapsed with wheat, breaking the season's low record, and in some cases overturning figures that went back for many years—July wheat, for example, plunging down below any point heretofore touched since 1914, and rye since 1900. The day's lowest prices were simultaneous with announcement that the new tariff bill had reached the White House for President Hoover's promised signature.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous, 2¾@3½c a bushel lower than Saturday's finish. Corn closed 1⅛@2½c down, oats ⅝@1c off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 37c.

Heavy general selling that has been a feature of the wheat market of late came quickly into prominence the moment trading opened. Sharp downturns in Liverpool quotations had preceded business here, and there were also dispatches telling of further rains in Canada, and the American Northwest beneficial to the spring wheat crop. Of still greater significance apparently to the average trader was the fact that President Hoover had made known his intention to sign the new tariff bill, and that in various quarters opinions were being expressed the result would be further tightening up of European import duties on wheat from the United States.

Despite the ensuing urgent pressure to sell wheat future deliveries, the trading pit gave no evidence of any such excitement as sometimes accompanies an unusual downward sweep of values.

Corn and other grains were swiftly downhill, carried along by the momentum of wheat. Oats were also weak, despite reports the crop is promising a smaller yield than was expected.

Although hog values much of the time today were steady to strong, provisions were unable to withstand the effect of grain weakness.

Stock Quotations Collapse on Selling Flood That Marks Nineteen New Bottom Prices

Wholesale liquidation precipitated an avalanche of security prices yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. The steady dumping of stocks broke the market with a severity that established nineteen new bottom prices for the year and smashed two 1930 records when forty-nine issues were traded with a valuation of $4,373,564.

There was no let-up to the persistent selling which, unlike other periods, was spread over a broad list and not confined to a few of the popular traders. With but one or two exceptions, final prices were the lowest for the day, indicating that the market was continuing in a downward direction at the close. A wide scattering of popular stocks ended the session from 2 to 3 points off and a number of inactives were brought out at losses of far greater dimensions.

Transamerica, which was the most active issue with a turnover of 41,000 shares, broke more than 3 points to hit a new low at 28 7-8. The stock recovered to close at 29 1-4. Security-First National Bank continued a target of the bear faction to slump more than 5 points to a new bottom at 104 1-8. Final sales reached 106½, down 3 net. Citizens' National yielded 1 1-4 to a new minimum at 108, and California Bank sank 4 1-4 to another bottom at 105½.

Oil shares were no exception to the general depression, aggravated by a gasoline war. Richfield, Union Oil, Union Associates, Shell and Bolsa Chica hit new lows. Union, which was the most active with a turnover of 12,400 shares, fell off 2 3-8 to 40. Richfield was the hardest hit with a break of more than 3 points to 15 3-8, from where it recovered 1-8. Standard of California dropped 2 3-4, Union Associates 2 1-4, Rio Grande 2, Macmillan 3, Signal 1⅛, Shell 1 and Bolsa Chica 1 5-8.

Edison featured the activity of the utilities and dropped within a fraction of the year's low point with a fall of more than 3 points to 56 3-4. The stock, however, rallied to end at 57 3-8, off 2 5-8 net. Pacific Gas and Pacific Lighting were severely depressed, the former down 5 points to 57 1-4 and the later crashing 9 points to 75. The losses in this case represent the drop from preceding transactions on this board several days ago. Pacific Service also broke with a drop of 3½ points to a new bottom at 25, recovering to end at 25 1-4.

Pacific Finance and Pacific American Fire, down more than 2 points each, established new lows with International Re-Insurance, off 1 3-4 and Pacific Mutual down 3-4. Claude Neon sank 5 1-4 points to 31 3-4.

Sales totaled 114,578 shares, valued at $4,373,564; previous day, 20,913 shares, valued at $1,046,973.

LOS ANGELES CURB

With nearly a score of issues breaking to new low marks for the year traders on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday were faced with a selling condition similar to that on the senior board. Fokker and Cities Service led the movement with an unusually large volume of transactions.

Fokker broke 3 1-4 points to 18 and ended at 18 1-4 and Cities Service slumped 4 5-8 to 24 1-4 finishing at 24 3-8. Caterpillar Tractor on a less volume of sales crashed 6 3-8 points from Friday's close to 61 3-4, and Gladding McBean sank 5 points to 45. Crystalite dropped 3 1-4, Electrical Products and Neon of New York 2 each, and losses a point or more were hung up for Arkansas Gas, Detroit Aircraft, Goldman Sachs, Hancock Oil, Universal Oil, Intercoast Trading, Pacific Associates and Pacific Indemnity.

Kinner was the hardest hit in the penny list, sinking 16 cents to a new bottom at 57 cents. The issue ended at 60 cents. While a number of other losses were recorded in this group the recessions were of a milder nature.

Sales totaled 43,820 shares valued at $342,523; previous day, 20,808 shares valued at $50,703.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (AP)—The market on the San Francisco Exchange sold down sharply today, continuing the decline of Saturday. Pressure on the principal trading shares met with slight resistance in the second hour, but the rally was feeble and of short duration, although it aided a number of listings temporarily to recover from their earlier low levels.

Shortly before mid-session, the bearish drive on such pivotal stocks as Transamerica, Pacific Gas and Electric common, Richfield Oil common and others was at its maximum and the entire list moved down with the leaders to a weak close.

Nineteen new lows were chalked up during the session, including Associated Insurance at 5½, Bond and Share at 11, Byron Jackson at 13, Crown Zellerbach common at 13⅛, California Packing at 66, Fireman's Fund "B" at 96, Langendorf "B" at 19, Leslie Salt at 16, Marchant at 16, Paraffine at 67, Roos Brothers common at 20, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph common at 135, Pacific Public Service at 25, Honolulu Oil at 34, Richfield common at 15⅛, Shell common at 19, Union Associates at 38⅞, Union 39¾ and Transamerica at 28¾. The last three named were all-time lows.

The heaviest trading was in Transamerica, with a turnover of 77,200; Standard Oil of California, 10,800, and Caterpillar Tractor, 10,100 shares.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, June 16. (AP)—A strengthening tendency is being shown on 58-60s territory wools. Several choice territory lines of this grade have been moved at slightly higher prices than recently quoted. Some dealers are asking higher prices on fleeces of this grade, but sales at the advance figures have not as yet been reported. Domestic wool receipts during week ending June 14 amounted to 13,028,100 pounds, as compared with 7,225,000 pounds the previous week.

2 WEEKS FROM TODAY

TWO WEEKS from today you will be face to face with the problem of reinvesting July funds.

These funds may come from maturing securities, from interest or dividend payments, or in the form of accounts transferred from the old home bank.

You will be anxious to reinvest promptly, without loss of income. But you will want ample time to investigate before you invest.

The time for that is now. And to secure facts that you can weigh, analyze, compare, we suggest that you place your name now on the mailing list of the Ralph G. Wolff Company "Investment Bulletin." The Bulletin is filled with helpful information about California tax exempt securities yielding 6½ and 7 per cent, and in convenient units and maturities. It will be of especial value in planning July investments. It will be mailed without obligation. Simply sign and send the coupon.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—The listed bond market gave one of its most ragged performances of the year today when the weakness of stocks triumphed over easy money conditions to cause wide fluctuations.

Selling of stock privilege issues—convertible and warrant bonds—was heavy and several sank to the lowest level of the year. Best-grade bonds in the strictly investment domestic list showed the narrowest fluctuations and were generally steady, but the rest were irregular, and 1 and 2-point losse were common. Foreign bonds and United States governments held their ground.

Much of the selling was ascribed to necessity occasioned by demands for further protection of stock market accounts. A constructive factor which bolstered many of the prime investment issues was the further easing of time money rates on short maturities, the reductions establishing the lowest rates of the year. Call money remained at 2½ per cent.

New lows were established by Atchison 4½s, off 1⅜; and International Telephone 4½s, off 1¼. American Telephone 4½s lost 2½; St. Paul 5s sagged ¾ to equal the 1930 low; General Theaters 6s, ¾; Philadelphia Reading Coal and Iron 6s, 3; Anglo-Chile Nitrate warrant 7s, 2; Pathe warrant 6s, 2; Walworth warrant 6½s, 4⅝, and Warner Brothers Pictures, 1⅛.

Richfield Oil 6s, International Hydro Electric 6s, Cuba Cane Products 6s, Pan-American Petroleum 6s, and Porto Rican Tobacco 6s, were at the lowest levels of the year, yielding 1 to 2 points.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

ported a fairly lively business on the buying side. Leading stocks were taken on the scale-down by large interests, including investment trusts that had been pursuing a policy of watchful waiting. However, the forces favoring the decline were not to be denied and the market closed at the bottom.

VETERANS SLUMP

It was a hard day for such seasoned veterans as American Telephone, United States Steel, American Can, New York Central, Atchison, Consolidated Gas, Standard Oil of New Jersey and Westinghouse Electric. The last named, with Telephone, Steel and Can, sank to a new low and net declines in the stocks mentioned ran from 4 to 10 points. Westinghouse closed 11 1-4 lower.

More spectacular breaks, from 20 to 22 points, appeared in Allied Chemical, American Machine and Foundry, J. I. Case, People's Gas and Worthington Pump, while Vanadium, Houston Oil and Auburn Auto were off 12 to 15 at the close.

Money again eased. Short-term loans were cut half of 1 per cent to the lowest in several years.

Foreign exchanges eased. Sterling sagged slightly, but the Spanish peseta dropped several points.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—The curb market experienced its most drastic decline since the autumn selling panic today. Curb stocks were dumped overboard right and left to protect big-board margins, and powerful bear attacks aggravated the situation in spots. Sales aggregated 1,788,100 shares.

A feature was Missouri Kansas Pipe Line, which collapsed from the year's high of 36¼ to a new low at 15, and closed at 21½, off 14¾ points. This stock was held stubbornly around the year's high level throughout the past two weeks of selling, but went into a nose dive today, when the selling became so heavy in the Chicago market that it was necessary to suspend trading there to give specialists an opportunity to balance their books. The company which has been sponsoring the issue, announced that short selling became so heavy that supporting orders were withdrawn, a technical situation not involving the value of the shares.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the high.

AN ADVERTISEMENT OF THE SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY LTD.

It is Not Difficult to Invest Money SAFELY

IF YOU wish safety . . . if you are content with a return that is not fabulously high, but which is famously sure . . . if you desire to share in the stable earnings of a corporation that is well-thought of by customers and stockholders alike—we suggest Southern California Edison Co. Ltd., Preferred.

Edison has an unbroken dividend record of 30 years.

It is one of the fastest growing electric utilities in America.

It serves the most rapidly growing community in all America.

Edison Preferred Stock is traded in all of the large financial centers of America and Canada. It is accepted as collateral by practically every financial institution in America. Fluctuations are rare and slight.

Both stock and dividends are free from all taxes except surtaxes and inheritance taxes . . . and for a majority of people, free from these also.

Dividends are paid every three months by check. No coupons to clip . . . no care involved in collection.

Edison's story for investors is interestingly told in a new financial folder. May we send it?

One way to "Beat the Market"

THOUSANDS of successful investors know that there is one way to beat the stock market. The formula is a simple one:

—Buy seasoned dividend-paying stocks of the highest grade, in established, successful companies operating in essential industries.

—Diversify the investment among at least 25 or 30 such companies.

—Own the stocks outright, hold them as permanent investments and ignore current fluctuations.

Most investors find this can best be done through purchase of shares in a fixed investment trust. Super-Corporations of America Trust Shares, for example, are certificates of participating ownership in the stocks of 30 of the country's largest, strongest and most successful corporations.

The 30 underlying stocks are all listed on the New York Stock Exchange where they enjoy broad and active markets. They include such market leaders as The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, American Telephone & Telegraph Company, General Electric Company, Standard Oil Company (New Jersey).

In addition to ready marketability, safety, wide diversification and convenience, the trust shares offer a liberal return and attractive possibilities of profit through appreciation in market value over a period of years.

Super-Corporations of America Trust Shares are issued in denominations of 5, 10, 25, 50, 100, 500, 1000 and 2000 trust shares. Price at market—now about $16 per share.

Let us send you our new free booklet "As Sound As the Future of America" which tells you the entire story. No obligation is involved. Write today and specify booklet No. LT-42.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—The week's opening session drew a large supply of cattle but desirable steers were practically lacking. Trade was very slow but cows were more active than steers and showed little change in value. However, the general market was steady to 25c lower and with approximately half the supply unsold at noon it seemed likely that a large number would be held over for Tuesday's market.

A part load of 775-pound California steers on the baby beef order topped at 11.00 with a load of 1257-pound Imperial steers bringing the next best price of 10.85. A few loads and part loads of grass steers and Arizona offerings at 10.00@10.50. Low grade grass steers mostly in small lots sold at 9.00@9.50 and three loads of Mexicans averaging up to 1068 pounds scored 8.75@9.00.

Small lots of grass heifers sold up to 9.50 with several loads, mostly under 800 pounds, going at 8.00. Plainer heifers sold down to 7.25 and under. Young cows made 8.25 with a few good cows at 8.10 and several sales top medium kinds at 7.75@8.00. Bulk of common to medium cows scored 6.25@7.50 with low cutters and cutters at 3.00@6.00, thin shells going down to 2.00. A few good weighty bulls sold up to 7.35 with medium kinds at 5.50@7.00.

CALVES—Calves were not as active as last week and sales were limited above 13.50. Bulk of medium to good vealers made 11.50@13.00 with heavy calves and low grade vealers ranging from 8.50@11.00, culls selling down to 7.00.

HOGS—An active market quickly took bulk of offerings at 15@25c higher rates. Two loads, however, were still in first hands after noon and were not expected to sell yesterday. A load of 183-pound New Mexico butchers topped at 11.40 with six loads of 170 to 190-pound Nebraska, Colorado and Texas hogs at 11.15@11.35. A few 222-pound easterns made 11.00 with a few packages of desirable weight trucked-in butchers at 10.75@10.85. Packing sows brought 7.75@8.75.

SHEEP—After last week's decline, lamb values took a rise with four decks of mostly good quality 71-pound Imperial lambs topping at 10.00. Nearly two decks of 79-pound California lambs scored 9.00 with a deck of 68-pound Imperials at 7.50. Ewes were unevenly lower with about three decks of 106-pound wooled ewes going at 3.10@3.50, those at the latter price lightly sorted. A deck of similar weight shorn ewes made 3.50 with sixteen out at 2.00.

Announcement

We are pleased to announce the broadening of our activities through the offering of what we believe to be the premier fixed investment trust of the maximum income type.

CORPORATE TRUST SHARES
Moody's Composite Rating "A"

After careful study and thorough analysis, we have decided to offer for investment CORPORATE TRUST SHARES for the following major reasons—

1. CORPORATE TRUST SHARES, in our opinion, embody those features and provisions which make them the outstanding fixed investment trust of the maximum income type.

2. CORPORATE TRUST SHARES offer the investor participation in the prosperity of America by giving him an investment in 28 basic American industries—such as United States Steel, American Telephone and Telegraph, General Electric, International Harvester Co., and the New York Central Railroad.

3. CORPORATE TRUST SHARES solve the investor's greatest problem by affording broad diversification in the largest and soundest American enterprises.

4. CORPORATE TRUST SHARES provide that the holders receive all the dividends and other proceeds from the stocks held in trust, including interest on the cash reserve fund. This fund was established to give investors an annual return of at least 70c a share, or approximately 7% on the par value. Distributions during 1929, consisting of cash dividends and interest and the proceeds from the sale of rights, stock dividends, and split-ups, amounted to approximately 17% on the average price of the shares for the year.★

5. CORPORATE TRUST SHARES represent the ideal equity investment, assuring the investor a combination of security, sound diversification, satisfactory income and excellent marketability.

★HAD CORPORATE TRUST SHARES been in existence for the past 17 years, distributions to investors would have averaged 14.7% annually, on the average price of the shares.

CHATHAM PHENIX NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, New York City, Trustee.

The Company's Common Stock is listed on The Chicago Stock Exchange.

Mr. W. L. Pearson, President of The Saxet Company, has reported to us as follows:

COMPANY AND BUSINESS: The Saxet Company is a Delaware corporation. Through distinct and wholly owned subsidiary companies, all organized under the laws of Texas, it is engaged principally in the production of natural gas, oil, sand and gravel.

Approximately 27,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas are sold daily at the Company's wells in the White Point, Saxet and Refugio fields in South Texas under favorable long term contracts to Houston Gulf Gas Company for distribution in Houston and vicinity and to the City of Corpus Christi which owns and operates its own distributing system. The net earnings from natural gas operations alone for each of the years ended April 30, 1928, 1929 and 1930 were in excess of the interest requirements on this issue of Bonds. At present more than 5,000 barrels of high lubricating content oil are produced and sold daily from 5 different fields all located in Texas. An average of 70 cars of washed and screened sand, gravel and railroad ballast are produced and shipped daily from an extensive deposit near Victoria, Texas, believed to be the largest single deposit in Texas. Ballast is sold under contract to Missouri Pacific Railroad, over 300,000 tons having been delivered during the 12 months ended April 30, 1930.

The territory served by the Company's subsidiaries extends along the Gulf Coast of Texas in which area are such important commercial and transportation centers as Houston (the largest city in Texas), Beaumont, Port Arthur, Galveston, Corpus Christi and Brownsville. Within and adjacent to this territory are vast and highly diversified natural resources which should assure to this territory a continuance of the rapid growth in population and commercial importance for which it is noted.

SECURITY: These Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by deposit with the Trustee of all of the capital stock (except directors' qualifying shares) and first mortgages on all of the property, now owned or hereafter acquired, of each subsidiary company. Mineral rights may be subject to the usual farm mortgages and similar liens. The net sound value of the properties (exclusive of current assets and good-will) represented by the securities pledged to secure these Bonds, as determined by independent engineers' appraisals and/or costs of acquisition, is in excess of $9,500,000.

EARNINGS

The consolidated earnings of The Saxet Company and subsidiaries for the twelve months ended April 30, 1930, as certified by Messrs. Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co., Accountants and Auditors, were as follows:

Gross Revenues, including Other Income	$2,371,068.87
Operating Expenses, Royalties, Maintenance and Local Taxes	1,168,607.85
Net Operating Income	$1,202,461.02
Annual interest requirements on this issue of Bonds	300,000.00
Balance for Depletion, Depreciation, Federal Taxes and other Reserves	$ 902,461.02

The above earnings indicate that the annual interest requirements on this issue of Bonds were earned over 4 times, before reserves. After depletion, depreciation and estimated Federal taxes, the earnings accruing to the 334,086 shares of Common Stock presently to be outstanding, were approximately $1.50 per share.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The proceeds from these Bonds will be used to retire all present funded indebtedness, to provide additional working capital and for other corporate purposes.

MANAGEMENT: The Board of Directors of The Saxet Company will comprise in addition to Mr. W. L. Pearson, President; Mr. Sam R. Merrill, Vice-President; Mr. W. H. Rankin, Secretary and Treasurer; Mr. O. R. Seagraves, Chairman of the Executive Committee of United Gas Corporation and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Freeport Texas Company, and Mr. C. E. Morrow, Vice-President of G. E. Barrett & Co., Inc.

These Bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of our counsel. It is expected that interims or Bonds in temporary or definitive form will be ready for delivery on or about July 1, 1930. All legal details pertaining to this issue will be passed upon for the Bankers by Messrs. White & Case of New York and for the Company by Messrs. Vinson, Elkins, Sweeton & Weems of Houston, Texas and by Mr. A. J. Hennings of Chicago, Illinois.

[illegible] penetrating to a greater depth [illegible] Ochsner No. 20-2 on the [illegible] dome at Kettleman Hills, [illegible] General Petroleum Corporation [illegible] definitely proven the existence [illegible] other than the condensed [illegible] now being produced from [illegible] in that field and has proved up the territory between two projects, one producing [illegible] the other suspended in the oil [illegible].

[illegible] succeeded in killing [illegible] No. 20-2 without difficulty [illegible] will allow it to remain suspended until expiration of an [illegible] on July 31, 1931. More [illegible] a dozen other projects have [illegible] drilled into the oil sand and [illegible] for completion next year, [illegible] to the orderly development plan being worked out by [illegible] Kettleman Hills Oil and Gas [illegible] Committee.

[illegible] General Petroleum Corporation's Ochsner No. 20-2 is located [illegible] between the Continental Oil [illegible] Elliott No. 12-2, a producer on Sec. 12, 22-17, and General's Ochsner No. 26 on Sec. 26. These three projects are [illegible] two and one-half miles [illegible]. General's Ochsner No. 26 [illegible] into the oil sand several [illegible] ago and has been suspended. It is offset by the Standard Oil Company on three sides, [illegible] the Associated Oil Company on [illegible].

[illegible] official figures have been obtained as to General's Ochsner No. [illegible] but field reports state that [illegible] at the rate of about [illegible] barrels of 57.5 deg. gravity oil [illegible] day from a depth of 7691 feet [illegible] with approximately 150,000,- [illegible] cubic feet of gas, strongly indicating that oil of lower gravity, [illegible] of greater volume may be obtained at Kettleman Hills.

[illegible] Field

[illegible] Superior Oil Company's Huffman No. 1 on Sec. 29, 21-17, on the [illegible] dome at Kettleman Hills, [illegible] to come in recently from [illegible] of 7321 feet while fishing for a bailer, and was successfully killed to allow the project to be cleaned out to bottom before being placed on production.

With the completion of Huffman No. 1, Superior will have extended the Kettleman Hills oil field a short distance to the northwest. Its project is offset by the Standard Oil Company's No. 65, and is due northwest of the Milham Exploration Company's Kennedy No. 1 on Sec. 28, 21-17, which has been shut down in the oil sand for the past six months to conform to the agreement to suspend operations.

New Potentials Set

New potentials for the various producing fields in the State were set at a meeting held yesterday by the fact-finding committee at the California Oil and Gas Association. W. S. Dunlap, chairman, presided.

The new potential for the State was set at 1,123,678 barrels of oil, a slight gain over the previous figure. Under groups, Group No. 3 registered the biggest gain, its potential jumping to 85,800 barrels daily. This includes the entire Kettleman Hills oil field.

According to the report, Group No. 1 has a new potential of 650,359 barrels daily, and Group No. 2 has a potential of 387,519 barrels daily. Under Group No. 1, the Santa Fe Springs field has a new potential of 198,950 barrels daily; Signal Hill, 170,602 barrels; Ventura-avenue, 89,875 barrels; Seal Beach, 37,637 barrels, and Elwood, 79,690 barrels daily.

To Consider Report

The report of the fact-finding committee will be studied today when the general committee, headed by Paul Boggs, meets at 2 p.m. at the California Oil and Gas Association headquarters. Among other things to be discussed is the price of crude oil in the Venice field, which now has come into the oil-curtailment problems of the umpire. The Venice field is producing nearly 7000 barrels of oil a day, and with at least three wells nearing the completion stage, is expected to jump to 10,000 barrels daily.

Production Varies

Despite the doubtful condition of the oil formation encountered in the Potrero townlot area, operators there continue to get fair production. The Richfield Oil Company's Hassen No. 1 is flowing about 750 barrels of 40-deg. gravity oil a day and the Sunset Pacific Oil Company's Globe No. 1 is putting out 1700 barrels daily. Taylor & Murphy's Seeberg No. 1 still continues to be the best producer at Potrero. It is yielding 900 barrels of 40-deg. gravity oil a day and the flow is practically clean.

There is some discussion of another deep test or two for the Potrero townlot area. The St. Patracia Oil Company's Connolley No. 1, which went to 8005 feet southeast of the productive area, now is permanently idle and no other project is scheduled for that particular area at present. It remains for the townlot area to be subjected to a thorough deep test and that appears quite probable, due to the showing of that field. The Richfield Oil Company is reported to be planning a deep test. Graham & Loftus's project is drilling below 5798 feet and may go considerably deeper. Getty's Parker No. 1 remains suspended with bottom at 5741 feet and may resume operations in the event other tests show up unusually well.

Activity Increasing

Drilling permits have just been granted by the City Council as follows: For drilling in the Venice field: William D. Davies, Robert Marsh, Mason Bierce, C. J. Capp and Edgar K. Brown.

Since discovery of the Venice field last December, thirty-five derricks have gone up, four wells have been completed and at least three others may be brought in within the next week or ten days.

The Jergins Trust's No. 1, at present the only project that is thought to have a chance of proving that the structure at Venice extends out into the ocean, is being cleaned out to bottom at 3905 feet and will be given a thorough production test. It recently started to come in and was killed to enable perforated liner to be set.

The Venice Oil Syndicate's No. 1 set six and five-eighth-inch casing to 5890 feet with bottom of the hole at 6091 feet and has 220 feet of oil sand formation to test. Storage tanks are going up to handle the anticipated flow from this project and contracts have been let to the Seaboard Midland Petroleum Company to take the oil.

Venice Oil also has several locations just south of Jergins Trust's No. 1 and will drill there in an endeavor to extend the field. The Elmer Oil Company and the McDonald Petroleum Company recently spudded in tests.

Expert Here

J. Elmer Thomas, appointed by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, as chairman of a committee of five experts to make a complete analysis of the crude oil situation throughout the country, several months ago, conferred yesterday with H. Paul Grimm, umpire for thirty fields in this State, on the general oil curtailment problem. Mr. Thomas plans to complete business affairs in San Francisco this week and will return here for another conference before returning to Dallas.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be opened by the Supt. of Lighthouses, San Francisco, Calif., 2 p.m., July 8, 1930, for steel shelving for warehouse and shop buildings at Goat Island, San Francisco Bay. Information upon application.

Expert opinion estimates that an investment in Kettleman Hills Oil Royalty Syndicate No. 1 should return to the investor his principal a minimum of twelve times over in a period of twenty years.

Kettleman Hills
Royalty Syndicate No. 1

PARTICIPATING IN 1300 ACRES ON THE NORTH DOME STRUCTURE DRILLED BY THE ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY

4000 Interests
Priced at $1000 for Each Interest

Metropolitan Trust Company of California—Transfer Agent

This great oil field with its large potential oil and gas reserves has been in the limelight for several months past because of the enormous production of 61 gravity oil and gas. However, up to the present time there have been few opportunities for the average purchaser to obtain even a small royalty interest, owing to the fact that more than half the area of the field is owned outright by the Standard Oil Company, while the remaining half is practically controlled by other major oil companies operating under Federal leases and prospecting permits.

IN MY OPINION KETTLEMAN HILLS ROYALTY SYNDICATE NO. 1 IS THE BEST PURCHASE THAT AN INVESTOR COULD POSSIBLY MAKE IN ROYALTIES

I have most accurate geological information and appraisals of this particular property and offering made by Ralph Arnold, Roy G. Mead and Merwin H. Soyster, and other noted Petroleum Engineers and Geologists, which we will gladly send you upon request.

Please send me full information, including maps and other data, on Kettleman Hills Royalty Syndicate No. 1.

Earthworms and us!

130,000 EARTHWORMS TO AN ACRE . . pass two tons of soil through their gizzards every season . . converting it into humus rich in soluble minerals . . that money could not duplicate . . and your savings at 6% passing through the humble building and loan associations of California . . produce a prosperity of construction and pay-roll . . uduplicated by ay other form of finance!

With economy and unpretentiousness, through 37½ years, the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA and similar old-fashioned institutions have grown into the affection and good will of thousands of big business men and women who KNOW their economics.

WE'VE BEEN ON NO FISH HOOK . . of extravagance . . or side-line profiits . . and we haven't been bait for promotion or personal aggrandizement . . as our three State of California records for building and loan associations will testify . . having been earned among neighbors and friends . . in Pomona Valley.

Just a small-town institution, but with $3,200,000 paid-in capital, surplus and reserve, carrying UNLIMITED LIABILITY pro rata to each heavy-stock-holding officer and director. So we ARE careful in handling $15,000,000 resources to be assured of your 6% and safety.

Treating borrowers as friends without any of the 36 methods of shrinking the borrowed dollar has made our long record of such low loan-losses as to register hardly a chemical trace——and MORE than counterbalanced by foreclosure profits when we've HAD to foreclose. Look us UP, on the 10th floor, economically, in Los Angeles.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Alhambra, Hill near Eighth—"Ingagi." A novelty animal film which has caused any amount of discussion about the country.

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway & Hill—"The Phantom of the Opera." Redressed in sound, his old terror returns for no particular good.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"Arizona Kid." Warner Baxter again takes up his Cisco Kid role and effectively.

California, Main near Eighth—"Beau Bandit." Robin Hood dons a Spanish costume and seeks adventure. With Rod La Rocque.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"All Quiet on the Western Front." A mighty drama of war and its effect. This is one which should not be missed.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"The Divorcee." A daring and well-defined exposition of the modern woman in which Norma Shearer gives one of the finest performances.

Figueroa, Fig. at Santa Barbara—"High Society Blues." Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell take to jazz and not so successfully.

Filmarte, 1228 Vine—"The Great Unknown." A mystery hodge-podge for which there is no solution.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Slightly Scarlet." Clive Brook and Evelyn Brent give customarily good performances in a melodrama.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Not Damaged." A deft comedy amusingly played by Lois Moran as a shop girl who makes her dreams come true.

Grauman's Egyptian, 6708 Hollywood Boulevard—"Paramount on Parade." The little Paramount family displays its latest talents and to some advantage.

Million Dollar, Bdy. at 3rd—"Ladies Love Brutes."

Palace, Broadway bet. 6th and 7th—"Caught Short."

Pantages, Hollyw'd nr. Vine—"Once A Gentleman." Edward Everett Horton buttles his way to laughter in his customary, sure-fire manner.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"The Social Lion." Jack Oakie succeeds in stardom as is seen in this bit of delightful amusement.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"Ladies Love Brutes." George Bancroft has another attack of nobility in the midst of crime.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"Strictly Modern." Dorothy Mackaill and Sidney Blackmer engage in quiet romance to good effect.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Captain of the Guard." Cadman's music and John Boles's singing help along the French revolution, as does Laura La Plante.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Journey's End." A fine interpretation of the season's leading war drama. With Colin Clive.

United Artists, Bdwy. nr. 9th—"The Big Pond." An ingenious comedy which provides Maurice Chevalier with plenty of opportunity to display his popular personality.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"Ladies Love Brutes."

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Hearts in Exile." A lot of money spent in bringing back Russia to popular attention. Dolores Costello.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"Dancing Sweeties." Diverting struggles of newly married love portrayed by Sue Carol and Grant Withers.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado—"Caught Short."

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at Eleventh—"Caprice." Reviewed in today's Times.

Investor Trust to Offer Rights

Stockholders of Continental Investment Company, through a contemplated reduction in capital and conversion of assets to United Founders, will shortly be offered the right to subscribe to United Founders stock, it was announced yesterday. A large block of the stock has been made available for acquisition by Continental shareholders before July 10 at a price below the average market in New York over several days preceding such acquisition.

"For some months past directors have felt that the interest of stockholders would be best served by converting the assets of Continental Investment Company into those of one of the major eastern investment trusts whose large resources provide more complete statistical facilities," A. W. Gorman, president, stated.

Theater Unit to Show Gain

NEW YORK, June 16.—Shubert Theater Corporation for the last half of its fiscal year ending September 30, next, will show a substantial improvement over the first six months, Lee J. Shubert, president of the company, today stated on his return from Europe.

Commenting on the probable future of the legitimate stage Mr. Shubert declared that although the theater business has suffered a temporary setback due to the current popularity of talking films, its place in the amusement field has been firmly established and that popular favor is returning to its support. Tentative offers from film producers to join forces are under consideration while there is also a movement afoot to permit theater owners to sell important picture rights on a royalty basis, according to Mr. Shubert.

Chesapeake to Split Up Stock

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the proposed four-for-one split-up of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway common stock is asked in the road's application for authority to issue $151,528,367 of $25 par common in exchange for an equal amount of $100 par common.

The stock to be split up represents such securities outstanding, held in the road's treasury or stock previously authorized to be issued at $100. Out of the new common $211,200 is to be issued from time to time in lieu of an equal amount of $100 par common upon conversion of an equal amount of 6½ per cent cumulative convertible preferred stock series A.

Sheffield Votes for Steel Union

KANSAS CITY, June 16. (AP)—Stockholders of the Sheffield Steel Corporation, today voted formal authorization for the merger of the Sheffield Steel Corporation with the American Rolling Mill Company, Middletown, O.

The consolidation proposal received an affirmative vote of 183,712 shares, or approximately 92 per cent of the common stock. The merger vote was cast on a resolution to authorize directors of the Sheffield Steel Corporation to execute the necessary documents to carry out the contract for the sale of the corporation's assets to the American Rolling Mill Company.

Huyen los Jóvenes de la Casa Yanqui de la Ciudad Universitaría

PARIS, Junio 16.—La suntuosa casa para estudiantes yanquis en la Ciudad Universitaria, que con la mejor buena voluntad, se ha destinado a reemplazar las tradicionales sucias buhardillas de la margen izquierda del Sena, paraíso hasta hoy de los jóvenes intelectuales extranjeros, permanece virtualmente vacía, no obstante tener más de un mes de abierta; y débese ello a que los estudiantes rechazan el monástico sistema que, en su opinión, reina en la citada casa.

Califican los estudiantes de vida monástica la que se lleva en tal casa, por que no se ve allí con buenos ojos la bebida, y porque a los inquilinos se les prohibe terminantemente recibir en sus cuartos a miembros del sexo opuesto. Un joven artista alquiló allí no ha mucho un taller, y con espanto se enteró de que no podía meter en él a sus modelos. Indignado, desocupó el local al día siguiente. Esta noticia ha cundido como pólvora por todo Montparnasse, y la famosa casa para estudiantes yanquis ha quedado boycoteada por los artistas.

Se Nombra una Calle en Honor de Zapata

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, Junio 16. Hoy presidió el primer magistrado Ortiz Rubio la ceremonia de cambio de nombre de la calle de la Moneda, que, en adelante se llamará de "Emiliano Zapata", para honrar al general revolucionario que, en 1913 y 1914, destruyó la mayor parte de los ingenios azucareros de Morelos, y más adelante ocupó la ciudad de Méjico. Fue Zapata el primer líder agrarista preeminente de Méjico.

Mab Lineman en Campaña Política

Mab Copland Lineman, abogada de esta ciudad, entró ayer a la lucha política como candidata a la legislatura del Estado por el sexagésimo cuarto distrito. Su adversario es Harry Lyons, actual diputado por dicho distrito.

El Descubrimiento de una Llave Provoca un Juicio de Divorcio

Cuando la señora Zelma Clark encontró una llave extraña en el bolsillo de su marido Joseph Clark, dueño de garaje, sospechó que fuera la del apartamiento de una tal Minnie Young, pues en cierta ocasión había encontrado a su esposo sin corbata en la habitación de Minnie. Tal declaró ayer la quejosa en el juicio de divorcio por ella entablado.

La señora Clark añadió en su declaración que, efectivamente, pudo entrar con la citada llave en el apartamiento de la señorita Young, y no sólo, sino que en él encontró la bata de su marido y otros efectos personales de éste.

Charles Infantiles para Chiquillos de Escuela

XII.

La mayoría de los niños de once años entrados en doce no juzgarían muy divertido eso de envolver en papel frascos de betún para calzado, atarlos con cordón y pegarles marbetes en la parte superior; y hacerlo cada minuto del día por seis chelines a la semana; esto es, como por dólar y medio en dinero norteamericano (Most boys of eleven going to twelve would not think it much fun to wrap bottles of shoe blacking in paper, tie strings around them, and paste labels on the tops, every minute of the day for six shillings a week; that is, for about a dollar and a half in American money). Tampoco a Carlos le gustaba. La fábrica estaba llena de ratazas pardas y de chillones ratoncillos, y el olor del betún le daba fuertes náuseas a menudo. Pero no le hacía asco al trabajo por el hecho de que no le gustara; sino que aprendió a hacerlo tan aprisa y tan bien, que la gente que pasaba por la fábrica, se paraba frecuentemente a su ventana para observarle (Charles did not like it either. The factory was full of big gray rats and small squeaking mice, and the smell of the blacking often made him feel quite ill. But he did not shirk his work because he disliked it. Instead he learned to do it so fast and so neatly that the people passing the factory would often stop by his window to watch him).

Pimples Itched and Burned Badly. Healed by Cuticura.

"The trouble began with an itching on my face and hands and then pimples broke out. They were hard, large and red and festered. They came to a head and caused disfigurement. They itched and burned so badly I had to scratch. I could not put my hands in water and was unable to work. I was very nervous and could not sleep.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Cheney Miller, Cheney Wash., Aug. 20, 1929.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden, Mass."

RINDGE RANCHO WARNS RAIDERS

"Land Sharks" Given Blame for Nocturnal Foray

Group Stated to Have Been Duped Into Invasion

All Quiet on Beach Front as Dozen Await Trial

Charges that a ring of "land sharks" demanding advance fees for filing claims induced more than 100 invaders Saturday night to invade beach areas of the vast and historic Rindge estate in an organized attempt at claim-jumping were made yesterday by counsel for the Marblehead Land Company, which controls the great area.

Clare F. Mitchell, attorney for the company, declared that the title of Spanish land grants in California, and particularly the Malibu or the Rindge estate, is unassailable, and the attempt to reopen the question of title is futile.

Brainerd B. Smith, register of the local United States Land Office, termed the wholesale claim-jumping "foolhardy," and the title of the property held by Mrs. May K. Rindge, present owner of the vast domain, beyond dispute.

ATTEMPT "ILL-ADVISED"

"These persons attempting to claim the beach land have been ill-advised," Register Smith said, "by whom I do not know, but as to their proposed filings, they have no standing with the government. In the areas they have chosen to stake all land below mean high tide is State property and above that mark is reserved absolutely by the government.

"The present owner's title to the property is beyond dispute. Only government lands can be homesteaded; therefore, if this land is not government domain, squatters have no right there."

No effort was made by any of the squatters yesterday to make formal filings with the Land Office and even so, Smith said, the filing could not be accepted.

"SCRAP OF PAPER"

Seven of the squatters, however, awaited the opening of the doors of the County Recorder's office so that they might file their claims under the assumption that the old Spanish land grants provide homesteads for ex-soldiers—but their filings can go no further, officials say.

"They merely have scraps of paper on file," Register Smith said, "which are worthless."

The regular procedure for filing on homesteads is in the United States Land Office, county officials said, and the county has no jurisdiction in the matter whatever; the mere recording of the claims does not in any sense make them valid.

James Westervelt, counsel for some of those who staked claims, said last night that the group has ample funds to continue a civil fight for the land, and that a program of long-standing is to be carried on. He disputes with the officials that a Senatorial inquiry has settled the matter, and contends that the original Spanish grants did not apply to beach lands.

ALL QUIET ON RANCH

Throughout yesterday all was quiet on the twenty-one-mile front between Las Flores Canyon bridge and the Ventura county line, where the squatters—men and women—moved in under the cover of night and threatened to hold their claims by violence. Deputy sheriffs dispersed the gathering after arresting twelve of the claim-jumpers for trespassing.

The twelve persons were at liberty yesterday on bail of $10 each pending trial at 10 a.m. on the 23rd inst. before Justice of the Peace Webster of Malibu township. The warrants were signed by guards of the Rindge estate who met the first wave of squatters with drawn guns.

"The Marblehead Land Company has been aware for some time," Attorney Mitchell said in a statement, "that a group of misguided people were again attempting to reopen the question of title to the Malibu land properties, which has been settled for years by the highest courts of the nation.

"The company feels that once more innocent people are being misled by a ring of land sharks who know as well as we do that the titles to Spanish land grants in California, and particularly the Malibu are unassailable. As long as these ring-leaders can obtain advance fees for mere filing of claims, it seems likely that this practice will continue, although nothing to support their contentions has ever been placed before a court or any government agency of investigation.

"These men have nothing with which to support their claims and

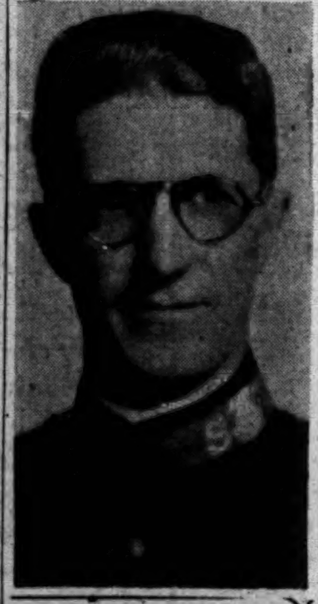
SOUTHLAND TO LOSE POPULAR CIVIC MAN



Brig. James C. Bell
Mrs. James C. Bell

SALVATION ARMY HEAD TO LEAVE

Brig. Bell, Head of Work Here Last Four Years, Going to New Field.

Brig. James C. Bell, for four years commanding officer of the Los Angeles and south coast division of the Salvation Army, will close his work here in August, according to announcement made last night by Commissioner Adam Gifford. Neither the place to which the brigadier will be sent nor the successor to take his place here have been announced. The brigadier succeeded Col. Clarence C. Boyd, one of the West's most widely known officers.

During the past four years of his service here, Brig. Bell has been active in civic affairs. He is chaplain of the Los Angeles Exchange Club and assistant chaplain of the Los Angeles Optimists. He is a member of the executive committee of Social Agencies.

Among the major projects which have been carried to completion during his term as divisional commander is Redondo Camp, where each summer hundreds of underprivileged boys and girls are given a vacation under the best of conditions. During that period, also, the Salvationists have completed the day nursery and the Women's Home and Maternity Hospital at 2870 North Griffin avenue.

Mrs. Bell, who has always worked with her husband in matters pertaining to the army, during their residence in the Southland founded the Home League Department, which has grown to unusual proportions. She has been in charge of the Redondo Fresh Air Camp, which opened the past week with the first contingent of seventy boys and girls from the city.

Announcement will be made in a few days concerning the brigadier's

TAX CUT JOLTS BUDGET PLANS

Mayor and Council Beset by Troubles Galore

County Assessor's Program Cause of Their Woes

Williams Withdraws from Closed-Door Session

Mayor Porter and the City Council went into closed-door conference on the city budget yesterday with troubles galore, for they recently have obtained the news that tax receipts will be cut about $1,000,000.

The budget started out by being formulated in secrecy by Mayor Porter. The public had a glimpse of it when the tentative document was submitted to the Council, but yesterday the cloak of mystery again was thrown about it.

In spite of the announcement that the doors were to be closed, the newspaper reporters covering the City Hall entered the star Chamber. Council President Sanborn called the Council to order, Mayor Porter being present, and then asked the pleasure of the members as to the exclusion process.

REPORTERS WITHDRAW

Councilman Williams called Section 22 of the charter to the attention of the Council, which says: "All meetings of the Council and records of its proceedings shall be open to the public" and opposed the secrecy move. He received no support, Councilmen Cooke and Burns declaring they had business to take up which would be better off if not mentioned in the newspapers. The Mayor said nothing.

Thereupon the reporters withdrew. They were followed by Councilman Williams, who said he will take no part in concealing from the public what happens in connection with its taxes. Several city officials who were present also withdrew and the meeting proceeded.

PROGRAM OF REDUCTION

County Assessor Hopkins said yesterday he is making heavy reductions on city real estate. Only a few places, such as Broadway corners, Wilshire Boulevard and Hollywood Boulevard corners will be considered as increased in value.

The total reduction for the city, he said, will be approximately $100,000,000. As the general city government receives $1.01 per $100 for its upkeep, this is estimated as being a reduction in city tax receipts of $1,010,000.

This reduction in assessments by Mr. Hopkins will be reflected throughout the entire county by a notable decrease in taxes on the property owner.

ESTIMATE UNASKED

Mr. Hopkins said that, unlike prior years, Mayor Porter had not asked for an estimate on taxes, and, therefore, was not prepared for the reduction in assessments.

The city budget estimates tax receipts for the present year at $19,600,000, and for the forthcoming year at $19,700,000, wherefore the reduction in assessments actually will make available for the general city government but $23,890,000 instead of $25,000,000, the remainder being made up by fees, rents, fines, interest, etc.

Considering the special funds that Mayor Porter has allocated to general purposes, he contemplates expending next year $26,336,825 to run the general city government.

The Council has until Friday to approve or change the budget.

President Thorpe of the Police Commission said yesterday that inasmuch as the department must stand a cut of $200,000, he supposes that about 100 patrolmen will have to be laid off.

Rehabilitation Group to Dine

With Judge Collier presiding, the recently organized Women's Rehabilitation Association of California will hold its first general dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. today at the Chamber of Commerce Building. Mrs. Preston Lois is president.

Mayor Porter, Sheriff Traeger and all the Superior Court judges have been invited. Plans will be discussed for the establishment of a home for women released from local jails.

Judge Georgia Bullock is honorary president of the Women's Rehabilitation Association, and Mrs. Vada Sullivan, chief matron at the County Jail, is vice-president.

INSURANCE SHIFT VOTED

On motion of President McGuire the Board of Public Works yesterday voted to have the city carry its own insurance on public structures under the control of the board. He said this will represent a considerable saving. The matter now goes to the City Council.

COUNTY SAVING FORECAST

Chairman Graves of Supervisors Gives Word of Reduced Outlay for Fiscal Year

It will cost less to run the government of Los Angeles county during the fiscal year of 1930-31 than that ending July 1 next, according to a forecast of Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, made yesterday.

"In spite of the fact that we were compelled to include $850,000 in the new budget to cover the cost of the primary and general elections, which was not in the 1929 budget, the total amount to be spent will be less this year," Chairman Graves declared.

Whether there will be enough reduction to affect the county tax rate is problematical, according to members of the board. This will not be known until the final adoption of the new budget September 2, next, at which time the new rate will be set.

The current year has been marked by unusually heavy costs, particularly in the charity department, Chairman Graves pointed out. An emergency appropriation of approximately $200,000 was required to carry on this department through the year.

Up to the present, with the June figures still unavailable, $2,254,909.38 has been expended for the operation of the County Welfare Department, which includes charities, as compared with $1,921,896.46 during the fiscal year of 1928-29.

The cost of operating Los Angeles county during the present fiscal year was approximately $56,000,000, according to the figures of the County Auditor's office.

SOAP PLANT FLINGS DIRT TOMORROW

Ground-Breaking Rites of Procter & Gamble to be Attended by Civic Groups

Actual construction of the $5,000,000 Proctor & Gamble soap factory at Long Beach will begin tomorrow afternoon with ground-breaking exercises in which public officials and members of Los Angeles and Long Beach civic organizations will take part, according to D. C. Power, in charge of construction. The new plant will be located on the Long Beach channel in Long Beach.

Excavating work will start Thursday morning and will be completed within six weeks. Graham Brothers, members of the Associated General Contractors, have the excavating contract.

The factory building will be of Class A construction and will rest on a "floating foundation," due to its proximity to the ocean. The building, part of which will be eight stories high, will rest on a thick bed of concrete, which in turn will be supported by clusters of deep piles.

Fund Assured for Controlling Waters in Bay

That the sum of $661,000 will be included in the 1930-31 county budget for controlling the flow of the lower San Gabriel River direct into the Pacific Ocean instead of permitting the flood waters to empty into Alamitos Bay was assured yesterday in an announcement made by Supervisor Quinn.

Plans for harnessing the flood water of the river calls for the construction of a channel 400 feet wide. The bay is to be the scene of many of the aquatic events to be held in connection with the Olympic Games in 1932.

Jackson Graves, Pioneer Banker, Ill at His Home

Jackson A. Graves, pioneer Los Angeles banker, is ill in his home at 320 East Huntington Drive, Alhambra, it was learned yesterday. He was stricken about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, but rallied some hours later and last night was reported to be somewhat improved.

JACKSON A. GRAVES

According to the attending physician, Dr. Frederick A. Speik of 1625 South Fair Oaks avenue, South Pasadena, Mr. Graves's condition is "serious but not critical." No immediate change in the condition is expected, the physician said.

Mr. Graves, members of the household admitted, has been ailing since early spring, but until yesterday had continued able to come to his office here. He is president of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank. He is in his seventy-eighth year.

Switch Charge Inquiry Ordered

General Manager Squires of the Harbor Belt Line Railway yesterday was directed by the board of control to investigate switching charges at the harbor and report to the board, so that it may take up the subject with the Interstate Commerce Commission, as urged by steamship companies in the Wilmington district.

The steamship concerns complained that a $7.20 switching rate in Wilmington is hampering development of that section in view of the fact that the Union Pacific has a switching charge of $3.60 a car in the Terminal Island district.

Bridget and Her New Family

They thought for awhile that loneliness would be the death of Bridget, the motherly old hen that drooped about the Maywood fire station and clucked disconsolately in the sun without a brood to cheer her heart—but life has changed now and she is about the busiest fowl in town.

The station cat was poisoned not long ago and died, leaving three little, fuzzy awkward, black kitten orphans. They were quite a problem to the firemen until old Bridget got on the job.

She took them out for a stroll behind the station house and what with much waddling, mewing and clucking it was quite a tour. And now the kittens follow Bridget wherever she goes.

At sundown last night Bridget clucked gently but firmly to her furry little family and there was a general scamper to protection for the night under her ample wings.

TWO MORE AMECO DEAD RECOVERED

Sea Gives Up Bodies of Missing Victims in Fishing Boat Disaster

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, June 16.—Ocean currents this morning gave up two more bodies of victims of Memorial Day's tragic sinking of the fishing launch Ameco. They were positively identified, according to Deputy Sheriff Cruishorn and Police Chief Webb, as Edward Mannix of 5161½ South Vermont avenue, Los Angeles, and William Jones of 532 Zinnia Lane, Glendale.

Another body recovered yesterday, still remains unidentified at the Wilshire funeral home, this city.

Following the recovery last Friday of the body of Ward S. Ferguson of Glendale, the three brought in this morning and yesterday reduce the list of missing to nine, according to a police checkup.

SIX MILES AWAY

The body of Mannix was found by the speedboat Mardi Gras at a point about three-quarters of a mile off the Ocean Park pier, a distance of fully six miles from the scene of the Ameco's sinking, which occurred a mile and a half off Castle Rock, between Topanga and Santa Monica canyons. The body of Jones was found by the speedboat Alert half a mile northeast of the Santa Monica pier.

Because of the varying currents, which last Friday had carried Ferguson's body northwest of the wreck and which today carried Mannix's body as far south as Ocean Park, the search for the nine remaining victims widened today. The county patrol boat Cobra, which brought in Ferguson's body, and a number of launches and speedboats, some of them privately chartered by relatives and friends of the missing, combed the ocean from Point Dume to Del Rey. Captains of craft at Redondo and beaches to the south were asked to watch for bodies.

BROTHER VIEWS BODY

William Mannix of 124 West Seventy-third street, Los Angeles, made the identification of his brother Edward. Effects taken from the clothing were recognized immediately, police said. S. Schwartz of 3738 Brunswick avenue, Los Angeles, who was with Edward Mannix on the Ameco, also was at the morgue. Schwartz said he and Mannix had been in the bow when the launch turned over. He saw nothing of his friend after he himself rose to the surface of a rough sea.

Mannix's body was sent to the Gus Alvarez undertaking parlors at Olive and Court streets, Los Angeles, where funeral arrangements will be made. Jones's body is at the Mendenhall funeral home, this

BAR PLEBISCITE COUNT FINISHED

Candidates Indorsed for Superior Judges

Number of Votes Near to Association Record

Selections Made from List of Thirty-nine Names

The Los Angeles Bar Association plebiscite committee last night completed a count of ballots for the organization's indorsement of candidates for eleven offices in as many departments of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, and the balloting was announced as one of the largest ever conducted by the association.

Thirty-nine names appeared on the association's ballot. There were five aspirants each in Departments 12, 36 and 17; four each in Departments 24 and 48; three each in Departments 38, 16, 43 and 44, and two each in Departments 10 and 49.

The ballots were distributed to the entire membership of the Bar Association, and the candidate in each office receiving the largest number of votes is accepted as receiving the organization's indorsement.

Count of the ballots required several hours, and the totals were not announced until after midnight. The committee includes representatives of the association in the city and near-by towns.

POLING COMMITTEE

Judge Albert M. Stevens, Judge Shaw and William J. Hunsaker, members of the Bar Association since its organization in 1888, were selected to open the first ballots last night.

The polling committee which counted the ballots is comprised of John D. Richer and Charles E. Beardsley, representing Los Angeles, with William T. McNeely, Alhambra; Charles R. Dyer, Glendale; J. Gordon Mills, Inglewood; Stephen H. Underwood, Long Beach; Raymond G. Thompson, Pasadena; James H. Mitchell, San Fernando; R. T. Walters, Whittier; A. P. Nichols, Pomona; C. G. Hedgcock, Huntington Park, and Forrest D. Macomber, Santa Monica.

The results of the ballot follows:

The total number of ballots cast was announced as 2111, out of an approximate membership in the association of 2500.

Neither of the three candidates for Office No. 8, Department No. 16, received a majority of the votes cast, and according to the by-laws of the organization there will be no indorsement for this position. There is no provision made for another ballot where there is no majority. The candidates for this office are Hugh J. Crawford, Charles E. Haas and Dudley S. Valentine.

LARGE LAND TRACT CLOSED

Million Acres in Southland Withdrawn from Entry to Aid Colorado River Project

Withdrawal from public entry of approximately 1,000,000 acres of land in Southern California was ordered in instructions received yesterday by B. B. Smith, Register of the United States Land Office here, from C. C. Moore, Commissioner of the United States General Land Office.

It was stated that the withdrawals are in connection with plans for the Colorado River project and are in anticipation of the building of aqueducts, canals and large storage basins for water, particularly with respect to the giving in the future of an abundant supply of water for this district and for the storage of the same. The sections affected most are in Imperial and adjacent valleys.

It was estimated that about 40 per cent of the land has been patented but that the rest had been open to entry until the order went into effect, which was of the 4th inst., the date the order was originally issued from the office of the Secretary of the Interior. The order applies to land and mineral (including oil) entries, which means that no filings made on these lands after the 4th will be approved by the Department of the Interior. Likewise, filings which have been made and not approved probably will not be allowed.

Five counties are involved in the withdrawals: San Bernardino, a portion of Riverside county, Imperial, Orange and a portion of Los Angeles. Even all lands it was stated, not subject to right of eminent domain by the government, such as railroad rights of way, may be used

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THIS city of Los Angeles is going to be a great place for cannibals this summer. The town will be full of fried policemen with these new blue uniforms.

Such colors soak up heat like a sponge drinking up water. They are such recognized heat absorbents that modern engineers—when the lake navigation opens in the springtime—paint the ice in strips the width of a ship channel—sure that the painted strip will melt before the white ice.

WELCOME GANGSTERS

The gangsters of Chicago are on the run; but the sad part is that most of them will be headed for Los Angeles. This will be their natural objective.

Our policemen gave Al Capone such a vigorous reception that he took the next train out of town. More out of the same package.

OUR NEAREST LAKE

For years I have been motoring past Lake Elsinore, promising myself that I would one day take a ride on that lake. Last Sunday I took the ride. It was gorgeous.

Tahoe hasn't much in the way of beauty that can't be found at Elsinore. It is entirely surrounded by a rim of mountains that become a pageant of glory at sunset and in the morning.

LIQUID MATCH SAFE

If it hadn't been for one peculiar chemical fact, Lake Elsinore would have been in water pipes, watering the front lawns of Southern California for lo, these many years. It is a lake six miles long; about two and a half miles wide and in some places forty feet deep. The reason it is still on the job is that the water is impregnated with sulphur to the extent that it cannot be used to irrigate anything except olive trees. For some reason they thrive on sulphur water.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The breakfast table conversations between King Carol and his wife will not relate to titian blinds; you can be sure of that.

MOVIES IN TROUBLE

A drop in movie profits is driving two of the great companies into an alliance.

Everyone has his theory; and I have mine as to the cause. When talkies came in the producers tried to throw all the adored stars to the wolves and drag in a lot of stage stars from New York—with their musical comedies.

Musical comedies on the screen have flopped so hard that in advertising a recent Chevalier picture the theater manager stated that the star would sing only two songs. It was a promise.

ADORING THE STARS

Movie fans don't go to the theater for the play. They go to see stars who have become a part of their lives. The plays and the stories have to be good, but the play most emphatically isn't the thing on the shadow screen.

POISON GAS

The officer whose job it is to plan the poison gas defenses of the United States laughs at the idea that airplanes are going to destroy whole cities by spilling out poison gas.

There never has been an important war engine invented that the newspapers didn't announce with solemnity that this would "revolutionize war." They forget that the maker of armor always keeps pace with the sword maker.

'GHOST' GUIDES JURY TO ATTICS

Sanhuber's Supposed Haunts in Garrets Inspected

Court Session Conducted in Oesterreich Houses

Neighbors Recount Stories of Murder-Night Events

While the six men and six women of the jury which will decide his fate looked on, Otto Sanhuber, so-called garret ghost, yesterday went back to the attic in which the State asserts he lived for years and from which it charges he emerged one night to murder Fred Oesterreich, wealthy husband of the woman with whom Sanhuber was infatuated.

Sanhuber's visit to the garret was part of the proceedings when Superior Judge Hardy complied with requests from counsel on both sides that the jurors be taken to the scene of the shooting.

Manacled to Deputy Sheriff Dennison, the accused man was taken first to the old Oesterreich residence at 858 North Lafayette Park Place, and followed the judge and jurors around while police officers pointed out various places and things which will become pertinent in testimony yet to be given.

JURORS PEEK IN

On the second floor, all of the jurors peeked in through the narrow aperture leading to the attic room in which Sanhuber supposedly was secreted for years by Mrs. Oesterreich without the knowledge of her husband. They also gazed at the spot near the front door where Oesterreich's body was found and had pointed out to them a place on the ceiling where new plaster supposedly hides a bullet hole.

Then, at the request of the prosecution, the jurors were taken to another house at 101 North Beachwood Drive, where Dep. Dist.-Attys. Costello and Russell say that Mrs. Oesterreich hid Sanhuber in another attic after the murder. The second garret is smaller and even less accessible than the first.

The trip to the two houses constituted a regular session of court. G. J. Kennelley, official court reporter, accompanied the party and transcribed questions and answers just as though the proceedings were going on in a courtroom.

Judge Hardy swore in Detective Lieutenant Stoll as official "guide" of the house at 858 Lafayette Park Place, and Eddie King, investigator for the District Attorney, led the way through the house on Beachwood Drive. At all times during the trip, Defense Counsel Wakeman and Rogers were present to represent their client, and Bailiff Bryant kept order.

The jury's trip was conducted yesterday afternoon. In the morning Mrs. Flora L. Rawson, who testified Friday that she lived next door to the Oesterreichs on the night of the murder—August 22, 1922—resumed the witness stand for cross-examination.

STORY UNCHANGED

The examination, however, did not change the material points of her story—that she and Mrs. Cora A. Norton, a guest in the Rawson home, had heard three shots in rapid succession in the Oesterreich house, had seen through the French windows the legs of a man moving through the dining-room and had seen no one leave the house after the shooting, although they noticed the porch light turned off and later the light upstairs go on.

Mrs. Norton then was placed on the stand by the prosecution and she corroborated Mrs. Rawson in practically every particular. She was followed by John Riedeman, funeral director, who prepared Oesterreich's body for burial. The undertaker testified that he found approximately $60 in cash in Oesterreich's clothing, as well as two bank drafts for $1000 each and other miscellaneous papers.

BOWL ADVERTISING FUND GUARANTEED

Financial aid to the extent of $7500 to be expended for advertising the Hollywood Bowl in 1931 was assured yesterday when, on motion of Supervisor Shaw, the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county voted to insert the appropriation in the 1930-31 budget. The request for the money came before the board in a communication from the Hollywood Bowl Association.

PARK SUIT COMES UP TODAY

Property Owners Seek to Prevent Los Angeles from Carrying Out Victory Project

Hearing on a suit brought by property owners in the assessment district of Victory Park No. 2 against the city of Los Angeles and city officials, to stop proceedings for acquiring land for park purposes was put over until today before Superior Judge Tappaan.

Attorney Roy A. Linn represents the plaintiffs, Jessie W. Ivers, Catherine Ivers, F. W. McNamare, Frank Rogers and six others. They contend that legal service was defective in the condemnation proceedings; that excessive price was awarded for property condemned; that the site for the park was never approved by the Park Commission as provided in the city charter; that proceedings were designed to provide a speedway to Pasadena and not for park purposes; that the project of city wide benefit and cost should be borne by the city at large and not by the assessment district, and that several hundred property owners in the assessment district were unable to get into the City Hall Council chamber to voice their protests at a public hearing.

City officials recently were restrained from proceeding with the work until the suit can be heard.

COUNTY BAN ON NONSTOP DANCE TEST

District Attorney Takes Steps to Abolish Hoofing Marathons for Record

Marathon dancing in Los Angeles county territory faced an abrupt end yesterday with announcement by Dave Clark, chief of Dist.-Atty. Fitts's complaint department, that a dance at Pico already has been closed and that steps are being taken to stop similar contests in five other suburban towns.

The Pico contest was closed Saturday, according to Blayney Matthews, chief of the bureau of investigation. It was pointed out that such dances are contrary to County Ordinance No. 1750.

Difficulty may be experienced, however, in halting other of the contests, officers assert, because they are operating within the limits of incorporated cities. In such cases any action taken will be in cooperation with local police, Matthews said.

Reports have been received that marathon dances are being held at South Gate, Maywood, Lynwood, Bell and Monterey Park.

ROAD WORK FOR CANYON EXPENSIVE

Arroyo Seco Improvement Would Entail Expense of $500,000, Says Eaton

Preliminary work for the improvement of Arroyo Seco channel from Devil's Gate Dam to the Los Angeles River, a distance of ten miles, for the construction of a highway, would cost the County Flood Control District approximately $500,000, according to a report of Chief Engineer Eaton made yesterday to the Board of Supervisors.

The report followed a request made to the county by City Engineer Jessup of Los Angeles asking that the Flood Control District strengthen the channel to protect the proposed highway. The city plans to build the road to connect with the termination of the Figueroa street viaduct at Dayton avenue. From there it would extend up the Arroyo past Devil's Gate Dam into the mountain park area.

"The cost of the channel would be more than half of all the tax money available for county flood control maintenance work during the coming year and as there is no bond money, I see no way for the county to finance the work," Engineer Eaton said.

The board filed the report.

Pension Ruling to Affect 150 Increase Claims

Judgment that will affect pension claims of about 150 policemen and firemen was recorded in Superior Judge Hanby's court yesterday, when the court recognized the default of the City Attorney to the mandamus suit of David W. Brown and signed the order which demands that the city pension board allow an increase of from 50 per cent to 90 per cent of Brown's pension.

The request of Brown, a fire-department engineer, that his pension be increased had been refused by the pension board on the ground that the new charter provision is not retroactive. Attorney C. W. Rollinson argued that the pension law should apply to all pensioned firemen and policemen. Deputy City Attorney Irvin demurred but Superior Judge Gates overruled the demurrer and ordered the case tried. The City Attorney's office then decided not to oppose the case further and default was entered.

Theft Charged to Chauffeur

Yesterday a touch of drama came close to Noah Beery with the arrest on a suspicion-of-burglary charge of Royal H. Horton, 23 years of age, chauffeur to Walter Beery, the film actor's father.

Horton was arrested at his home, 1120 Hudson street, on a complaint of a nurse attending the elder Beery, who is ill, that she had lost a $75 diamond ring.

Detective Lieutenants Taylor and Dineen investigated and arrested Horton, who is said to have remarked to friends that he "intended to pull some jobs." Horton had a revolver in his possession when taken into custody.

in the huge project, the primary purpose of which is to utilize the waters of the Colorado River for the fertile fields and valleys in Southern California.

Generally, in a triangular shape, the withdrawals run from the Colorado River at three points to Los Angeles county and to Imperial Valley. The withdrawals, in three divisions, generally are as follows:

First, beginning at a point in Southeast Imperial county at the Colorado River, running northwesterly along the eastern side of Imperial Valley and along the Southern Pacific Railway, along the north side of Salton Sea and Coachella Valley into San Bernardino Mountains, thence westerly along the south slope of the San Bernardino Mountains to Los Angeles county.

Second, from a point on the Colorado River in Northern Riverside county and southern part of San Bernardino, including parts of both counties, westerly and forks, one running southerly to the Salton Sea, connecting with withdrawal No. 1. The north fork runs along the Santa Fe Railway to Cadiz and westerly to Barstow, thence westerly through Lucerne Valley and Cajon Pass, connecting with withdrawal No. 1 near San Bernardino.

Third, from a point on the Colorado River, north of Needles to Cadiz, connecting with withdrawal No. 2.

The various strips withdrawn vary in width from two to three sections.

LACK OF EVIDENCE

"The utter failure of those seeking to cloud title, not only to the Malibu rancho, but many other properties in the Southland, to place a single piece of evidence that they had a legal claim before the Senate investigating committee last year was final proof that such efforts as those of Saturday night are not to be taken seriously.

"And those who are constantly being swindled out of their savings should begin to learn by this time that those who advise them for a fee are only interested in the fee. The Marblehead Land Company has owned the rancho for forty years. All those who attempt to force entrance to its lands are trespassers and there is nothing it can do but treat them as such.

"We are sorry to see that three or four of these men are veterans of the World War. It is unfortunte that men who have given so much to their country have been induced by unscrupulous people to lend their good name to such a cause."

HUSBAND ACCUSES BRIDE OF HURLING RING IN FACE

While on their honeymoon his bride threw her engagement ring in his face, Roy W. McWilliams testified yesterday in his suit for divorce from Helyn A. McWilliams. Superior Judge Archbald granted a decree after hearing this, together with McWilliams's assertions that his wife was a chronic flirt.

"On our honeymoon to San Diego we went over to the Foreign Club at Tia Juana," testified McWilliams. "Mrs. McWilliams went aside with a dealer, to whom she talked for a long time. When I asked her what they talked about she became angry and threw her engagement ring in my face, saying she wished she had not married me."

He said that Mrs. McWilliams and a man guest at a party slipped away to buy cigars, and that when they returned, there was lip stick on the other man's face. McWilliams added that he asked his wife if she had kissed the man and she admitted it.

Other testimony was given to show that Mrs. McWilliams flirted when her husband was absent.

OIL MAN MAILED SECOND THREAT

Long Beach Operator Sent New Extortion Note

Millionaire Takes Case Out of Police Hands

Detectives Here to be Used in Search for Writer

Spurred by receipt of another mysterious letter, J. L. Keck, millionaire Long Beach oil operator, yesterday reclaimed from police of his own city the threatening missive sent him last week, and was reported planning to place both communications in the hands of private detectives here for investigation.

Keck made no formal report to Chief of Police Yancy of Long Beach that he had received a second letter; merely applying for the return of the first. On his way from headquarters, however, he admitted to detectives who have been working on the case that another note from the same extortionists had been delivered at his home yesterday morning. He declined to reveal the text of the letter.

The letter, Keck confided to the detectives, was handed to the maid by a postman. She recognized the envelope as identical with that in which the first threat was contained, and turned it over to her employer when he returned to his home for lunch.

Keck gave no explanation of his action in taking the investigation out of police hands. Long Beach detectives, however, believe he is impatient because of the failure of the trap they set last week for the writer or writers of the first note.

The first letter sent to Keck at his home, 3040 East Second street, Long Beach, was a warning to the oil man to place $1000 in a barrel behind a Long Beach market under pain of dire consequences to himself and family.

"I mean business and am watching you," it concluded. "Life means nothing to me."

For several days last week, Keck handled the money as directed, while armed detectives hovered near; but no person made a move to recover the "planted" package.

In making known the threat against Keck last week, Long Beach police also revealed that a similar letter to Thomas L. O'Donnell, another wealthy oil operator, had been under investigation for several weeks. O'Donnell was directed to board a San Pedro-bound train and drop $2500 from the window at a designated spot in Wilmington.

RITZ HOTEL ORDINANCES AUTHORIZED

City Attorney Instructed by Council to Draft New Zoning Documents

City Attorney Werner yesterday was instructed by the City Council to draft the necessary ordinances permitting the California Western Holding Company to erect the proposed $5,000,000 Hollywood Ritz-Carlton Hotel in the Hollywoodland hills north of Argyle avenue.

The action was taken on recommendation of the City Planning Committee. The necessary change of zone from the strictly residential zone already has been approved by the City Planning Commission.

The structure, which will be surrounded by landscaped grounds, is backed by a group of eighty Southern Californians. It will be a part of the international string of Ritz-Carlton hotels.

The City Council yesterday referred to the Water and Power Committee for consideration the resolution recently adopted by the Board of Water and Power Commissioners proposing to employ Lester S. Ready as an electrical expert for the fiscal year beginning July 1. The contract provides that Ready be paid $50 per day for ordinary consulting services; $100 per day for court work or equivalent, and expenses. The minimum compensation is set at $500 per month.

JAPANESE SALVATIONIST CHIEF HONORED HERE

From the Emperor to the man on the street, the people of Japan are in sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army in their country and have a great appreciation of its accomplishments there, according to Commissioner Gumpei Yamamura, in charge of all the army work in Japan, who is making a tour of the United States before returning to his own country.

"When Salvation Army work started in Japan in 1895," he said, "it met with the stiffest opposition on every hand and at times the difficulties seemed almost insurmountable. But gradually opposition gave way to tolerance and tolerance finally to the approval and support which we enjoy today. The army has the official sanction of the Emperor and we no longer meet with bitter obstacles along the path of our development.

Just before he left Japan, Commissioner Yamamura said that he completed arrangements for feeding 1000 hungry persons every day in Tokio.

"There is a great financial depression there," he said, "and there are many without work or the means of livelihood. The army can feed 1000 a day for $35—only one meal, of course, of rice and meat—but it is a good meal and keeps them from starvation."

Christianity is making great headway there, he said, nor are its converts confined to schools, missions and churches.

Commissioner Yamamura came to this country to attend the national Salvation Army congress in New York City last month.

Yesterday morning about 125 army officers met at the local headquarters, 832 West Ninth street, to hear Commissioner Yamamura speak, after which a luncheon and reception in his honor were given at the Elite.

NEW PLEA PRESENTED BY LAVINE

Extortion Case Principal Seeks to Block Trial in Appeal Court Move

Morris Lavine, former newspaper man, facing retrial next Monday on extortion charges, yesterday filed a petition in the District Court of Appeal in which he seeks to restrain Superior Court from proceeding to trial, charging double jeopardy and that the section of the code under which the charge was brought is vague and uncertain.

Lavine's codefendant, Leontine Johnson, filed a similar petition last week, employing the same arguments.

It is set forth in each petition that the State abandoned the extortion charge after the jury had been impaneled, to proceed to trial on a charge of attempted extortion. Selection of a jury, it is asserted, is part of a trial; it is further argued that another trial would place the pair in jeopardy for the second time.

Lavine is represented by Richard Cantillon and W. T. Kendrick, Jr.

city, where relatives made the identification.

Deputy Sheriff Cruishorn said today that divers believe the sunken hull of the Ameco may be totally covered by sand at the bottom of the sea, accounting for the failure of grappling hooks to locate the wreck. Swirling currents, heavily sand-laden, the divers report, warrant the belief that anything sunk at that point, known as the bubble hole, might never be recovered.

Search for additional bodies was continued today by Capt. Morgan, head of the Sheriff's aviation detail, who accompanied Pilot Campbell of the Goodyear blimp, flying at a low altitude along the coast. Following a two-hour trip, the ship was returned to its hangar. The trip was made at an altitude of from fifty to 100 feet and a similar flight is scheduled for today.

THE BROADWAY

Celebrating Tuesday
the 68TH ANNIVERSARY of
ARTHUR LETTS

Acclaims with just pride its strict adherence through the years to the sterling principles of its Founder

"EVER CARRYING ON"

THOSE who knew Arthur Letts appreciate that he esteemed the ideals of courtesy and fair dealing as the very cornerstone of this business. And upon this occasion The Broadway can pay no higher honor to the memory of its founder than to dedicate anew this great business to the high principles upon which it was founded: Truth, Courtesy, Liberality and Value.

The name of Arthur Letts will long be remembered not only as an able merchant, but as a citizen who gave generously of his time and talents to all worthy enterprises—as a Friend who never failed to lend a helping hand or word of advice.

No man had a greater faith in the destiny of Los Angeles than Arthur Letts—no one foresaw with clearer vision its rise to the leading metropolis of the Pacific Coast.

Tuesday, June 17th, on the 68th anniversary of the birth of Arthur Letts, we remember him not as of the past, but as the living, breathing spirit of this organization of which he was so long the guiding hand. The white carnation worn by each member of The Broadway family Tuesday is symbolic of the living ideals of Arthur Letts which now, as in the past, continue to guide our daily progress.

Injured Aviatrix Files for Air Derby

Miss Marjorie Crawford

BROKEN ankles and leg bones do not mean a thing to Miss Marjorie Crawford, aviatrix, who has filed an entry for the woman's air derby to be held in connection with the national air races at Chicago in August. Miss Crawford was struck by an automobile in May. The first X-ray showed a fractured ankle bone, but later a long bone was found broken and her physician has forbidden her to enter a plane for four months.

"Oh, bother the doctors! When August comes I'm going to fly," Miss Crawford said yesterday, as she sat in her wheel chair at the Plaza Hotel in Hollywood. She is the sister of Buddy Crawford, the polo player.

RECIPES ASSORTED AT COOKING SCHOOL

The program at the Los Angeles Times' free cooking school today is devoted to the demonstration of recipes requested by members of the class, but they are a very interesting set of recipes since they range from a glorified strawberry pie—a strawberry chiffon pie—down to the details of how to make dumplings that will be light and fluffy instead of lumps of soggy dough. Included are ice box-colored cookies, a novelty especially suited for entertaining; an unusual fish dish—finnah haddie and steamed cucumbers served with tomato sauce—and cream corn bread. The Times invites everyone to attend this class, which is held in the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway, and begins at 2 o'clock.

Condemnation Proceedings of Street Under Way

Millions to be Expended to Open Traffic Glut

Tunnels Under Elysian Park Feature of Project

Condemnation proceedings involving several million dollars in the opening, extension, cutting and widening of North Figueroa street from Second street to Pasadena avenue were started yesterday before Superior Judge Burnell. Included in this project is condemnation of 340 parcels of land, the 1925 estimated value of which was $1,236,425. Forty oil wells are on lands in the path of the project.

All but twenty-two of the 340 ownerships have been before a tribunal of referees appointed by the court. Referees are Bonner Adams of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation land appraising department; Arthur K. Knowles and W. L. Morrison, real estate men. Reports and recommendations of the referees are to be submitted to the court by July 1, next.

CONTRACTS LET

This project includes construction of three tunnels, two of them under Elysian Park. Contracts for these tunnels, aggregating more than $600,000, have been let by the City Council. The tunnels are to be approximately 1000 feet long.

As contemplated, the project includes grading of Figueroa street from Second to Temple street and on across College to Horton street. From there Figueroa street will follow Yuba street on to a viaduct and through the Elysian Park tunnels, emerging on Dayton avenue, which, when widened, will carry traffic into Pasadena avenue. Figueroa street will be widened to 100 feet throughout. Widening and grading of Bernard street from Yale to North Broadway also is included in the project.

Appearing for the city are Deputy City Attorneys Royal G. Wilke and George Francis.

OWNERS WARNED

"The court will assume that the oil wells are of no value unless persons owning the property on which they are located come forward to contend that the wells increase the value of their property," ruled Judge Burnell at yesterday's start of the hearing.

Named in the suit are more than 1000 defendants, including all the railroad companies touching the city, practically all of the banks of Southern California, several title and investment companies, the Los Angeles Board of Education and the Los Angeles Flood-Control District.

AUTO-TOUR INFLUX TIDE STILL RISES

Motor Arrivals for May Gain 27 Per Cent Over Month Last Year

Marking an increase of 27 per cent over the corresponding period last year, a total of 64,697 out-of-State motor tourists arrived in California last month and of this number 24,124 came direct to Southern California via auto through the Yuma, Blythe and Daggett gateways.

This is an increase of 13,760 auto tourists over May, 1929, it was announced yesterday by Don Thomas, executive secretary of the All-Year Club, Southern California's national tourist advertising organization.

An actual count maintained at the State border by the California Department of Agriculture shows that 24,051 autos furnished transportation for the out-of-State visitors to California during the last month.

These figures do not include the number of visitors arriving by trains, steamships, interstate stage lines and airplanes, or 27,631 California autos returning to the State from tours elsewhere.

Chamber Seeks Fund to Boost Legion Meeting

A request for an appropriation of $10,000 to be used in the entertainment of delegates who will attend the national convention of the American Legion in 1931, should local veterans be successful in landing it for Los Angeles, was made of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county in a letter from John C. Austin, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. The communication was read to the board at the regular meeting yesterday and referred to the Budget Committee.

According to Austin the convention, if held here, will bring between 75,000 and 100,000 visitors to the city and county, which would constitute a commercial asset to interests here of approximately $6,000,000.

Reports of New Price Cuts for Gasoline Denied

Retail gasoline prices in Los Angeles at most of the stations selling the recognized brands held their prices firm yesterday at 16 1-2 cents, despite rumbles of a continuance of the gasoline war in San Francisco and Bay cities where the Texas Company dealers are said to have lowered their price 1 cent in addition to the 3-cent reduction of Saturday.

Executives of other gasoline-producing concerns, including the Standard, Union, Richfield and Shell companies, said there is no indication of a further reduction and that they will hold to their announced wholesale price of 12 1-2 cents.

Small independent dealers, however, have entered the gasoline conflict by selling retail at 12 1-2 cents and some for lightly less.

VIOLATIONS OF OIL FIELD BAN SMALL

Court Takes No Action on Reported Infractions of Waste Injunction

Violation of a temporary injunction's prohibitions by several oil companies operating in the Santa Fe Springs field were reported yesterday to Superior Judge Hazlett, when he heard a report on efforts to curb wastage of natural gas in conformance with the State conservation program. Joseph Jensen, oil and gas expert appointed by the court, reported that while there were minor violations of the temporary injunction issued by Judge Hazlett, they were not serious.

The court session was called to determine whether modifications were necessary. Attorneys for the oil companies promised to use all efforts to induce their clients to confine the gas wastage to the limits prescribed by the court when the temporary injunction was granted several months ago.

The injunction was issued following commencement of trial of the suit, still pending, of the State against the gas concerns. The action was brought under the new California Act for the Conservation of Natural Resources. Judge Hazlett adjourned court, without taking action, until September 15, next.

BANISHING THE OLD MAID

French author declares women are at their best when they have passed the thirties. That all depends upon what is meant by best.

LION CHOPS

Lion chops are now served in England and highly approved by the Prince of Wales. However, they sound a good deal like cat to us.

CALIF CALF

A Caesarian operation was performed on a cow up near Stockton in the San Joaquin Valley and a two-headed, six-legged, two-tailed calf was born. There is no stopping this climate of ours.

ROSE

A Calistoga rancher has a Cherokee rosebush thirty-one years old and three feet nine inches in circumference at the trunk. If some of our rosebushes, wistarias and grapevines are allowed to grow a few generations, they will be second only to the big trees of California. Our grapevines now have trunks like trees.

DRY VOTE

The General Federation of Women's Clubs in session at Denver the other day representing 3,000,000 women of America voted 800 to 11 for rigid enforcement of prohibition. Evidently the Digest's ballots failed to reach this segment of our citizenry. There is little wonder that some folks want all this wet-and-dry talk to cease.

DE-LIMITING

The National Conference of Street and Highway Safety has just approved the California idea of de-limiting the speed limit and giving the driver more responsibility. Heavier penalties are recommended for careless driving. However, it would not do for them to look into our Monday morning morgues and hospitals too closely. He is an optimist who trusts too much in some of our morons on the big road.

ASHAMED

The German boxer, Ludwig Haymann, heavyweight, has been barred from further contests in the United States by the German Boxing Association on the ground that it is humiliating for him always to get licked. He might meditate upon the man mountain from Italy and have all his punches foreordained to knock his victim out. However, he would then be debarred by the boxing commissions of this country. So it would be a stand-off.

HELLO!

Somebody has counted the number of "Hellos" used on the 81,000,000 telephones of the country and places the estimate at 241,000,000 daily. And it is the starter of the fifty words that telephone officials say comprise 60 per cent of all conversations.

The first part of "Hello!" seems a little hot, and the latter part, a trifle low; but the word has risen in dignity from the back lots and streets of America and become a friend of the best families. It is now admitted to even highbrow circles. It had to work its way; but it has justified its existence and fills a large vacancy in thought.

There may be other and seemingly more elegant words, but so far they do not seem to have the snap. Nobody lays claim to its invention. It was the small boy's vocabulary a generation ago and often brought reprimand from the purist in the pedagogical chair. Its propulsive power has shot it into the most antagonistic centers.

The statesman, the mechanic, the clergyman and the doctor all employ it as a buffer to further speech. It is the feeler of every approach and offers opportunity for consolidating the defense against every ring. After you have got it, you know at once whether you be dealing with friend or foe.

Many a maiden has captured man's heart by her musical "Hello!" The value of its proper intonation has induced commercial concerns to insist that operators take lessons for contacting the public over the exchange. A firm is known by the hello girl it keeps.

THE NEW TARIFF LAW

What is expected by the President to be the last general tariff revision for many years has at last passed Congress, after nearly twenty months consideration in committee and on the floor—fifteen months by the present Congress—and will receive the approval of President Hoover. While the bill indubitably goes further in revision of existing schedules than the President considered necessary when he sent his message on the subject to the extraordinary session, in the main, as he points out, it does carry out party pledges in regard to agriculture.

Of the increases in the bill, weighted by value, 93.73 per cent are upon farm products and only 6.25 per cent upon strictly nonagricultural products. Moreover, protective duties on these agricultural products are increased by more than 10 per cent while the increases on other products are less than 3½ per cent. Of 3300 separate rates in the bill, 890 represent increases from the tariff of 1922, 235 decreases and 2170 are the same. It is plain to be seen that this is not a far-reaching, but a strictly limited revision, such as the President recommended, and that while he admits that the schedules are not perfect, he is clearly justified in signing it.

He is the more justified in doing so since for the first time, a flexible provision which will be really effective has been incorporated in the law. The Tariff Commission has been placed on a much more scientific basis than ever before and given real power to deal quickly with commercial situations as they arise, as it is not quite so hampered with the necessity of making impractical and difficult investigations abroad. It is also given power to recommend new rates, which the President may approve or disapprove. The present law requires the President to fix the rate.

The President's analysis of the measure shows that it is a genuine forward step in American tariff legislation, containing a practicable arrangement for the correction of its defects and for adjustment to meet changing conditions. As such it is a law of which the Republican party can be proud and upon which it can go to the country this fall with confidence. The criticisms which have been leveled against it by the Democratic press are without merit.

So far as California products are concerned, the new rates are generally satisfactory and will do much to revive flagging industries and help out harassed growers. Substantial increases are provided for nuts, lemons, grapefruit, figs, dates and many other fruit and vegetable products of this State, including a duty for the first time upon long-staple cotton, and these increases will be really effective in offering protection since they are on goods which are imported in quantity. The increases, however, are not sufficient to cause any material rise in retail prices, so that consumers will not suffer. They merely suffice to neutralize some of the advantage foreign producers have in eastern markets through low-cost water transportation from Europe. They are not as much as was asked for in some cases and experience may show that it will be necessary to ask the Tariff Commission and the President for further protection. But that is a matter which only experience can demonstrate.

The average rate of the new bill for all dutiable products, as estimated by the Tariff Commission, is about 40 per cent, comparable with 33½ per cent in the Fordney-McCumber bill. For all importations it is expected the rates will amount to about 16 per cent, while the Fordney-McCumber tariff has produced about 14 per cent of the value of all imported products, on the average, since it was passed in 1922. The bulk of American importations are of goods on the free list.

No tariff was ever wholly satisfactory to anybody and the grumbling with which these proposed rates have been received in some quarters is normal and inevitable. It need not be taken too seriously. The foreign protests and threats of retaliation are also normal and inevitable results of a tariff change and never yet have produced any deleterious results on American trade. It must be remembered that the tariff contains a safety-valve in the flexible provisions, by which prompt revision can be made by the Tariff Commission and the President in case any particular rates are found on experience to be inequitable.

Long experience has proven that the protective principle has been valuable to American industry and has been productive of prosperity. The new tariff is a protective tariff, and hence has a presumption in its favor. Protection guards American wage earners and American manufacturers against cut-throat competition from abroad and behind its sheltering walls almost all American industries have been built up. If it is not wholly responsible for the high American standard of living, it is at least largely so.

That, as the new bill becomes law, business will adjust itself quickly to the new schedules, is readily predictable from past experience. In many cases, if not in all, the stimulus which these rates will afford is needed by industry. The uncertainty which the slow process of revision has brought about unquestionably has been a factor in business depression, and for this snail-pace Congress, and particularly the Senate, is to blame. The tariff bill could have been passed in substantially its present form last August or September—the net changes since that time have not amounted to much. That uncertainty is now ended and business will heave a sigh of relief—and get down to business.

A LA BARNUM

Producers of "Ingagi" say their aim was to turn out an entertaining picture. But their advertising matter gave no hint of the "faking." And it is to the credit of the standard producers that they were the first to discover and disclose the tricks through which scenes were presented that could not have been shown except under the guise of a scientific expedition.

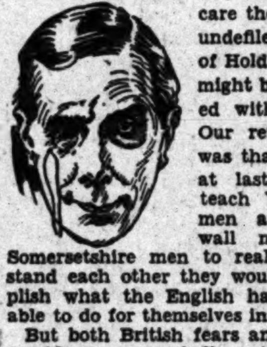
FOREST ROADS

Construction of highways in the national forest areas of the West will be almost doubled by the recent appropriations of Congress. California will especially benefit.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

WHEN talking pictures first really arrived Merrie England grew sad. Henglish journals began to sound the alarm that hif they didn't 'ave a care the pure and undefiled speech of Hold Hengland might be corrupted with Yankee. Our retort then was that if talkies at last would teach Yorkshiremen and Cornwall men and Somersetshire men to really understand each other they would accomplish what the English hadn't been able to do for themselves in centuries.



But both British fears and Yankee persiflage are wholly out of order. For the fact is that the talkies have very largely gone English.

The English Invasion

In the days of silent pictures, any good American actor could play an English part, but now that the speech must ring true in Canada, England, South Africa, India, Australia and intermediate points, one's English accent must be genuine or it won't do for talkies. With cautiousness in this matter far greater than stage producers had shown, the motion-picture producers employed whole casts of English, Canadians and Australians for English shows. Even Americans with adenoids wouldn't do. Only those to whom the accent is native are considered for speaking parts.

As we walked into a studio the other day two men accidentally bumped each other.

"I'm sorry!" said one.

"Probably my fault," the other reassured him, unsmilingly.

The English accent was the same—to our ears, at least. But we knew from the expressions they used that one must be from England and the other from Canada.

In the street cars and motor busses going to the studios one hears many extra men and girls speaking with the English accent.

Some of the Invaders

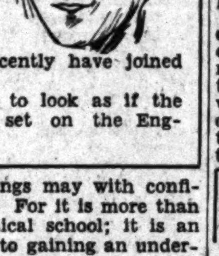
Not counting Charlie Chaplin, who is striving so valiantly to preserve silent pictures, Hollywood's motion-picture colony teems with Englishmen. George Arliss is an Englishman of course, and so is Ronald Colman—and where are there any more popular? We asked a friend who knows Hollywood much better than we do to take a pencil and jot down the names of some of the Englishmen which came to him, offhand. The list included:

O. P. Heggies, Ralph Forbes, Basil Rathborne, Clive Brook, Reginald Sharland, John Loder, Dennison Clift, Dorothy Mackaill, Evelyn Laye, Maurine O'Sullivan, Henry Victor, David Manners (cousin of Lady Diana Manners,) Victor McLaglen, Dennis King, Tom, Owen and Matt Moore, Donald Stuart, Beryl Mercer, Wyndham Standing, H. B. Warner, Roy T. Barnes, Lucy Beaumont, Bobbie Burns, Byron Walter, Arthur Clayton, Fay Compton, Lawford Davidson, Reginald Denny, John Dillon, Cissie Fitzgerald, Arthur Forde, Alec B. Francis, Lawrence Grant, Sybil Grove, Evelyn Hall, Larry Kent, Lupino Lane, Stan Laurel, Betty Lawford, Gertrude Lawrence, Raymond Lawrence, Frank Leigh, Montague Love, Arthur Metcalf, Gertrude Norman, Madeline Seymour, Joan Standing, Will Stanton, Edithe Yorke. And quite a lot of Australians and Canadians were not listed.

Two Busy Boys

And the English actors are kept busy. Claude Allister, for example, came here with Holbrook Blinn in the stage play, "The Play's the Thing." He seemed just the man needed for a part in the talking picture version, "The Trial of Mary Dugan," and he didn't have to go to the studios to ask for a test. They came after him. In the eighteen months since then he has appeared in fifteen pictures, which looks pretty much like a steady job. His father was a general in the English army, but he has settled down, apparently to stay, in a Hollywood bungalow.

Anthony Bushell was ordered by wire for "Disraeli." He was a young Oxford man who studied for the ministry, but got into stock in London. Jimmie Gleason saw him and used him as the young Englishman in "Is Zat So." It took Zelma O'Neal to bring him to America, however. He married her when she went to London with "Follow Thru" and came to New York with her. While "Disraeli" was being filmed the producers wired New York for "Charles Deering," not knowing the name of the actor, but only that of the character he had created. Since "Disraeli" he has been in four other shows and now that Zelma has gone Hollywood they seem planted here. They now are in England, but only for a visit.



Forrester Harvey and Hugh Williams of the stage version of "Journey's End" are two more Britishers who recently have joined the film colony.

It really begins to look as if the "sun" lights never set on the Englishmen.

CALTECH MARCHES ON

Forward movement by California Institute of Technology, the State's most distinctive educational institution, has come to be accepted as a matter of course, and hardly a ripple of astonishment greeted the announcement at the annual Commencement Day Friday that additional noted scientists have been added to the faculty, that it has been provided with facilities which will make it foremost in aero-dynamical research and that a whole new group of geology buildings are soon to be erected.

Dr. Theodore Karman, world expert in aircraft, will head the aero-dynamics department and the school will direct the work of the Daniel Guggenheim Lighter-Than-Air Institute at Akron, O. The belief that airships or dirigibles will soon come to have paramount importance in trans-Pacific travel and that Los Angeles will be the terminus for the traffic has, in part, prompted the provision of such facilities for the institute; but of even more influence, of course, has been the school's solidly established reputation in the scientic world.

Dr. Beno Gutenberg, leading European authority on seismology, is another important addition to the technical staff and Dr. Theodore Soares, formerly of the University of Chicago, will head the department of ethics. On the material side, the Balch Graduate School of Geological Sciences, to be housed in a group of buildings on the southwest corner of the campus.

Dr. R. A. Millikan, chairman of the institute's executive council, in announcing these important new acquisitions, both of men and of plant, also reported that work has been started on the first of two $1,000,000 dormitories, that the $500,000 Atheneum, destined to serve as headquarters and a meeting place for all Southern California scientists, is near completion and that the machine shop, optical shop and astronomical laboratory in connection with the new 200-inch telescope are well under way. He also announced that provision has been made for the expansion of the Robert Roe Blacker and Nellie Canfield Blacker Scholarship and Research Endowment Fund.

Such growth and advancement are extraordinary when added to the achievements of Caltech in the past. These are the accretions of a single year; in previous years the institute has made similar gain. In large part, of course, the California Institute of Technology has had the advantage of the commanding position in the world of science occupied by Dr. Millikan; but California Institute of Technology is more than the "lengthened shadow of one man." There are others in its teaching staff almost as well known, and, in their respective fields, quite as eminent, and it is the combined efforts of all that have created its prestige.

Caltech is an institution of which Southern California is justly proud, and of which great things may with confidence be predicted. For it is more than just another technical school; it is an institution devoted to gaining an understanding and, where possible, to adjusting, the relation of man to the universe.

"ALL QUIET" STANDS TEST

It is a mighty fine compliment to Hollywood when a German editor praises a film with a German story, made near Laguna Beach, with an American cast.

SHATTERED HOPE

By James J. Montague

I was highly delighted to hear
That radium, placed in the sod,
Will swell the green corn in the ear,
Will fatten the pea in the pod;
Will bring a warm light to the manifold eyes
Of the frequently puny potato
And swell to a hitherto unattained size
The fruit of the fragrant tomato.

These things I have tilled in my time,
But in spite of my unstinted toil,
In spite of a temperate clime,
And a rich and alluvial soil,
And in spite of the hopes, when the spring was at hand,
In my optimist's bosom I cherished,
For reasons I never could well understand
They grew a brief fortnight and perished.

But when this information I read,
Hope loomed like a light in my path.
"I shall plant a fresh garden," I said
"And give it a radium bath.
And, defying the beetles that swarm from the trees,
And the battle the corn borer wages,
I shall raise up green corn and tomatoes and peas
Like you see in the catalogue's pages."

But no garden this fall I'll behold;
The hope that I cherished was vain;
For radium costs, I am told,
Rather more than a million a grain.
Of the scheme for a while I had never a doubt;
But, regarded a little bit closer,
I can see that my green-stuff would cost just about
As much as I'm charged by the grocer.

LETTERS TO The Times

In Upper Owens Valley

GLENDALE, June 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Having been referred to in the public press as a "Johnnie," as an "optional" and as one who was "buttressed with options" in Upper Owens Valley, where my associates and I hold some rather unimportant pieces of land, I ask The Times (whose spirit of fairness is an asset to this community) to print the following statement from me, which ought to set me and my associates right:

(1.) That we never sought to anticipate the city of Los Angeles' needs of water land by getting in ahead. We simply purchased three pieces of land which were in the open market for sale. These lands carry a moderate amount of water—only a moderate amount.

(2.) That the very first thing we did after acquiring these lands was to assure the city authorities (through Mayor Porter and H. A. Van Norman) that in case the city did ever want to acquire our water rights they were welcome to do so at a price which would be entirely satisfactory to them.

(3.) That this offer still holds. We will repeat the offer in this form—that in case the city wants or needs any water which we now own we will give them a clear title to all such, including the lands which go with the water—at the same price which we paid for them—plus 10 per cent for our trouble in getting them together—and will, in each and every case, exhibit the original contract price which we entered into with the owners when we acquired them.

(4.) That I, myself, personally, have never criticised the city officials for bringing the Mono water via Long Valley, if this were the best thing to do. It has suggested itself to me—and to many others—that if there is a natural gravity route via Adobe Meadows and if there is a very large underground storage capacity in this same Adobe Valley which is in the underground gravel and, therefore, exempt from the effect of intense evaporation, then this matter is worthy of serious consideration. That it will receive this consideration, I have no doubt. Mr. Van Norman's—and others' statements assure this.

(5.) That there are several power drops on the Adobe Meadows route which will compare favorably with the assets of this nature which exist in Owens Gorge, is well known. The Benton Gorge power drop will compare favorably with any other.

I have no controversy with the city engineers nor with anyone else—so far as I am aware—and neither I nor my associates wish to be drawn into any situation where we are, by inference or otherwise, given a cast of countenance which does not belong to us. W. T. SELLECK.

TYPICALLY JOHNSONIAN

[Philadelphia Public Ledger]

Senator Johnson ran true to form in rejecting the administration's tender of those secret papers to the Foreign Relations Committee "in confidence." He will accept no offer "with any strings to it." He demands the administration's "unconditional surrender" to his contention that Senators have the right to any information possessed by the State Department no matter what mischief might be caused to American relations with other governments.

The gentleman from California might take a lesson not only in courtesy, but in concern for sound public policy from the precedent set by Daniel Webster to whom is attributed authorship of the conditional clause which usually accompanies requests from Congress to the President for information "if not in his judgment incompatible with the public interest." He might also recall the words of the first President of the United States in reply to a request for documents bearing on a proposed treaty with Great Britain: "The nature of foreign negotiations requires caution and their success must often depend on secrecy. Even when brought to a conclusion a full disclosure of all the measures, demands or eventual concessions which may have been proposed or contemplated would be extremely impolitic, for this might have a pernicious effect on future negotiations or produce immediate inconveniences, perhaps danger and mischief in relation to other powers."

In 1922 President Harding took the same position in refusing the Senate's request for records relating to the four-power Pacific treaty. Secretary Stimson's assurance that no secret understandings or commitments are contained in the department's files bearing upon the naval treaty has been reinforced by statements from Mr. Johnson's own colleague who attended the London conference. But of course, the Senator from California is not to be deterred from playing his usual role of professional trouble maker.

Wish of Prison Fans Came True

There was gloom in Sing Sing prison last summer when the star battery of the prison baseball team were released, their terms having expired. Early this spring, the pitcher was back beginning a new sentence. "Now if we could only find as good a catcher as Arthur Hale was," the prison fans declared. They did even better than that for last week Arthur Hale himself returned to prison for a life sentence, being a fourth offender on a burglary charge.

LOS ANGELES—BOOK-MINDED

BY FAITH HOLMES HYERS

No happy accident led two bookish conventions to choose Los Angeles as headquarters this year. The Booksellers in April acknowledged Los Angeles as one of the coming book markets of the country with more than a million books sold annually. The librarians, coming, 2000 strong, June 23 to 28, find in Los Angeles a library center in which the Public Library alone circulates 9,000,000 books yearly, and where every type and variety of library may be studied.

Librarian visitors lured by charms of climate and scenery are to be kindly, but firmly reminded of their opportunities to inspect libraries of the Southland during this busy week. Between the forty sectional meetings devoted to discussion of the myriad phases of library technique and the four main sessions which will be addressed by educators and librarians from all parts of the country, California hosts will conduct visitors to their pet library projects.

Claiming first attention, both in propinquity and importance is the Los Angeles Public Library, the third largest public library in the country in book circulation and outstanding in central and branch buildings. Opportunity will be given visitors to study all phases of administration and equipment of this public library system which operates through forty-nine branches and eighty-nine stations to serve a population of more than 1,000,000.

County library service will attract much notice as the California County Library system is the most progressive in the world and the Los Angeles County Library is the largest in the country. Guests will be taken to headquarters and shown how books are routed to branches in the valley and the mountaintop—some of them 100 miles distant; how 100 pounds of mail is handled daily, filling book requests in a county covering more than 3000 square miles.

Educational libraries will come in for a generous share of time, beginning with the city school library, serving 296 elementary schools; the libraries in thirty-three senior and twenty-three junior high schools, aggregating 300,000 volumes, and our university libraries. One session of the convention will be held at the attractive new library building on the campus of University of California at Los Angeles.

Business and technical libraries may be visited in the downtown district and motion-picture libraries will open their doors to a few studio visitors.

Museum library visits may be combined with a dash of sightseeing and study of California history. Glimpses of the Casa Adobe at the Southwest Museum and the fossils from La Brea pits may be caught by the wide-awake library tourist.

Neighboring cities of Long Beach and Pasadena offer hospitality to visitors who would observe the smaller municipal library adapted to community requirements—while the cream of the best—the mecca of any California visitor and doubly precious to librarians—is the trip to the famous Henry E. Huntington Library. The directors of this library have graciously given the week to convention visitors. Four hundred guests a day will be transported to the joys of library and art gallery, where special treasures reverenced by book lovers, will be on display such as the Gutenberg Bible, the Ellesmere Chaucer—a first folio Shakespeare.

By the end of the week it is expected that vistors will be certain that Los Angeles is "book-minded."

WIN A PRIZE

BY GREENVILLE TALBOTT

The Graphic Publishers offer three prizes—$2500, $1500, $1000, with arrangements for royalties—for the three best novels submitted by December 1. They must be full novels, containing between 60,000 and 120,000 words.

Only manuscripts by Canadian authors—Canadian by birth or adoption, resident in Canada or abroad—will be eligible. Decisions will be made strictly on literary principles; that is, no theme is debarred, no setting prescribed.

For full information, without cost or obligation, write to Graphic Publishers, Ltd., Ottawa, Can.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Machine Book-keeping?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

At Manual Arts Evening High School, Forty-second and Vermont, there is a fully equipped room for machine book-keeping, having Remington, Underwood, Burroughs and other machines. There are free classes from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and from 3 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Civil service examinations in machine book-keeping are given about twice a year and three or four months is necessary to secure accuracy and assurance.

There are also free classes in this subject at Polytechnic Evening High School, 400 West Washington, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, 5 to 7. Free classes will be given throughout the summer.

BANDIT VICTIMS SERIOUSLY HURT

Club Night Clerk Shot by Hold-up Man

Second-Hand Dealer Felled With Auto Axle

Suspects in Both Cases Taken by Police

Victims of lone bandits, Henry P. Miller, 53 years of age, night clerk in the University Club, 614 South Hope street, and Abe Aranson, 54, second-hand dealer, were in a critical condition at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital late yesterday. Miller was shot twice in the abdomen and once in the chest. Aranson was struck on the head with an automobile axle and suffered a possible basal skull fracture.

Both bandits were captured within a few minutes after the robberies. They gave their names as Wilbur McCabe, alias Jerry O'Regan, 43, and Ransford Davidson, 38. McCabe, who held up and shot Miller in the University Club lobby, is an ex-convict from San Quentin, having been sentenced to ten years for robbery July 19, 1924, and paroled January 1, last.

The attempted robbery of Miller took place shortly after midnight. The bandit, according to Miller, walked into the lobby and, leveling a revolver at him with one hand, shoved a note toward him with the other.

CLERK GRABS KNIFE

The note read: "You are stuck up. Don't put up your hands or make a sign. If you try to make a sign to anyone you will die.. Put the money in a sack and pass it to me. Then go in the closet and stay there for five minutes and slam the door shut."

Miller, as he finished reading the note, suddenly snatched a pocketknife from a desk and slashed at the bandit's face. He made a quick grab at the bandit's weapon, but in that instant the latter fired the first shot, quickly followed by two more as he sought to jump away from the knife blade tearing through his cheeks. At the third shot Miller collapsed to the floor. The bandit, bleeding profusely from the knife wounds, fled through the street door.

Within a few minutes Detective Lieutenants Alsup, Burris, Baker and Sitts arrived in response to a call from Charles K. Harris, night watchman at the club. An ambulance was called and Miller was rushed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where a major operation was performed.

BLOOD TRAIL FOLLOWED

In the meantime Officers F. J. Rice, A. J. Bunning and F. F. Webb, who had also been dispatched to the scene, were persistently following a trail of blood left by the fleeing bandit. Block after block with darting flashlights they followed the trail, sometimes losing it and again again picking it up some distance farther on, until at 1537 Wilshire Boulevard they found blood spots on the door steps.

Pocketing their flashlights and unholstering pistols, the officers deployed about the building, one to watch the back door, another at the front door, and one to go inside. McCabe was found in a washroom, where he was cleansing his wounds. He surrendered without resistance. When taken to the City Jail he denied shooting Miller and said he was wounded in a street fight.

Miller, who has been employed as clerk at the club for a number of years, is single and lives at 1002 North New Hampshire avenue.

VICTIM USES WHISTLE

Aranson was robbed and assaulted just as he was opening his store at 508 East Fifth street shortly after 7 a.m. He was struck down from behind. As he fell to the pavement the bandit searched his pockets and obtained 15 cents. Still conscious, Aranson blew a police whistle he carried.

Officer A. W. Doyle, a short distance away, heard the whistle and ran to the scene in time to see Davidson running away. Doyle immediately gave chase and caught the suspect within a block. He was identified by Aranson and admitted, according to Doyle, that he had struck the second-hand dealer with the automobile axle because he was hungry and out of money. Aranson was hurried to the Receiving Hospital.

ORATOR HAS LONG STRING OF VICTORIES

Edmund Darr Doyle From Cincinnati Ready for Test in National Contest

Edmund Darr Doyle, 21 years of age, winner of the central zone contest, who will be one of the seven speakers at the Sixth National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution at the Biltmore Thursday evening, is a senior at St. Xavier College at Cincinnati.

Doyle was declared the most popular student of the college this year by a vote of the student body. In 1929 he won second place in the regional contest at Columbus, and in 1930 won first place in the same contest and then won the championship of the Central States, defeating the other regional winners.

His college career has been punctuated with many oratorical and debate contests. He has won sixteen consecutive judges' decisions in intercollegiate debate against the strongest competition of the Middle West. In the 1930 legal aptitude test given by the University of Cincinnati Doyle scored the highest average of all the students in the metropolitan area of Cincinnati.

He has appeared in many college plays and has directed plays in Cincinnati sponsored by the little theater movement. He also has won many intercollegiate contests in Latin and speaks German fluently.

KEYSTONERS WILL MEET

Film players will entertain this evening at the monthly meeting of the Pennsylvania State Society in Fraternal Brotherhood Hall, 845 South Figueroa street. The program, in charge of the Allegheny county contingent, is to be followed by cards and dancing.

BERMAN ON WAY HERE FOR TRIALS

Julian Bribery Cases Continued Pending His Arrival Tomorrow

Accompanied by two guards, Jacob Berman, former business associate of S. C. Lewis, left McNeil Island Federal prison yesterday for Los Angeles, where he is to be prosecutetd in local courts and also serve as a State's witness in all the pending Julian bribery cases. He is due to arrive sometime tomorrow.

While Berman is being returned here on orders of Atty.-Gen. Mitchell for Dist.-Atty. Fitts, Superior Judge Wilson yesterday postponed the Julian jury bribery cases until next Monday.

The cases are against Berman, his brother Louie and Louis Krause, the asserted go-between. John B. Groves, one of the jurors whom Berman says he bribed, and whose case is set to follow the Krause case, was instructed by the court to return the 30th inst., prepared for trial. Frank C. Grider, another juror indicted for accepting a bribe, has his case also set for next Monday.

Berman himself is scheduled to go to trial on an embezzlement and forgery charge on July 7, next.

Adapting Laws to New Status Students' Task

Modern students of law are not looking back into yearbooks for their preparation but are reaching out to determine the practical application of laws, Prof. William Green Hale, dean-elect of the school of law, University of Southern California, declared last night in an address before the Men's Forum at the City Club.

WILLIAM G HALE

Complexities of law, demand for expedition and simplification and adaptation of law to changing economic and social conditions are three major problems confronting members of the profession, Prof. Hale said.

Burns to Four Children Laid to Film Flares

Mystery surrounding the painful burning of four children by powder explosions Sunday was cleared last night when police learned that the blasts were caused from several flares used in motion pictures which had been taken from a Melrose-avenue studio by two boys.

The children were playing in a vacant lot near Waterloo and Mayberry streets when they found the explosives, set matches to the containers and were caught in the puffs of flame. All are recovering.

Detective Lieutenants Kleinfeld and Kirsey said last night they had located two boys who said they had taken the flares from the studio lot, and after burning some threw the remainder away in the vacant lot. More of the flares in the boys' possession were confiscated and the youths warned about taking and playing with explosives.

Mrs. Armitage Wins Her Suit For Freedom

Merle Armitage, associated with the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association, was divorced by his wife, Irene Anita Armitage, yesterday after a marriage which began in Tia Juana and lasted less than three months, according to her testimony in Superior Judge McComb's court.

Only three weeks after the wedding, Mrs. Armitage declared, her husband told her he did not love her and, to prove it, moved into an unfurnished apartment.

They were married September 29, 1929. Armitage filed a brief answer to the case, but stipulated to an immediate trial. The defendant did not appear.

Of Interest to Women

Society

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Among the delightful affairs of recent date was the breakfast with which Mrs. Frederic Beall West of South Lafayette Place entertained Saturday morning at the Los Angeles Country Club. It was the last of a series of charmingly planned affairs, with which Mrs. West has been entertaining this season. Varicolored garden flowers with a profusion of ferns were charmingly combined in the decorations, and Mrs. John A. Henderson assisted her daughter in receiving the guests, who included Mrs. Albert Griffith Bartlett, Mrs. Cecil Frankel, Mrs. Harry Tipton Steck, Mrs. Martha Taggart, Mrs. Walter Jones Trask, Mrs. William B. Cline, Mrs. Arthur Morlan, Mrs. Edwin S. Rowley, Mrs. Chapple, Mrs. S. M. Goddard, Miss Margaret Dent, Mrs. George E. Burrall, Mrs. Owen Humphrey Churchill, Mrs. M. H. Binford, Mrs. Alice Mongtomery, Mrs. Richard Perez, Mrs. S. M. Nenten, Miss Bertha Lebus, Mrs. Lloyd Wright, Mrs. Harry Isaacs, Mrs. John G. Matthews, Mrs. Georgina Elizabeth Schermerhorn, Mrs. Eli Fay, Jr., Mrs. Lucius Clark, Mrs. William W. Orcutt, Mrs. Gertrude Page, Mrs. Lewis Curtis Torrance, Mrs. Anna Campbell Fitzgerald, Mrs. Arthur S. Bent, Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, Jr., Mrs. Roys Nelson Strohn, Mrs. George B. Macauley, Mrs. William F. Callender, Miss Della Bates, Mrs. Dwight Brigden, Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish, Mrs. William Mitchell Caswell, Mrs. Charles Wellborn and Mrs. Thomas Caldwell Ridgway. Bridge featured the afternoon's entertainment.

DANCE REVEALS BETHROTHAL

Sorority Entertains for Bride-to-Be

[Murrillo for Western Press service]

Miss Vivian Martha Miller

ONE of the lovely affairs of recent date was the smart dinner-dance with which Kappa Tau Gamma Sorority entertained at the Deauville Beach Club honoring Miss Vivian Martha Miller, vice-president of the sorority, formally to announce her betrothal to Karl Koeppel, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Koeppel of Coronado. Pink roses and blue delphinium were combined in the decorations, stressing the shade of the gown worn by Miss Miller. The news was told in baskets of flowers, concealing hearts with the names of the betrothed. Miss Miller is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Miller of Inglewood, and the wedding will take place this summer, although no date has yet been announced.

Luncheon-Bridge

Honoring Mrs. B. B. Bales of New York City and Mrs. John Ward Gibson, Mrs. Walter Oliver is giving a luncheon and bridge this afternoon at her home in West Boulevard. A yellow and black color motif will be effectively carried out with yellow crystal, yellow roses and ferns, the table lighted by black candelabra, while in the solarium early summer flowers in a riot of color will be used and the living-rooms will carry out an orange and blue motif in decoration and appointments. Hand-sketched place cards will mark the covers for Mrs. Bales, Mrs. Gibson, who is celebrating her birthday anniversary; Mrs. Robert Malpan, Mrs. Dollar Russell McBryde, Mrs. Herbert White, Mrs. Ida Knappen, Mrs. Walter Boydston and the hostess.

Farewell Party

Miss Margaret Bourne, who left yesterday for a summer vacation at her cotage in Boothbay Harbor, Me., was the honor guest at a beautifully appointed luncheon with which Mrs. George Grant Hunt entertained Wednesday afternoon at the Wilshire Country Club. Early summer flowers, roses and ferns were combined in the table decorations and covers arranged for Mrs. Hunt, Miss Bourne, Mrs. Howard Waring, Mrs. Reginald Jones, Mrs. Walter Schmidt, Mrs. William Lindley and Mrs. Albert Honey. Many other lovely affairs were given as farewell courtesies for Miss Bourne last week, among them being a supper party by Mrs. Walter Schmidt at her home, 224 Highland avenue, and Mrs. Albert Honey gave a tea for her at her home in Kings Road, while another hostess at tea was Mrs. John R. Richards of Glendower Road. Miss Bourne will not return to Los Angeles until some time in the fall.

For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Max Hebgen is entertaining this afternoon with a luncheon and bridge at the Town House, honoring Miss Katherine Jean, whose wedding with Laurence Thayer Bourne of Cleveland, O., is to be an event of the 27th inst., the affair taking place in the Wedgewood Room and the guests will include Miss Jean, Mrs. Raymond Tremaine, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. James McCarthy Rounds, Mrs. Robert Langley, Mrs. William Miles, Mrs. John Melville Hull, Mrs. Elmo York, Mrs. Garnet Cecil Rainey, Mrs. Mark Finley, Mrs. Glendon Tremaine, Mrs. Hugh Sutherland, Mrs. Ralph Starkweather, Mrs. Fred Nason, Mrs. George Elkins, Mrs. Edgar Heintz, Mrs. Harrison Lepke, Miss Elizabeth Von KleinSmid, Mrs. Frederick Richman, Miss Harriet Andrews, Miss Marion Gaffney, Miss Winnifred Huntington, Miss Ella Sandberg and the hostess. After luncheon bridge tables will be arranged in the Oak Room.

Birthday Party

Celebrating the nineteenth birthday anniversary of her charming young daughter, Miss Eleanor Edwards, who has just returned home after a year at the Finch School in New York, Mrs. Lillian Perry Edwards of 7336 Hollywood Boulevard gave a smart dinner-dance at the Biltmore Friday evening. Miss Edwards, who was graduated two years ago from Marlborough School, and passed a year traveling abroad with her mother, is one of the most attractive debutantes of the season. Those included were Miss Louise Little, Miss Catherine Toberman, Miss Daisy Parsons, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Maet Margaret Fairbanks, Miss Flobelle Fairbanks, Miss Verabelle McCartney, Miss Betty Edwards, Miss Elinore Burkhard, Miss Edwina Hough, Miss Betty Montgomery, Miss Eleanor Roberts, Miss Jane Bumiller; Miss Flora Hollingsworth, Miss Martha Woodin, Miss Burton Greene, Miss Laura Ann Lisk, Miss Cornelia Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrington and Jack Crass, Richard Grant, Dan Chandler, Charles Thorsen, Joe Sutphen, Tex Price, Gail Burke, Warren Johnson, Bud Eichelberger, Giggins Sword, William Armistead, Hyde Braly, Stanley Mullins, Homer Burnaby, Jess Hibber, Tracey Johnson, Guy Young, Winston Fuller, Snooky Ogden, Russ Clark, Walter Hemple and the honor guest.

Smart Affair

Mmes. Clyde Curtis and William Wallis were hostesses Saturday with a bon voyage bridge party and shower in honor of Miss Mildred Wagner of North Ardmore avenue, who is sailing this month for the Orient. Decorations were in oriental motif and the hostesses received in costume. Bridge tallies were tiny passports. Prizes, which were oriental, were presented in small suit cases and the honoree's shower gifts—hosiery and handkerchiefs—were presented in a small trunk. Those included were Mmes. Clyde Jordan, William Bell, Gladys Thompson, Paul Ament, Larry Givens, Ray Stair, Clyde Curtis, William Wallis and the Misses Carolyn Wagner, Mildred Wagner, Claudia Erickson, Vena and Vera Hollingshead, Esther Sherrif, Eleanor Barry, Cynthalice Diggs, Elizabeth Brinkerhoff and Warren Sheley.

Refreshments and its service were in oriental fashion.

Home in the Fall

After a honeymoon in Honolulu Mr. and Mrs. Lennon Marshall Duntley will return in the fall to make their home here. Mrs. Duntley, formerly Miss Marie Louise Davenport, is the daughter of Mrs. Pauline Davenport, while Mr. Duntley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Duntley. The wedding took place last Tuesday at St. Matthias Church, with Rev. Irving Spencer officiating. An informal reception at the church followed the ceremony, after which there was a wedding supper for the bridal party and immediate relatives. Miss Daisy Davenport was maid of honor, Mrs. Richard Marchman, matron of honor, and Misses Bettie King and Ted Mitchell, bridesmaids. Mr. Marchman served as best man and Robert Duntley, Ernest Clark Simpson and Chester Smither ushered. Mrs. Duntley attended U.C.L.A. and is a member of Alpha Phi Sorority.

Rookie Fireman Falls to Death From Tower

Theodore C. Craig, 29-year-old rookie fireman, lost his life yesterday in the line of duty.

With a number of other student firemen Craig was on the fifth floor of the training tower at San Fernando Road and Pasadena avenue, going through a course intended to accustom the rookies to altitude in fire fighting. In stepping about a corner his foot slipped and he fell five stories. Death was instantaneous.

Craig was appointed to the fire department September 1, 1929, and was assigned to Engine Company No. 36 at the San Pedro City Hall. He lived at 1465 West Two Hundred and Eighteenth street. He was unmarried.

Key Disclosure Recited by Wife in Divorce Suit

When Mrs. Zelma Clark found a strange key in the pocket of her husband, Joseph Clark, garage owner, she suspected that it might unlock the apartment of one Minnie Young, she testified at her divorce trial yesterday. On a previous occasion, she said, she had found her husband in Minnie's room with his necktie off.

So Mrs. Clark took the key and entered the apartment of Miss Young and, she told Superior Judge Schauer, there was her husband's dressing robe and other personal effects.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

SOFT CUSTARD

One and one-half cupfuls of milk, one-half tablespoonful of cornstarch, the yolks of two eggs, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, a few grains of salt, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. Scald one and one-fourth cupfuls of the milk, mix the cornstarch with the remainder of the cold milk, and gradually stir it in with the scalded milk. Stir and cook slowly for ten minutes. Beat the egg yolks slightly add the sugar and salt to them, and gradually pour it into the hot mixture. Stir and cook until the mixture forms a coating on the spoon. Strain, add the vanilla and chill.

CUCUMBER DEL MONICO

Select two or more cucumbers of an even size. Pare them, and cut them in quarters lengthwise, and if necessary remove some of the seeds. Saute the cucumbers in two tablespoonfuls of butter until transparent, but not brown. Make a white sauce, add the cucumbers to this and allow to simmer slowly until tender. Beat one egg slightly, add a little of the hot sauce to it and one teaspoonful of lemon juice. Pour it slowly into the mixture, being careful not to break the cucumbers, add a half-teaspoonful of finely chopped parsley. Pour the mixture over toast point, and serve.

BANANA GINGER BREAD SHORTCAKE

One-fourth of a cupful of shortening, one-fourth of a cupful of brown sugar, one and one-fourth cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of ginger, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoonful of mace, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one-half cupful of molasses, two eggs, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda, one-half cupful of milk. Cream the shortening, add the sugar, beat in the molasses, and the well-beaten eggs. Sift the flour, spices, salt, and soda together. Add alternately with the milk. Pour into a long baking pan, that has been oiled and floured, and bake in a moderate oven. When cool, cut in squares, split, and lay on top of the bottom square several slices of banana, and thin slices of marshmallow. Cover with the other piece of ginger bread, and serve garnished with whipped cream.

CORN AND CRAB SOUFFLE

Mix one and one-half cupfuls of scalded milk, with two cupfuls of cooked corn, three-fourths of a cupful of very fine stale bread crumbs, one cupful of grated cheese, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, two tablespoonfuls of chopped green peppers, one-half a teaspoonful of salt, a seasoning of white pepper, and the well-beaten yolks of three eggs. Place half of this mixture in a well-oiled baking dish, place on top of it one cupful of finely shredded crab meat, then pour over it the balance of the corn mixture. Sprinkle over the top with fine bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter, set in a pan of water and bake from twenty-five to thirty minutes.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Health and Diet Advice

YOUR OTHER SKIN

Recently in some articles I told you something about the functions of the skin on the outside of the body. There is yet another skin which lines all of the passages which communicate with the outside. For this reason, although inside, it is still outside of you. If you look inside of your mouth you can see a kind of red skin lining the whole interior of the mouth. This is joined to the outside skin at the lips, and this is the reason that the lips are red instead of pink.

This inside skin is called mucous membrane. It is a true skin which in your embryonic stage became folded in to line all of the inside tubes which communicate directly with the outside. The mucous membrane which you see in your mouth is continuous with the lining all through your digestive tract.

The three tracts in the body which are lined with this particular kind of membrane are the digestive tract, the urinary tract, and the respiratory tract. The skin on the outside must conserve moisture. For this reason it is dry, but the mucus membrane has an opposite characteristic. It is always kept moist by small mucous glands which occur at regular intervals and are made of cells like little goblets. The secretion of these cells keeps the undercovering moist, soft and smooth, and lubricated normally.

In the mucous membrane at the back of the tongue are imbedded the taste buds. In the same membrane of the nose occur the olefactory nerves of smell, which are the only nerves in the body to end freely on a surface open to the outside. The mucous membrane of the nose and throat warms and moistens the inside air to prepare it for the delicate lung tissue.

In the eye, the tear ducts are lined with mucus membrane. When these membranes swell up the eye waters and turns red. The mucous membranes of the throat have fine hair-like processes called cilia. These when seen under a microscope move with a wave-like motion to brush out dust and stray pieces of dirt which have passed into the breathing passages. The waving is accompanied by an increase in mucus so that the mucus will help wash the offender away.

In the stomach or intestines the mucous membranes also contain glands which secrete the digestive juices as well as the glands for secreting mucus. When the stomach is irritated the tiny goblet cells throw off too much mucus, and there is an underproduction of gastric juices, so that the stomach may be filled with a slimy film. Such a condition of stomach nearly always accompanies a poor digestion.

The mucous membrane of the small intestine is intensely interesting. The lining is so arranged that it presents a surprisingly large surface. The outer surface presents a velvety appearance like the pile on velvet. This arises from the tiny finger-shaped projections which stick up on the surface just as the nap sticks up on a bath towel. These projections are called villi, and just as a bath towel absorbs moisture quickly, so do the villi. The villi in man correspond exactly to the small roots on a tree which suck up moisture and food, for it is the purpose of the villi to suck up fluids from the intestines. In this way man can be said to carry his roots with him. The colon does not contain any of these villi in its mucous membrane, but a small amount of mucus is produced to assist in passing along the solid feces. If there is not enough moisture produced, the patient is invariably constipated. When the membrane becomes inflamed it produces an excess of mucus, a condition which is termed mucous colitis.

PROTESTS TURNED DOWN

Protests against the improvement of streets in the Twenty-third street and Olive street district were denied yesterday by the City Council. Assessments were confirmed for the improvement of Zelzah avenue from Margate avenue to Ventura Boulevard and for the improvement of Darby avenue from Saticoy street to Valerio street.

BAD-CHECK ORGY LAID TO BEVILL

Almost $15,000 Said to Have Been Procured from Stores by ex-Convict

Distribution of more than 1000 spurious pay-roll checks, aggregating nearly $15,000, to merchants throughout Southern California was accomplished by Buster B. Bevill, 28-year-old escaped convict, before he fell into the hands of police Saturday, according to Detective Lieutenants Jones and Greetan of the central automobile-thief squad.

Bevill is being held in the City Jail on a charge of forgery, grand theft of an automobile and as an escaped convict from the Texas State penitentiary at Huntsville.

The checks he obtained from offices such as the Goodrich Welding Company at 3150 Naomi street, and Industrial Welding Company of Vernon. Then, donning working clothes and using such aliases as Jimmy Lane, M. T. Moore and R. B. Burk, he would cash the checks for purchases of merchandise, the detectives say.

Bevill gave his local address as 1700 West Jefferson street. Police records show he escaped from the Texas prison February 6, 1927.

PETER WASTES SYMPATHY

Peter Rabbit was sorry for Jerry Muskrat. Grandfather Frog had just informed Peter that Jerry's house in the Smiling Pool had been washed away in the spring flood. Peter had always admired that house. He had always wondered that anyone could build such a good house. Now, to find that that house was gone was something of a shock to Peter. Peter had said that it was too bad that Jerry Muskrat hadn't any home and Grandfather Frog had demanded to know who had said that Jerry had no home.

"Didn't you just tell me that Jerry's house was washed away?" Peter asked.

"Chug-a-rum! Of course, I did!" replied Grandfather Frog.

"Well, isn't that just the same as telling me that Jerry hasn't any home?" demanded Peter.

"It isn't the same thing at all. Chug-a-rum! It isn't the same thing at all," retorted Grandfather Frog. "I have never asked him, but I know well enough that Jerry Muskrat has another home."

"Where?" demanded Peter.

"Didn't I just tell you that I have never asked him?" said Grandfather Frog crossly. "It is no business of mine where Jerry Muskrat's home is. I don't know where it is and I don't want to know where it is. But I do know that he has one."

Just then Jerry Muskrat himself appeared in that abrupt way of his. He wasn't there and then he was there, right below where Peter was sitting. You see, he had come there under water and Peter hadn't seen him until suddenly he poked his head out of water. "Hello, Peter!" said Jerry.

"Hello, your own self!" replied Peter. "Oh, Jerry, I'm so sorry!"

Jerry blinked, as if he didn't understand. "What are you sorry for?" he asked.

"I'm sorry for you," replied Peter. "I'm every so sorry for you."

Jerry Muskrat blinked more than ever. "That's nice of you, Peter," said he, "but I'm not sorry for myself, so I don't quite see why you are sorry for me."

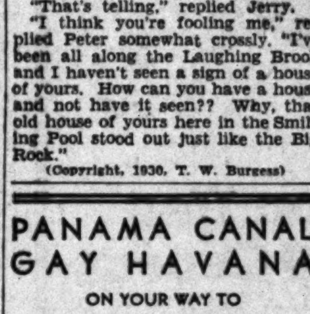
"I'm sorry that you haven't any home," said Peter.

"Oh!" exclaimed Jerry. "What makes you think I haven't any home?"

"It was swept away in the spring flood, wasn't it?" inquired Peter in his turn.

"No," replied Jerry, and his eyes twinkled.

Peter's eyes flew open very wide. "Grandfather Frog says it was, and it isn't here any more," said he.



"Where is it?" demanded Peter. "Is it up the Laughing Brook?"

"Oh!" said Jerry, pretending that he was just beginning to understand. "You must mean my old house. That was swept away in the spring flood. But a house isn't necessarily a home. I've still got a home and a very good one, so you don't need to be sorry for me."

"Where is it?" demanded Peter. "Is it up the Laughing Brook?"

"That's telling," replied Jerry.

"I think you're fooling me," replied Peter somewhat crossly. "I've been all along the Laughing Brook and I haven't seen a sign of a house of yours. How can you have a house and not have it seen?? Why, that old house of yours here in the Smiling Pool stood out just like the Big Rock."

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

PREPARING BABY'S VEGETABLES NEEDN'T BE A NUISANCE

Preparing vegetables of which the small child takes only a few spoonfuls is always regarded as a nuisance. Perhaps some of this annoyance is the direct result of the daily feeding of carrots and spinach, which the mother feels are the only safe vegetables for baby, and which the rest of the family can't be wheedled to eat more than once weekly.

There are so many vegetables that baby can enjoy, and it is taken for granted that the family will have one or two fresh or canned vegetables daily, that these vegetable feedings need not be so much extra labor.

Small portions of the vegetables cooked for the family can be taken out and run through a sieve and seasoned for baby. Sieved vegetables and vegetable soups just for babies are now sold by leading dealers everywhere. They are carefully prepared and unseasoned, so that one has only to open a tiny glass jar or can and there you are.

KEEP ICE COLD

Even these may be too much for one feeding, so they should be divided in equal parts, the remainder kept in the glass jar right on ice and brought to a boil the next day before serving. In a very cold ice box the vegetables or soup could last for three days. Be sure your ice box is very cold. Some of them are just cool.

Mrs. R. E. Q. suggests a way in which she has managed this vegetable feeding. "In order to have daily vegetable feedings for the baby," she says, "I sterilized two small glass jars. I cook two vegetables daily and put them in the sterilized jars. These I keep on ice and when needed I put the vegetables in a ramekin and heat them in the oven. Thus baby can have the same vegetables on Monday and Wednesday with no extra trouble."

Carrots and spinach are excellent vegetables, but even baby gets tired of them and there is no reason why he shouldn't enjoy many others. Peas, green string beans, squash, beets, asparagus, cauliflower and tomatoes are all stimulating to baby's taste and will be eaten with relish.

HOW DO YOU COOK THEM?

The way in which vegetables are cooked makes them palatable or tasteless. To cook vegetables in seas of water and then drain the water into the sink is to leave a tasteless, soggy, colorless mass of cellulose behind with all the valuable mineral salts nourishing the drain and not the baby. Steaming vegetables is the best possible method, and next best is to cook them over a low fire with the tiniest bit of water in a tightly covered vessel. Then the juices can be incorporated into the sauce and served over them.

If large chunks of vegetables are seen in baby's stool, they need more thorough cooking. To find small traces in the stool is natural. This indigestible portion is the "bulk" for which vegetables are in part valuable.

WIFE WILL AGAIN FACE SHARP QUIZ

Mrs. Harry Langdon Due to Resume Testimony in Case on Notes Today

Another ordeal faces Mrs. Helen Langdon, wife of Harry Langdon, film comedian, when she resumes testimony today in Superior Judge Blake's court, as her husband's star witness against her former spouse, Thomas J. O'Brien, who is suing the actor on three promissory notes aggregating $11,500.

Mrs. Langdon is scheduled to be cross-examined by Bayard R. Rountree, attorney for O'Brien. Thursday and Friday, Mrs. Langdon was on the verge of collapse several times.

The suit in reality is one for damages directed against the comedian, asserting he stole the love and affections of O'Brien's wife.

Two notes for $5000 and one for $1500, together with $15,000 cash were given, Langdon asserts, in a settlement to prevent O'Brien from instituting a $250,000 heart-balm action. The notes never were paid. Langdon set up that he made the agreement in order to avoid the notoriety of such a suit, and also to aid Mrs. O'Brien and her little daughter, Virginia.

KINNEY IRON WORKS WILL MOVE TODAY

Expansion Necessitated by Demand for Products From Industrial Plants

Keeping pace with the city's remarkable industrial growth, the Kinney Iron Works, one of the oldest foundries in Southern California, today will move to its new quarters recently completed by the Consolidated Steel Corporation. The new plant, covering two acres, is located on Forty-ninth street between Santa Fe avenue and Pacific Boulevard, and gives Los Angeles one of the largest and most modern iron foundries in the West.

Wendell H. Kinney, president of the Kinney concern, said the new plant was made necessary to take care of unfilled orders caused by the unprecedented expansion of industrial Los Angeles.

As a stimulus to home industry and local prosperity Los Angeles-made products were used wherever possible in the construction of the new buildings. It is expected the plant will be running at maximum capacity within two weeks. Officers of the concern are Wendell H. Kinney, president and general manager; Roland T. Kinney, vice-president, and Steward Holt, secretary.

Historic Home Razed to Get Golfing Site

An historic home around which much social and political life of Los Angeles circulated in the "late seventies" was torn down yesterday. It had been the home of Judge H. C. Austin at 3118 South Figueroa street, and was built in 1875.

The home was frame and had twenty rooms. At the time of the construction of the first unit the location was considered "way out of town."

On the site of the home, which comprised more than three acres, will be built a miniature golf course with eighteen holes. The property still remains in the hands of heirs of Judge Austin, although they moved from the old mansion ten years ago.

WIFE GRANTED DIVORCE

Her husband would strip his bed of blankets and carry them away, announcing he was going to see his sweetheart, Mrs. Bertha Selson complained yesterday in her suit for divorce from Walter H. Selson. Superior Judge Warne granted her a decree.

THIS SHOE DOES NO WALKING

Luck Omen Shunted About Globe

Treva Faust and the Traveling Foot Gear

AFTER journeying more than 20,000 miles in steamship holds and railway baggage cars the most traveled baby shoe in the world arrived in Los Angeles yesterday on the Southern Pacific Limited from El Paso.

The shoe left Hilo, Hawaii, early in February, bound for Honolulu. Tags attached to the shoe record each State of its pilgrimage, and indicate that after arriving at San Francisco February 24, the shoe four days later was unloaded at Jersey City en route for New York.

Los Angeles is the fifty-eighth city visited by the shoe, which eventually will be returned to the mid-Pacific island town of Hilo.

"But," says A. V. Anderson, local baggage agent for the Southern Pacific, "there's no telling when the footgear will complete its wanderings. It quite possibly will travel a quarter of a million miles during the next year or so before returning to its unknown owner. There's something superstitious about a thing of this kind, something like a chain letter, and most railroaders would hesitate to interfere with its further progress."

BATTLE FLEET TO BE ON MOVE

Summer Movement Schedule Announced

Ships Will Shuttle in and Out of Harbor

Reassemble September 1 for Gunnery Drill

The local base will be a veritable clearinghouse for the battle fleet this season, which, under the movement schedule just released, will be shuttling in and out of Los Angeles Harbor in small forces or ship by ship all summer. After the regular summer cruise on Puget Sound, which the fleet will make this year in reduced numbers, it will return to this base on September 1, to remain here for gunnery and tactical training until January 29, 1931, when the armada will depart for Panama for the annual maneuvers of the combined United States Fleet, to be held entirely in the Pacific.

ARRIVAL DATES

Short facilities are being made ready for the arrival here on the 20th inst. of the vanguard of the fleet, returning from the 15,000-mile Caribbean-New York cruise. The ships due on that date include the fleet flagship California, flying the flag of the commander-in-chief, Admiral Frank H. Schofield, the battleships West Virginia, Tennessee and New Mexico; the train flagship Procyon, the tankers Cuyama and Neches, the hospital ship Relief and the minesweepers Brant and Tern. On the 25th inst. the battleships Maryland, Oklahoma and Nevada and the aircraft-carrier Saratoga are due.

The annual northward migration for the Fourth of July visits will begin on the 29th inst., when the Maryland and Oklahoma get under way for Seattle, where they are due July 3. The New Mexico and Nevada will sail on the same date for Tacoma, also reaching the Puget Sound port on July 3. The California and Tennessee will depart on July 1, the Tennessee spending Independence Day at Monterey after interim docking at Hunter's Point, while Oakland will be the California's holiday port.

DELAYED IN EAST

The battleship West Virginia will remain here until July 20 before sailing for the north, while the Tennessee will return from Monterey on July 6, remaining at the local base until July 29, when she will sail for Seattle, rejoining the fleet there on August 2. All three aircraft carriers, the Saratoga, Lexington and Langley, with their tenders and plane guard, will spend the summer in the San Pedro-San Diego area for tactical training of their air squadrons. The battleships Mississippi and Colorado, delayed on the east coast, will not return to this base until August.

LEACH AND HURLBURT WIN APPEAL

Retrial Granted on Grand Theft Charges Growing Out of Land Purchase

Division One, District Court of Appeal, yesterday granted Martin A. Leach and Frank Hurlburt new trials on grand-theft charges that grew out of a San Diego real-estate operation. Three hundred and twenty acres of land, bought by Leach in 1925 for $9,600,000, figured in the transactions that led to the charges.

Leach was granted a new trial on nine counts and Hurlburt on one count. The decision upheld the trial court's judgment on fourteen counts of which Leach had been found guilty of violating the Corporate Securities Act and on three counts of grand theft.

Leach and Hurlburt are two of twenty-seven persons originally accused in the courts. Eight of the accused persons were not arrested; cases against thirteen of the defendants were dismissed and four defendants were acquitted. Trial took place before Superior Judge Shaw.

The opinion was written by Justice Pro Tem Elliot Craig, Presiding Justice Conrey and Justice Houser concurring.

DR. SMITH ELECTED PRESBYTERIANS' HEAD

Dr. Theodore Smith, pastor of Angeles Mesa Presbyterian Church, was elected president of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association at the annual business meeting yesterday at the Bible Institute. Other officers elected were: Dr. Charles Clark, vice-president; Dr. A. D. McConnell, secretary-treasurer, and Rev. Henry Quickenden, chairman of the program committee. The association adjourned to resume meetings next fall.

Leslie R. Tarr, Candidate for State Assembly

Leslie R. Tarr, Glendale lawyer, formerly Deputy County Counsel in charge of street acquisition proceedings, today filed his declaration as a candidate for the Republican nomination to the State Assembly from the Fifty-first District, which includes Glendale, Burbank, North Hollywood and La Crescenta, San Fernando and Antelope valleys. Accompanying the declaration the required sponsors' certificate containing the indorsement of leading business and professional men and women of the district, also was filed.

In the brief statement permitted candidates, Mr. Tarr mentions that he considers his seven years' experience in the offices of the City Attorney of Glendale and the Los Angeles County Counsel to have qualified him for the work in the Legislature.

Besides being a member of Glendale Post of the American Legion, Mr. Tarr is a Thirty-second-Degree Mason, a Shriner, and a member of the Elks' Lodge. He was born in California and has lived more than twenty years in the district he seeks to serve.

Bandits Given Long Terms in Folsom Prison

Each convicted on two counts of first-degree robbery, Daniel D. Farrell and George Gourdin yesterday were sentenced to Folsom prison for terms of seven years to life by Superior Judge Schauer.

The defendants were convicted of robbing Robert M. Payne of 4798 Alhambra avenue and his companion, Miss Alice Pryor, of $10 cash and a watch valued at $25; and W. E. Taylor, service-station operator of 928 South Boyle avenue, of $15.

TEACHERS OVERWORKED? SURVEY SOON TO SHOW

Whether teachers of Los Angeles schools are overburdened with outside work or whether tasks are unevenly distributed, making it necessary for some to spend a greater amount of time than others in nonteaching activities will be revealed when results of an activity survey of the City Teachers' Club is completed by Prof. G. Vernon Bennett and O. R. Hull of the school of education, University of Southern California, the preliminary report of which appears in the June issue of the Los Angeles City Teachers' Club Bulletin.

Including one representative from each elementary school in the city school district, 300 teachers aided the survey steering committee composed of five members of the Teachers' Club, namely Miss Cora Beardsley, Miss Agnes Chelson, Miss Helen Lord, Mrs. George B. Parsons ex-officio, and Mrs. Kathleen Stevens, chairman, who helped to gather and compute statistics for the study. Nearly 2000 teachers filled out the questionnaires.

It is disclosed that teachers in small neighborhood schools spend nearly twice as much time in committee meetings as do those in semi-neighborhood schools.

Some special nonteaching duties enumerated are visits to homes of pupils, departmental meetings, committee work, rendering first aid, weighing and measuring pupils, arranging exhibits, glee club work, directing plays and programs, cafeteria duty, arranging class excursions, consultations with school nurse, attending institutes, doing welfare work among poor pupils, P.-T.A. activities, library co-operation, hall duty, yard duty, flag duty, school physician co-operation, clinic appointments, in addition to clerical work incidental to reports, grades, attendance, transfers and other necessary school records.

The preliminary report shows that in small schools (those under 400 enrollment) 85 per cent reported time spent in health matters.

A complete analysis is expected to be ready early in July, according to Prof. Bennett. At that time the educators will present conclusions and make recommendations.

Pastor's Son to be Wed at Garden Fete

Hugh K. Walker, Jr., and Miss Maybell Claire Howard will be married Saturday afternoon at a garden wedding at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Stoddard, Beverly Hills, it was announced yesterday following their filing of notice to wed.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Walker, and has long been identified with the business circles of Los Angeles. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Howard. She came to Los Angeles six years ago with her parents. She is a graduate of Washburn College. The legal notice gave the bridegroom's age as 42 and that of his fiancee as 31.

Mab Lineman Gets in Race

Mab Copeland Lineman, woman attorney, yesterday entered the political lists as a candidate for Assembly from the Sixty-fourth District. Opposing her is Harry Lyons, incumbent Assemblyman.

The boundaries of the district are Vermont avenue on the west, Hill street on the east, Seventh street on the south and Santa Monica, Sunset and Glendale boulevards and Temple street on the north.

TRIO ARRAIGNED ON GRAND THEFT

Ex-Constable Amend and Two Others Accused

'Fixing' Fraud Case Hearing Set for July 16

All Released Meanwhile on Own Recognizance

Harry Amend, former Inglewood Constable; J. C. Campiglia and Carl Mitz, charged with grand theft of $1000 in an asserted case "fixing" fraud, were arraigned yesterday before Municipal Judge Ballard, who set their preliminary hearing for July 16, next.

The three are accused of obtaining the money from Mrs. Fern Strauss of 1231 South Olive street under promises of using it to "fix" a drunk-driving charge which had been placed against her son.

Investigators assert that $250 of the sum was deposited as bail, which was forfeited when the youth did not appear. The case then was dropped.

Another complaint against Amend which charged him with misappropriating public funds was ordered dismissed by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Moses following the arraignment of the defendants. All were released under their own recognizance.

HERR DOKTER DISCOVERS ROMANCE OF EDEN PALLS

Romance in the raw is rather more raw than romance for Herr Dokter Ritter, German scientist, who with his affinity, Frau Dorn, ran away and is living close to nature on a Galapagos island off Ecuador.

At least that is the report of C. S. Howard, of San Francisco, head of the Howard Automobile Company. Howard is here after stopping at Galapagos Islands on a sixty-six-day voyage from Florida on his newly purchased 167foot yacht Sarah, on which he will continue to San Francisco today.

"The doctor and frau were rather scantily clad when we first saw them but they donned other garments to greet us," he explained. "They were so excited to see us they were almost irrational in their joy.

"I asked the doctor if they planned to return to civilization. 'Well, maybe, but she says "No, never!"' he replied. So I guess the doctor, at least, is kind of tiring of the primitive life and of his dictum of denying himself all food but fruit. He wears long hair and thinks himself inspired, but you can find a lot of folks like that without leaving California."

Howard and his half-dozen guests acquired numerous pets on their voyage, including great pink flamingos, some of which he will offer the Wrigley bird farm at Avalon today, en route up the coast.

COURT UPHOLDS ROAD FEE

Test Suit Clears Many Cases Involving Large Sum for 1923 Transportation Licenses

Right of the State to collect license fees for the year 1923 as provided by the Four Per Cent Gross Receipts Highway Transportation Act is upheld by the State Supreme Court in a decision just handed down in the case of the Los Angeles and West Side Transportation Company against the Superior Court, of Sacramento county.

More than 100 cases pending in Superior Court in Sacramento county and involving a large sum in unpaid licenses are said to depend upon the decision of the high tribunal in the instant case. The decision authorizes the State to proceed to trial to collect the unpaid fees.

The transportation company, and a number of other bus concerns in amicus curiae briefs, contended that the Superior Court had been divested of jurisdiction to entertain the cause by reason of the repeal of the measure under which it was attempted to collect the fees. The repealing measure became effective January 1, 1928, and it contained no express saving clause or provision reserving unto the State the right to collect the fees accrued at the time of its passage.

ACTRESS BECOMES PHYSICIAN'S BRIDE

Patsy O'Day

Three years ago Patsy O'Day, motion-picture actress, went to the office of Dr. Clement J. Joynt to visit his nurse, who is her close friend. The nurse introduced her to Dr. Joynt, and yesterday Miss O'Day, 19 years of age, and Dr. Joynt were married by Father Laezelle of the St. Vincent's Church.

Frank Flynn, Hollywood business man, was best man, and Florence Hall served the bride. The bridesmaids were Irene Alloway, Laurie Sherman, Mary Maylor and Irene Truxler.

Miss O'Day, well known in Hollywood, is a daughter of Mrs. Mary La Grange, 913 1-2 North Genesee street. Dr. Joynt, who is 28, resides at the Virginia Lee Apartments, Kenmore avenue.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a motor trip through the north, stopping first at Santa Barbara.

Body Discovered After Friend Gets Message Via Special Delivery

Jules Neufeld, 56 years of age, retired business man and reputed owner of extensive property holdings in and about Los Angeles, ended his life yesterday, according to a police report, by shooting himself through the heart in his home at Hidden Oak and Chapman drives, Sunland. The body was found by valley division officers who went to the house when Frank Heron of 6000 Santa Monica Boulevard notified them he had just received a special-delivery letter from Neufeld in which the latter stated he intended taking his life.

Notes left by Neufeld indicate he had brooded over the recent death of his wife, together with heavy assessments levied on his real estate.

THIRD EFFORT TO DIE SUCCEEDS

Life had lost its savor for Henry Zucker, Sr. He was 70 years of age and ill. Twice before he had tried to die, according to the police, and yesterday at 937½ East Tenth street he succeeded.

Zucker, formerly a druggist, attached a rope to the door knob on the outside, brought it over the top, stood on a chair, adjusted the noose about his neck and, when ready, kicked the chair away.

His son, Henry Zucker, Jr., found the body, which was removed to the County Morgue.

NEIGHBORS FIND BODY OF ASPHYXIATION VICTIM

Neighbors of Miss Margaret Pattison, 40 years of age, living alone at 326½ West Sixty-third street, broke into her home yesterday and discovered her lying on the bathroom floor, the room filled with fumes from an open gas jet.

Two notes were beside the body. One requested that her sister, Mrs. Frank Hetherington of 354 North Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, be notified. The other note asked divine forgiveness and stated, "I am tired of it all." Despondency over ill health is ascribed by police as the motive.

HIDING OF PROPERTY ASSERTED

Mrs. Lilla May Ford Says Husband Has Concealed Stock Worth $100,000

Concealment of $100,000 in stock, which she asserts is part of community property, was asserted by Mrs. Lilla May Ford in her suit for separate maintenance in which she names B. F. Ford, George Helm and Kristina Castonquay as defendants. The case went on trial before Superior Judge Hazlett yesterday.

Mrs. Ford sets forth that she and Ford were married August 10, 1898, and separated March 1, 1929, following her asserted discovery of undue intimacy between her husband and Kristina Castonquay, who spells her name Christianna in her denial.

Asking for all community property, the wife asserts that Ford threatened to hide or dispose of corporate stock of the Hollywood Paving Company and that he disposed of 300 shares, which she values at $100,000, to George Helm, president of the company, for $30,000. The plaintiff avers that this was not a bona fide sale but was made to deprive her of her interest. She asks that the stock sold Helm be adjudged community property.

Helm put in an answer in which he asserts that the sale was bona fide and that he bought 267 shares for $30,000.

Richard Kittrelle is attorney for the plaintiff.

AUDITORIUM'S PLANS PUSHED

J. A. Wigmore, Sponsor of Project, in City

Drawings Expected to be Completed Soon

Survey in East Completed by Trio at Helm

J. A. Wigmore, sponsor of the Los Angeles Garden, the city's auditorium, hotel and office building project for Seventh street near Bixel, arrived here yesterday to confer with Architect Claude Beelman on the preparation of plans.

Mr. Wigmore and Beelman, with Waldo Tupper, who has leased the auditorium portion of the three-unit group of buildings, have just concluded an extended tour of eastern cities visiting similar projects of all kinds with a view to combining the best features in the Los Angeles venture.

"In our trip we found a deplorable situation," Mr. Wigmore declared. "Auditoriums suitable for conventions are inadequate for trade displays. In most instances this is due to low ceiling heights, poor ventilation and inability to get large exhibits within the building.

"We hope to eliminate these obstacles in the Los Angeles Garden and make it flexible in character so that conventions, sporting events and displays of all kinds may be accommodated. I will remain in the city until final estimates on construction costs are prepared and plans for the project are well under way. Richard T. St. John, realty operator, and Clyde R. Burr, attorney, will represent me during periods of absence from the city."

Mr. Wigmore expects that drawings for the three buildings which involve an expenditure of approximately $12,000,000 will be ready in time for actual construction work to be under way by September.

The hotel will rise limit-height on Seventh street near Bixel, the office structure facing Eighth street in the same area and the auditorium and exhibition hall which will be known as the Los Angeles Garden will be located between them.

EISENSTEIN ARRIVES FOR FILM WORK

Russian Director Plans to Put Mass Movement on Talking Screen

Classifying America as a great, homelike, friendly, open nation, Sergei M. Eisenstein, Russian director, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday on his first visit to this country. He is to direct for Paramount Publix and plans to bring to the talking screen the mass movement which characterized such of his silent screen works as "Potemkin," "Ten Days that Shook the World" and "New and Old."

SERGEI M. EISENSTEIN.

The 32-year-old director says his visit to America is the realization of a dream which he has had since a youth.

"Every continental boy dreams of going to America," he says. "As youngsters, we begin by putting feathers in our hats and playing Indian. At maturity we are excited about Thomas Edison and big technical questions. You don't know what it means to be here. Every day I've been in America I've run around like a small boy at a circus, seeing wonderful things."

Eisenstein could not say much about his first American picture since the subject is undecided. But he is certain it will have a mass movement and achieve a new style. Of one thing he is definite—it will not be a story built on sex appeal.

The director speaks, besides his native Russian, English, Japanese, French and German fluently. He learned to speak and read English while mingling with British troops during the World War.

Elks Will Have Their Flag Day Rites Tomorrow

MARSHALL F. McCOMB

This tribute to the Stars and Stripes commemorates the completion of America's first Old Glory by Betsy Ross 153 years ago.

The program is in charge of Judge Marshall F. McComb, Esteemed Loyal Knight. Special musical features have been arranged with Sibley G. Pease, resident organist, at the console.

Dr. Wallace Williams will give the address of the evening.

Child Will Go to Neutral Home

The 7-year-old child of Mrs. Veoda Westmore and Ernest Westmore, make-up artist at a local film studio, will be placed in a neutral home, according to a decision of Superior Judge Westover after a hearing yesterday.

Westmore must pay $75 a week for the support of the child, and must make up $1400 back alimony, the court directed.

RAPID RISE IN BUSINESS PREDICTED

Lievstock Concern's Head Here from Chicago, Sights Definite Improvements

Accelerated business is certain for the balance of the current year, Charles O. Robinson, president of Charles O. Robinson & Co., livestock commission concern of Chicago, St. Paul and Omaha, promised on arrival yesterday on the Los Angeles Limited.

"Even though American business has reached the bottom at present and there must be a natural upturn, all the factors point to definite improvement," Mr. Robinson said. "The railroads operating into Chicago are prepared to spend $214,000,000 in improvements, shipping has opened up and is on the increase on the Great Lakes, bumper crop production is forecast and increased employment is demonstrated by the recent action of Pennsylvania coal operators in putting 28,000 men to work.

"Cattle producers are particularly encouraged, as shown me when I attended a live-stock meeting in Montana and Nebraska.

"I admit being an optimist, but I do not see anything else but betterments in business. Business leaders are meeting their promises to President Hoover of industrial expansion and all things considered, things should get better and better from now on."

Mr. Robinson will visit his sisters, Mrs. J. B. Wright and Mrs. Catherine Weaver, 639½ South Serrano street.

BARBEE BOUGHT BY HOLLYWOOD

Sheiks Get Big Outfielder from Seattle Club

Stars and Missions to Open Series Here Today

Angels and Seals to Clash in San Francisco

BY BOB RAY

DAVE BARBEE

Dave Barbee, who was introduced in the Pacific Coast League a couple or three years ago by Thomas "Talk" Turner, boss of the Portland Ducks, as a guy who "hits 'em from town to town," yesterday became the property of the Hollywood Stars. Uncle Willyum Lane, head man of the Sheiks, purchased Barbee from the Seattle Indians to strengthen the Hollywood outfield and Dave will arrive here in time for action tomorrow.

The Stars will this afternoon open a seven-game series at Wrigley Field against the Mission Reds. The Sheiks and Reds put on their act in San Francisco last week and are going to do an encore for the local baseball populace. The Reds won the odd game but Skipper Vitt's outfit figures to bump the heavy-hitting Mission outfit in the local orchard, wherever that might be.

Vitt believes that Barbee will give the Sheiks enough help to make them dangerous in the second half, as well as the rest of the way in this first half. Barbee hasn't been playing regularly with the Indians, but he has an average of .304. Big Dave always has hit plenty of home runs at Wrigley Field and Vitt is going to give him plenty of opportunity to do his stuff for the Sheiks.

SLUGGING OUTFIELDER OF THE PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS, WHO IS THE GREATEST PLAYER IN BASEBALL TODAY ACCORDING TO MANY CRITICS.

Metropolitan Newspaper Service

MANY American League managers lay awake at night worrying about the big bat of Al Simmons, most-talked-of player in the younger circuit at this writing, and perhaps the greatest player in baseball today. At any rate, that's what Dan Hawley, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is reported to have called the Athletic slugger, and many other smart baseball men have the same opinion.

Al's debut in the 1930 baseball season was more than spectacular. The Philadelphia papers carried screeching headlines that evening that told the world "Simmons Hits Homer First Time Up." But that wasn't half the story. Less than two hours before the game began the obstinate outfielder was a hold-out and ineligible to play. As a matter of fact, the hitting ace had decided to pack up and go back home to Wilwaukee. An unidentified third party went into a huddle with Al about 1 o'clock and then got Connie Mack on the phone and arranged one more meeting between the two. So Simmons was taxied over to Shibe Park (at the club's expense) and after a few words the document was signed. The ovation Al received when he appeared on the field in uniform was equal to the kind usually reserved for a Ruthian homer in the Yankee stadium. And before the first inning was over Simmons had hit a colossal four-base wallop as his "thank you" to the fans.

It has been said that the Polish outfielder has taken Cobb as his model and is in a fair way to equal the Georgia Peach in everything that he did in a baseball way. Except that he bats right handed, you might think it was Ty up there at the plate instead of Al. They have many of the same mannerisms, and Al's bat is just as dreaded now by opposing pitchers as Cobb's ever was.

SHIRES TRADED TO WASHINGTON

The Great Man Swapped for Pitcher and Catcher

CHICAGO, June 16. (Exclusive)—Art Shires, White Sox first baseman, was traded today for Garland Braxton and Harold Tate, pitcher and catcher on the Washington team. It is the third trade Walter Johnson manager of the Senators, has made in the last week. Today ended the trading season in the American League.

"THE GREAT" SHIRES.

The exchange of players did not involve cash, it was announced.

Shires came to the Sox in the fall of 1928 from the Waco club of the Texas League. Last season he was the center of continual argument with Lena Blackburne, the Sox manager. His troubles brought him suspension and cost Blackburne his job.

Restored to good standing this spring by Commissioner Landis and Owner Comiskey after a winter of adventure in the fight rings, Shires has been out of the line-up twice because of injuries. He batted .312 last season and now is hitting .262. Bud Clancy has been playing

Two of Aprato's miscues came in the first inning and paved the way for the Romans' scoring in that inning. Four runs crossed the platter for L.A. in the first inning, which later proved to be their margin of victory.

Melo Almado, brother of the well-known Louis, now playing with the Seattle Indians, pitched for the Romans. He fanned five and held the Tigers to ten scattered hits.

It was Almada's triple in the first inning that tallied two runs and more or less took the heart out of the Tigers.

LIVELY BALL LIVES ON

Magnates See No Reason for Taking Jackrabbit Tendencies Out of Baseball

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—The crash of base hits rattling off the fences and home runs thudding over the barriers failed to disturb the magnates of the National League as they met with President John A. Heydler in special session today and argued over the so-called lively ball.

On the basis of financial returns around the circuit the club presidents decided to leave things strictly alone and let the clouting carnage go on.

Figures presented at the meeting but not made public disclosed that baseball's faithful apparently have no quarrel with the situation that has developed since the balls in use took on jackrabbit tendencies. Attendance at the ball parks has "increased substantially" during the first third of the 1930 season as compared with the figures for the corresponding period last year, President Heydler said. Clubs are doing especially well in Boston, Cincinnati and Brooklyn.

A decisive note was added to the opposition to tampering with the present make-up of the ball by Walter F. "Dutch" Carter, new member of the Brooklyn board of directors. Carter presented an imposing array of figures to show that baseball fans prefer base-hit battles to tight-hitting duels. Carter conducted a one-man referendum among the Brooklyn citizens and found that the most satisfying game to the majority of the fans ended in approximately an 8-to-6 score, combining

Anzacs Out of Davis Cup Play

MILAN (Italy) June 16. (AP)—Italy eliminated Australia in the semifinal round of European Zone Davis cup tennis play here today. The final tally was three matches to two.

Leading by two matches to one at the close of the first two days of play, Italy clinched the tie when Baron H. L. De Morpurgo, ace of the Italian team, defeated Harry Hopman, 8-6, 2-6, 6-4, 1-6, 6-1. Jack Crawford brought Australia's victories to two when he defeated Giorgi De Stefani, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

Gibson Dunlap Takes Second Play at Wilshire

Ezar Surprises to Tie With Morrison for Third

Olin Dutra Trims Costello in Play-off

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

In one of the queerest qualifying rounds for the United States open championship ever played in Southern California four professionals, Joe Ezar of El Caballero, Fred Morrison of Midwick, Olin Dutra of Brentwood and Mortie Dutra of Virginia, and one amateur, Gibson Dunlap of Rancho, yesterday survived a field of thirty-four golfers over thirty-six holes at Wilshire to gain admittance to the national classic at Interlachen in July.

GIBSON DUNLAP

Wilshire, stretched to its uttermost limits, became a raging tyrant to upset the best of well-laid plans; par was just a mythical something that wasn't even approached as Mortie Dutra, although nine over perfect figures, led the field by two strokes with 77-72—149.

Dunlap, former Southern California amateur champion, shot the first nine of his afternoon round in 33, the best effort of the day, to sneak into second place with 76-75—151. Ezar, a former caddie, completely demoralized the favorites with rounds of 74-79—153 to tie Morrison's 76-77—153 for third place.

The final sensation was furnished when Olin Dutra, rated as the Southland's finest golfer, was forced to play off with Jimmy Costello of Rio Hondo for fifth place. Dutra scored 75-79—154, and Costello, 78-76—154. The big Brentwood pro

Shoots Record 68; Bobby Jones Turns in 73; All Americans Likely to Qualify Today

BY FRANK H. KING

HOYLAKE (Eng.) June 16. (AP)—William Thomas Twine, tall young professional golfer from the Bromley and Bickley Club in County Kent, shot a record 68 over the Wallasey course today to lead a big field of nearly 300 in the first qualifying round of the British open championship.

Leo Diegel, Archie Compston and Jim Bradbeer, a London veteran, were tied for second place with scores of 70, but Diegel and Compston played the course of the Royal Liverpool Club, over which the championship proper will be fought out. This course is at least two strokes harder than Wallasey.

LEO DIEGEL

Until Compston, a late starter, came in with his 70, Diegel led the half of the field playing at the Royal Liverpool. Diegel, Bradbeer and Compston equaled the course record.

ONE OVER PAR

Bobby Jones returned a score of 73 over the Royal Liverpool, one stroke above par. George Von Elm played Wallasey in 71. This, too, was one stroke over par. Horton Smith and Don Moe, also assigned to Wallasey today, returned scores of 75, 77, Smith playing at Wallasey and Barnes at Royal Liverpool.

All the Americans, professional and amateur, have a good chance to qualify although Joshua Crane of Boston and F. C. Stevens, Jr., Los Angeles, who had 77 and 79 respectively, may have to do as well tomorrow as they did today. Estimates to-

California Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament Draws 250 Players To

QUALIFY TODAY AND TOMORROW

Expect Total of 400 Entries for Tournament

Match Play Slated to Start on Thursday

Fay Coleman to Take Part in Popular Event

With an anticipated entry list of 400 golfers, the annual California Country Club invitational tournament gets under way this morning. Approximately 250 divot diggers are signed up for today's qualifying round, with expectations of an additional 150 or more tomorrow. This annual tourney is the most popular in Southern California and always draws in the neighborhood of 400 entries.

FAY COLEMAN

Eighteen-hole qualifying rounds may be played today or tomorrow. Match play starts Thursday. There will be ten flights, all contestants qualifying according to handicap. The championship and first flights will play two rounds Saturday, with all finals billed for Sunday.

Dick Russell of Rio Hondo won the tournament last year. Fay Coleman, recently crowned Southern California amateur champion, will play in the tournament, although he declared yesterday he might only qualify and then refrain from playing through. Since concentrating on the amateur and attaining the title, Fay's golf has suffered a bit, naturally.

Many of those who yesterday attempted to qualify for the national open tourney, and failed, are expected to sign up today for the California tournament.

One of the leading early-morning foursomes today features Jack Douglas, Floyd Marshall, F. C. Charles and partner, starting at 9:05 o'clock.

Lamar Finds Rivals Scarce

Johnny Lamar is having a tough time finding competition in Southern California and unless things pick up Jack Russell is going to ship Lamar to a more prosperous territory. Johnny fights Teddy Palacios at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium Friday night. This is another attempt to bring a preliminary fighter to the top. Palacios may have the stuff, but like Tommy Gardner fighting Newsboy Brown, Palacios will find that he is up against the real thing in fighting a veteran like the Mexican. Teddy Palacios may be able to do what Cecil Payne and Hector McDonald couldn't do and that's beat Johnny Lamar.

ARROWHEAD SKATERS EVEN HOCKEY SERIES

Arrowhead Valley ice hockey players defeated the Shell Oil team, 7 to 5, last night at the Winter Garden Ice Palace. The victory gave the Arrowhead team an even standing in the summer play-off with the Oilers. They each have won one game apiece to date.

The Duffer Revises a Famous Bard

The sky is blue, the brier rose fills
The air with sweetness, all the hills
Stretch green to June's unclouded sky;
But life is still a care and sigh,
A loss in all the pleasant things,
The flowers that bloom, the bird that sings.
For if the day be cool or hot
My blinkin' head keeps popping up.

I do not care to see the sky,
The woodland blooms that linger by;
And swaying trees where song is rife
Mean almost nothing in my life;
I can't afford to waste my hours
In peering at the purple flowers,
I'd rather keep my old bean still,
And yet I can't—and never will.

The time may come when it may be decided that the only way to stop fouling is to stop fighting. That is the dead certain, 100 per cent cure.

Bobby Jones and Hoylake

It was at Hoylake, nine years ago, when the Georgia golfer was 19, that he made his first British stand. And all in all it was nothing to cheer about.

His start was spectacular. Paired with Chick Evans in the team matches, the two, playing alternate shots, stepped out in 33. It was murder. But deep and dark trouble waited just ahead. Jones got his first match nicely, playing well. He beat Robert Harris, a British star. Then he wobbled and skidded against a Mr. Hamlet, a thin artisan golfer with a still thinner mustache where both were close to 90. They halved three holes in 6's. Playing Allan Graham, a brother of the famous John, Jones ordinarily could have started him—or 4 up. As it was he was badly beaten by an 83 clip.

British experts shook their heads. "He can hit his shots like Duncan," they said. "But he blows up. It's a pity. He'll probably never get very far." Nine years later Bobby returns to Hoylake with ten national championships chalked up to his credit—four United States amateur titles, three United States open crowns, two British open and one British amateur.

This next championship should rest among Jones, Horton Smith, Mac Smith, Diegel, Compston, Cotton, Mitchell and Whitcombe. This is naming eight out of 296 starters, but it is a list that should carry the winner.

The growth of golf in the United States can be figured from this—there are 298 starters in the British open. There were 1130 in the United States open, where the sectional qualifying tests spread from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

Missouri Awaits the Verdict

Out in Missouri they are still strong in the belief that Horton Smith has a great chance to lead the pack at Hoylake this week.

Young Smith has set himself to make a stout stand in this championship, cutting down the amount of golf he played a year ago when he brought on staleness. Hoylake is a hard tee shot course with several out of bounds to face and this will suit the Missouri entry.

His hardest test will be the finishing holes that call for long second shots and if Smith slips it will be down this long home stretch.

Mac Smith's bid for the title will also be interesting as he tied for the United States open twenty years ago. The real story doesn't open until Wednesday but from that point on the scramble should be one of the keenest in many years.

DUTRA TOPS QUALIFIERS

Mortie Shoots 149 at Wilshire to Lead in Open Test; Dunlap Scores 151 for Second Place

The scores turned in yesterday offer quite a contrast to Charley Guest's leading card of 144 at Lakeside last year, and the two brilliant 143's hung up by Ed Dudley and Morrison at El Caballero in 1928.

While Olin Dutra is undoubtedly representative of the best golf played in this section, and by every right should play in the open, it is nevertheless the concensus of scores of golfers who stood at the eighteenth hole in the afternoon that Olin incurred a two-stroke penalty, which was not meted out, when he picked up a leaf from behind his ball in a hazard. Had the penalty been inflicted, Dutra would have failed to qualify with 156.

The situation was this: With a 4 on the thirty-sixth hole for a total of 152, Dutra hooked his second shot into the hazard guarding the eighteenth green. The ball came to rest under a bridge in an almost unplayable lie in that it was practically impossible to approach to the pin. Dutra elected to take a straight-faced club and roll the ball up the embankment on to the green, which would have left him two putts for a 5. His ball, however, stopped in deep grass, almost on the green, but still in the hazard. It was then that Dutra stooped down and thoughtlessly picked up the leaf from behind his ball.

We quote from the U.S.G.A. rules, under which the qualifying round was played, as follows: Rule 25. When a ball lies in or touches a hazard, nothing shall be done which can in any way improve its lie; the club shall not touch the ground, nor shall anything be touched or moved, before the player strikes at the ball. The penalty for a breach of this rule is two strokes.

RECALLS MRS. GREEN

The unfortunate part about the whole business is this: it was just two months ago in the California State championship at Wilshire that Mrs. Roy Green of California did the identically same thing in a semifinal match with Miss Helen Lawson on the sixteenth hole. At that time Mrs. Green was 2 up and two to go, and would have almost certainly have won to play Mrs. Leona Pressler in the finals. The hole was called on Mrs. Green, and so wrecked her game that she lost on the nineteenth hole. In match play the penalty is loss of the hole.

The moral seems to be that the time has arrived when golf rules should either be rigidly enforced in championship competition, or disregarded entirely. More often through entire lack of officiating, rather than through incompetence, rules are flagrantly disregarded. A prominent figure in national golfing circles told us yesterday that almost every golfer that tees off in a local tournament disqualifies himself or herself before the round is over by breaking rules of one kind or another.

Dunlap faced a difficult situation on the same hole in the afternoon, when his second shot came to rest beside the bridge. The local ruling gave him the right to drop two club lengths back without penalty, but the U.S.G.A. ruling superseded this and Dunlap was forced to drop back in the hazard with a penalty to finish with a 6 for a 42.

BEER FALTERS

Neither Morrison nor Dutra played anywhere near their best games. This may be due somewhat to the fact that both engaged in an eighteen-hole match at Annandale on Sunday under a boiling sun. The Southland is fortunate in being represented by two such sterling golfers in the open, and both can be counted on to make a fine showing at Interlachen.

Following are the cards of the qualifiers:

ROCHESTER PROS MAKE CLEAN-SWEEP

BUFFALO (N. Y.) June 16. (AP)—Out-of-town golfers made a clean-sweep of the national open championship qualifier for the Buffalo section today, all four places going to pros from the Rochester district.

The qualifiers: Clarence Doser, 147; Walter Bemish, 148; Ray Feller, 148, and George Christ, 149.

HARMON MAKES HOLE-IN-ONE

DENVER, June 16. (AP)—Sid Harmon of Salt Lake City and Jimmy Thompson, Broadmoor Golf Club pro of Colorado Springs, qualified for the national open in the Rocky Mountain district tournament today with scores of 71-69—140 and 72-72—144, respectively.

Harmon added to his honor with a hole-in-one on the 100-yard seventh during the morning round. It marked the first appearance of a Utah player in this district's qualifying round.

GULDAHL LEADS FIED AT DALLAS

DALLAS (Tex.) June 16. (AP)—Ralph Guldahl, young Dallas professional, with a card of 72-71—143 led a field of thirty-three golfers of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas in the district qualifying round for the national open today. Par for the course is 70.

The other three places from the sixth district went to Francis Scheider, Dallas, 145; Ray Mangun, Dallas, 147, and Robert Mair, Texarkana, 151.

COLLINS LEADS FOUR QUALIFIERS

DAYTON (O.) June 16. (AP)—Jock Collins, Dayton Country Club professional, led four other qualifiers from District 19 for the national open golf tourney by shooting 72-69-141, over the Miami Valley Country Club course here today. Bill Tinder, Anderson, Ind., (professional,) and Neil Ransick, Cincinnati (amateum,) tied for second position with 148. George Sargent, Colubmus, (professional,) and Telford J. Gibrasl', Jackson, O., (professional,) each with 149, rounded out the five qualifiers from among fifty-two aspirants.

WASHINGTON ENTRIES DOMINATE FIELD

RICHMOND (Va.) June 16. (AP)—Washington entries dominated the District 4 thirty-six-hole qualifying competition for the national open golf championship here today. Al Houghton, Mel Shorey and A. B. Thorn, all of the Capital City, gaining the district berths. Scores were: Houghton, 143; Shorey and Thorn, 149 each.

BOLSTAD MEDALIST AT ST. PAUL

ST. PAUL, June 16. (AP)—Five professionals and three amateurs in the St. Paul district qualified for the national open golf tournament at Interlachen Club, Minneapolis, July 10, 11 and 12, next. An amateur, Lester Bolstad of Minneapolis, was medalist with 147, and two professionals, W. R. Loveking, Minneapolis, and Jock Henry, St. Paul, made the outside score of 152. Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, a member of the Walker Cup team, did not have to play to qualify. Other qualifiers: Art Walker and Art Tverra, both Minneapolis amateurs, each 150; Willie Kid, Minne-Bear, 151; Dow George, Minneapolis, 150; Tom Vardon, White apolis, 151.

McANDREW LEADS GOLF QUALIFIERS

SALEM (Mass.) June 16. (AP)—Charles McAndrew, golf professional at the Bonnet Shore Country Club, Narragansett Pier, R. I., today led the local candidates for participation in the national open championships with a thirty-six-hole total of 148. He has qualified for the last five open tournaments. The qualifiers and their scores were: Charles McAndrew, Bonnet Shore, R. I., 148; Robert Crowley, Kenosa C.C., Haverhill, 150; Jack Curley, Stoney Brae, Quincy, 152; Ted Turner, North Adams C.C., 152.

CHARLEY GUEST LOW SCORER

DETROIT, June 16. (AP)—With 148 by Charles Guest as low score, five Detroit golfers, all pros, out of fifty aspirants, won the right today to compete in the national open at Minneapolis next month. The other five places allotted to Detroit district are held by Tommy Armour, George Von Elm, Walter Hagen, Charley Hilgendorf and Emerick Kocsis, who were exempt from qualifying.

Today's qualifiers and their scores: Charley Guest, Lockhaven 148; Orm Beaupre, Western, 151; Al Watrous, Oakland Hills, 152; Arthur Ham, Hawthorne Valley, 154; Clarence Gamber, Forest Lake, 155.

HUTCHISON TOPS FIELD AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 16. (AP)—For the second consecutive year Jock Hutchison, veteran Chicago professional, topped the field in the district qualifying round for the national open golf championship tournament. Hutchison toured over the thirty-six-hole test at the Briar Gate Country Club in 142 strokes, equaling par.

Thirteen professionals and four amateurs qualified with scores unusually low. The cards ranged from Hutchison's 142 to 149 for the last qualifiers.

Other qualifiers were:

George Smith, Chicago, 145. Francis Gallett, Milwaukee, 145. Harry Cooper, Chicago, 146. Frank Walsh, Chicago, 146. Wallie Chamberlain, Chicago, 146. X-Charles (Chick) Evans, Chicago, 146. R. E. Owens, Baer in Rematch at Oakland

OAKLAND, June 16. (AP)—Rematching of Max Baer, outstanding heavyweight prospect from Livermore, and Ernie Owens, Los Angeles, for a ten-round bout here the 25th inst., was announced today by Promoter Louis Parente. The pair fought ten sizzling rounds to a draw in Los Angeles recently.

YOUTHFUL AMATEUR IS QUALIFIER

KANSAS CITY, June 16. (AP)—Chester C. Jones, 19-year-old Lawrence (Kan.) amateur, and two professionals, Wilbur Gilbert of Topeka and Bunny Torpey of Kansas City, qualified today for the national golf open. Jones turned in a card of 72-75-147; Gilbert and Torpey each had totals of 150.

RODIA TOPS SEATTLE STARS

SEATTLE, June 16. (AP)—Frank Rodia, Seattle, golf professional, qualified for the national open golf championship in Minneapolis in July when he turned in a card of 145 for thirty-six holes here today. Rodia had a 70 for the morning round and a 75 for the afternoon. Neil Christian, Portland, turned in a 148 card with a 72-76, tieing with Joe Mozel, also of Portland, who had a 148 for the thirty-six holes with a 74-74.

MILLER AND HALL LEAD FIFTEEN

ATLANTA, June 16. (AP)—Eddie Miller of Gadsen, Ala., Southwestern P.G.A. champion, and Charles Hall of Birmingham, both professionals, qualified here today for the national open golf championship, winning over a field of fifteen players. Miller carded 75-73—148. At the end of the two rounds Hall was tied with Alex Milne, Jr., of La Grange, Ga., at 149, winning the second place on the district allotment on the third play-off hole.

KOSSMAN BEST AT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, June 16. (AP)—Four professionals qualified here today for the national open golf championship. Approximately forty golfers participated in the sectional tournament.

The qualifiers and their scores: Walter Kossman, Belleville, Ill., 144; Francis Schwartz, St. Louis, 147; John Manion, St. Louis, 149; Dave Sutherland, St. Louis, 150.

ROCKY RICH STARS AT NEW YORK

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) June 16. (AP)—Rocky Rich of Larchmont, N. Y., led the field in the metropolitan section qualifying round of the national open played today over the links of the Quaker Ridge and the Fenimore Country Club.

The young Italian-American pro scored a 79 and 69 for a total of 148 which led the select field by a one-stroke margin.

Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y., and T. P. Perkins of Long Beach, N. Y., former British amateur champion, and Herman Barron of Port Chester were tied for second with 149. The fourteen low scorers qualified for the national open championship July 10 to 12 at the Interlachen Country Club, Minneapolis, Minn.

The qualifiers:

Rocky Rich, Larchmont, 148. Johnny Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y., 149. X-T. P. Perkins, Long Beach, N. Y., 149. Herman Barron, Port Chester, 149. William Mehlhorn, Pensacola, Fla., 151. W. Tennis, Golf Stroke Shown

IS THERE A FLAT ARC TO GOLF SWING?
AS IN TENNIS STROKE SHOWN BELOW

BY SOL METZGER

J. Parmley Paret, keen student of tennis and author of several official books on its science, claims that there is much in common between the tennis and golf strokes. He states that the circular swing that experts in each use to stroke the ball is so made that when contact with ball occurs, the racket in tennis and the clubhead in golf travel through a flat arc.

This flat arc, he argues, is brought about because the player moves forward when striking the ball. Many good golf instructors claim this theory is wrong, that the well-played golf shot must be so exactly timed that the face of one's club makes contact with the ball only at that moment when it is at right angles to the direction line.

Do those sand traps worry you? If so, maybe Sol Metzger's new leaflet on "The Explosion Shot" will help you. Write for it in care of The Times and inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The best slugger for the Romans was Greer, husky catcher, who accounted for three snappy singles in five trips to the plate.

Senator Sugi and Andy Lombardo of Lincoln both managed to bat .500 for the day, slamming out two hits in four trips to the rubber apiece. One of Lombardo's blows was a homer, clearing the left-field fence with ease.

Sugi, who has won the last two Lincoln games with his timely hits, was the last man at the plate in the ninth. The fans figured the game was over but weren't going to leave with the stocky little Japanese shortstop batting. He stuck it out as long as he could, working Almada for three balls and four fouls, besides a called strike. Finally he flied out to Ferraris to end the agony.

SWITCH IN WRESTLING BILL LOOMS

Special Event Between Wycoff and Marshall is Slated for Top Spot

A switch in the wrestling card planned for the Olympic on the 25th inst. is expected to be made today. The finish battle between Lee Wycoff and Everett Marshall, originally scheduled for the second spot on the all-star card, may be moved into the feature event spot, it was announced, because of the great interest being shown in this match by wrestling followers in this section.

STRANGLER LEWIS

Ed (Strangler) Lewis, former mat king, who has been signed for a finish match with Marin Plestina, the Tarzan of the mat, for the final spot, is expected to make strenuous objections to the proposed change.

Abe Coleman, Jewish heavyweight champion, and as colorful a wrestler as any of the other young stars on this card, will meet George in the opening event.

Moreing announced last Sunday that he had broken the option with the Yankees on the ground that it was illegal and the return of Thomas to Baltimore is a consequence of this action. Hoag is out of the game with a sprained ankle, and the Solons' chances to win the first-half pennant were further jeopardized when Ray Rohwer, outfielder, went to the hospital today, suffering with a mysterious elbow ailment.

Braxton, who is 30 years of age, won twelve games last year with Washington, while losing ten. Tate, who is 29, batted .294 last year with Washington.

Officials of the White Sox said tonight the trade was made in a final effort to strengthen the team. Braxton is expected to bolster the pitching, while the addition of Tate to the catching staff is needed because of mediocre hitting by Autry. Berg has been out of the line-up with injuries and Buck Crouse recently was brought back from Indianapolis, where he had been sent at the start of the year for Johnny Riddle.

The Shires trade was the second in two days involving the White Sox. Dave Harris, outfielder, was sent to Washington for Emile Barnes, also an outfielder.

BUCS LOSE

PHILADELPHIA, June 16. (AP)—In a wild and woolly contest marked by thirty-two runs and thirty-eight base hits, the Phillies defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates today, 18 to 14.

Chuck Klein kept up his hitting and ran his streak to twenty-five consecutive games by making four safeties. One of these was his nineteenth home run of the season in the third inning. O'Doul, Hurst and Brickell also hit homers. At one time the Phils held a 12-to-2 lead, but the Pirates came back in the closing three innings to score eleven runs. Score:

RED SOX ON TOP

CHICAGO, June 16. (AP) — Ted Lyons's efforts directed toward a tenth victory were not successful today and the Boston Americans made it two straight over the White Sox, 6 to 3.

Two wild pitches in the seventh inning, one of them a "fluke," when the ball, made slippery by a slight rainfall, oozed from his hand, led to Lyons's defeat. The Red Sox built three runs about them and two walks, a single by Narlesky and Oliver's double.

It was Lyons's sixth defeat as against nine victories this season. The score:

RABBIT PUNCHES

By PAUL LOWRY

RIVAL SPORTSMANSHIP

DEAN CROMWELL brought back the best inside story of the I.C.4-A. meet at Cambridge, and it deals largely with the sporting qualities of a rival track coach, Mr. Dink Templeton of Stanford.

When one of the I.C.4-A. officials ruled the jump of Jim Stewart, the leading Trojan, at 6ft. 3in. a "dive" rather than an orthodox jump Mr. Templeton came storming to the rescue.

He failed to accomplish the purpose of having the decision reversed, but he did create a lot of commotion and placed the offending official—a gent named Barwise—in a very unfavorable light.

Dink insisted the jump was perfectly legal, within the rules, and should be permitted. The adverse ruling resulted in Stewart's placing second although he cleared the winning height of 6ft. 3in.

Curiously enough, it developed that Barwise was the same who had ruled against Templeton himself when he was trying for the Olympic team in 1920.

Barwise succeeded in carrying his point at that time, and Dink was unable to get on the American team as a high jumper.

But the decision made him so mad that he entered the broad jump, outdid himself and gained the trip to Antwerp anyway.

OLD MAN CONSISTENCY

CLARENCE DE MAR has come and gone after demonstrating his remarkable consistency as a marathoner in the second annual Times Pre-Olympic Marathon.

He has entered and won three marathons this year—the classic Boston event in 2h. 34m. 45s., the Pawtucket in 2h. 41m., and The Times in 2h. 34m. 45s.

There's very little variation in those times, and they prove the 42-year-old veteran can step just about as fast one place as another.

Last year De Mar was off his feed. He did not finish well up in the Boston Marthon, which he has won seven times in twelve starts, and he placed second to Harry Chaca in The Times race in slow time by comparison with this year's event.

The perennial plodder recalls running in thirty-seven marathons and winning seventeen of them.

He took up the punishing sport twenty years ago.

Men of 40 who believe they are old can take a lesson from De Mar.

Incidentally, age did not bar two real sport veterans from starting in The Times race last Saturday. Gilbert Carson, 57, and Alfred Haynes, 60, were the real vets of the race.

A LOCAL PRODUCT

THE first black boy to hold the welterweight championship since the days of Joe Wolcott and the Dixie Kid—twenty-five years ago—shows his wares tonight.

They were good wares Young Jack Thompson possessed in 1926 when he first bounded into local prominence by stopping Jack Silver of San Francisco, and now that he is champion they should be polished wares.

Whether or not others claim him, the black boy is really a product of this city.

It was here that he rose from the ranks to main-event consideration, and it was here that he improved the boxing and hitting skill which eventually landed him the title—a crown wrung from the head of another local light, Jackie Fields.

ABOUT FOUL CHECKS

GRANTLAND RICE'S idea of foul checks at a fight a la rain checks at a baseball game is a good one.

All the idea needs is a boxing commission brave enough to put it over.

Naturally, the fighters will howl because they are accustomed to getting fat checks whether they fight one round or ten rounds.

But there never was any good reason for making a sucker out of the public all the time.

Let the fighters hold the sack once in a while, and there will be fewer fouls.

A YOUTHFUL COMER

THE recent knockout of Wally Fraser by Jimmy Hanna might not have meant a thing to the average fan.

It happened in a semi-wind-up to a muchly discussed main event.

But it marked the rise of a boy who is likely to be heard from soon in main-event circles.

Hanna is just a young light-heavyweight, but one who has improved with every start and is bound to make his mark in faster competition.

CARDOZA MEETS WELTER CHAMP

only come-on fights. When Thompson got his chance in a championship match he was a fighter of a different caliber.

BEAT FIELDS

He beat Fields easily at Detroit, and won the title without a dissenting voice over the verdict.

No claims of greatest are advanced in behalf of Cardoza, Thompson's opponent, tonight.

He is just one of the real tough boys of the boxing racket, a club fighter who believes the best way to beat an opponent is to throw leather.

"Windy" Windsor, who handles Cardoza, claims his boy will be at his best against Thompson because the weight is an edge in his favor.

Ordinarily, Cardoza fights middleweights, but he is closer to the lower-division poundage than the other.

"Windy" has a great way of pepping his fighters in an important fight, and he may inspire Cardoza to the heights.

"Windy" points out that Thompson knocked out Dundee when he was champion, in two rounds, and that Cardoza has the same chance to become a hero against Thompson tonight.

In the semi-wind-up Babe Anderson of San Jose, who was under consideration as an opponent for Thompson in the main event, meets Matt Codan.

CALL OVER ANDERSON

Cardoza got the call over Anderson because he easily beat Eddie Roberts, who was another knockout conqueror of Dundee before the latter lost the title to Fields.

Anderson is a puncher. He knocked out Jimmy Duffy and Jack Silver and gave Young Corbett a tough battle. It is said that Anderson had Corbett on the verge of a knockout.

Manuel DeLeon and Johnny DeLano, a couple of newcomers, box the special event. They are 126-pounders. DeLeon comes from Ventura. DeLano is from Boston and is managed by Jerry the Greek.

Chief White Horse, Indian heavyweight, and Steve Hayden box six rounds in an added event. Marcelino Lomeli and Johnny Miceli open the show.

Tomorrow night Thompson will be honored by a banquet given by his Los Angeles admirers at the Dunbar Hotel. It is expected there will be 450 guests present.

Barbee can play the sunfield and has a good arm.

SHELLY OR HULVEY TO HURL

Either Frank Shellenback or Hank Hulvey is expected to be on the mound for the Stars today. Gordon Rhodes, who rejoined the Sheiks last week in San Francisco, is also due for an early start against the Reds. Rhodes jumped right off the train to pitch for the Stars last week and was effective for five innings before blowing up. Lane says that Rhodes still has all of his natural speed and believes that Vitt can again turn the good-looking Utah collegian into a winner.

Skipper Lelivelt and his Angels departed last night for San Francisco, where they start another seven-game series with the Seals today. The Angels always hit plenty in Recreation Park and figure to upset the Seals this week. The Angels are off on a three-week road trip, journeying from the Bay section to Seattle and Portland before returning home to close the first half against the Indians. Lelivelt believes that his Seraphs ought to fatten up in the Northwest and has high hopes of bringing them home in position to drive for a first-half victory.

Ed Baecht will hurl the opener against the Seals, which means that the Angels have a good chance of starting off right on their lengthy road trip.

NIGHT BALL HERE—MAYBE

It begins to look more and more as if Los Angeles fans will have night baseball at Wrigley Field in the near future. Joe Patrick has ordered Secretary Bocks Weber and Manager Lelivelt to go up to Sacramento one evening this week to see what they think of the night pastime.

Bill Lane is enthusiastic over giving the night game a try here.

"After all," says Lane, "we're only in the game for the gate receipts. Up at Sacramento last week they drew more for the series than they have ever drawn there before. The smallest crowd turned out for the Sunday-afternoon game. Yes, sir, I'm very much in favor of night ball here, but, of course, that's up to the Los Angeles owners."

DIEGEL PLAYS IN FINE FORM

Darwin Says Coast Star at Top of His Golf Game

late, I fear he will not come into today's story at all.

Leo Diegel, the American professional champion, began by being good and ended in a blaze of fireworks. So far in his visit to England, he never struck a steadier pace. I did not really like his game when he just beat Mitchell at Moor Park, and he has lost twice to Mitchell since then. But this morning his start looked better to me, and his initial shot was at least lucky. He has given up using his driver, which had been laying him in trouble, and drove extremely well with the brassey. Going out though, he looked to be in good form, yet he let some strokes slip on the greens and 37 to the turn was no more than ordinarily good.

Coming home, Diegel played quite beautifully. There were two one-shotters and a number of very long two-shotters, long enough for anybody, I should say. He came home in 33, a really wonderful score. He had just one five. He got his two threes at one-shotters and missed a shortish putt for another three at the twelfth. With three holes to go, he needed very perfect golf for 72, but went gloriously mad and ended in 3-4-3, getting 70. A great spoon shot laid him almost dead at the sixteenth and another fine second shot at the home hole did it. He made no mistakes with putts.

Diegel looks to me like a man who is just coming to the top of his game and knows it.

An hour after Diegel started, Bobby Jones, with the usual crowd at his heels, began. He had 73 and I do not think he was trying unduly hard. I have seen him play more magically and more faultlessly, but he was very impressive, nevertheless. Bobby said to me of these Hoylake greens that he never putted on better and that their only fault is that they give no excuse for misses. He acted up to his words, for he putted very well. It was just as well that he did, for some of his seconds were a little loosely judged, according to his standard, and he had to do a good deal in the way of boiling down three shots into two by dexterous chipping and sound holing on going out.

When Bobby reached the turn in 36 and started home with a 4 and a 2, I thought he was set for 69, but then came disaster. A thoroughly bad second shot to the twelfth—Bobby can play a bad one sometimes—landed him in an unplayable place in a bunker. He took two to get out and that meant a 6. The thirteenth is a short hole, beset by traps. Bobby got into one of them and nearly stayed in it with his second shot. He got his 4, but 69 had vanished into the land of dreams and shadows, and he had to pull himself together and finish strongly to get his 73. He will try harder and play better when these preliminary canters are over.

Money in for Thompson Go With Corbett

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. (AP)—Although tickets have not yet been printed for the ten-round nontitle bout here July 4, next, between young Jack Thompson, champion, and Young Corbett of Fresno, Promoter Ed Lynch announced today orders for $13,000 worth already had been received. The pasteboards will be put on sale Wednesday.

Oakley Morris Leaving Post

Oakley Morris, for the past two years director of physical education at South Pasadena Junior High School, is leaving his present post to coach football, basketball and baseball at Visalia Junior College.

Morris has been instrumental in making the Junior Olympic Games program a success in his district during the past two years. Each season he placed one or more boys in the Southern California finals.

Visalia Junior College and High School are together and "Oak" reports that he expects to land several star athletes of 1930 from the latter institution.

Morris was himself an athletic star at Whittier College, playing four years of football, two of basketball and two of baseball. He was grid captain in 1926. Prior to entering Whittier he starred at Long Beach in 1917, 1918 and 1919, being all-Southern guard the last year when Long Beach won the Southwestern championship of the nation.

fair pitching with not too much hitting.

Although trade rumors were in the air with the deadline for the season set at midnight tonight, no player deals developed at the meeting.

Discussion of dates for opening the season ended with reference of the annual problem to the presidents of the American and National Leagues, who will meet later to decide the issue. The possibility of night ball in the major leagues was not discussed.

Weetamoe in Regatta Win

OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) June 16. (AP)—Weetamoe, potential defender of the America's Cup against the challenge of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V, defeated the Enterprise and the Whirlwind, rival candidates for the honor, for the second straight time today in a twenty-five-mile race in Long Island Sound.

The Weetamoe raced over the triangular course in 2h. 14m. 38s., to defeat the Enterprise by one minute and fourteen seconds. The Whirlwind was third, fifty-two seconds further astern.

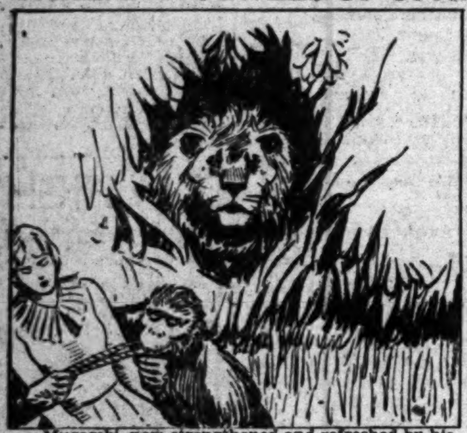
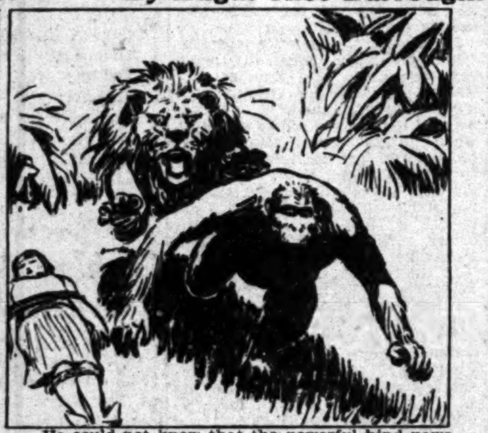
TARZAN AND THE JEWELS OF OPAR

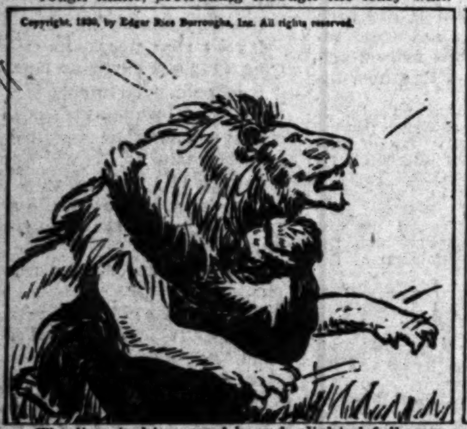
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Mugambi, now strengthened and refreshed by his long rest, felt ready to set out again for Waziri, and finding himself another knobstick turned his back upon the river and plunged into the mazes of the jungle . . . As Taglat struggled with the bonds which secured the arms of his captive, the great lion that eyed the two from behind a nearby clump of bushes wormed closer to his intended prey. The ape's back was toward the lion. He did not see the broad head, fringed by its rough mane, protruding through the leafy wall.

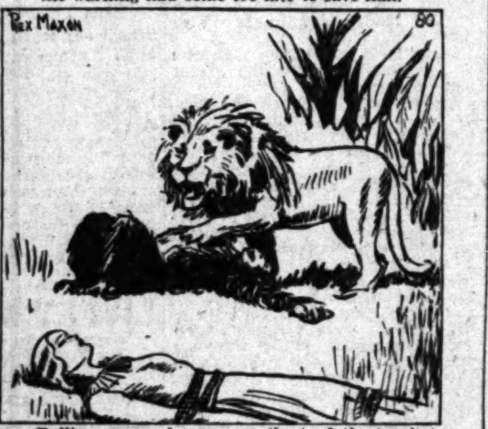


He could not know that the powerful hind paws were gathering close beneath the tawny belly preparatory to a sudden spring. His first intimation of impending danger was the thunderous and triumphant roar which the charging lion could no longer suppress. Scarce pausing for a backward glance, Taglat abandoned the unconscious woman and fled in the opposite direction from the horrid sound which had broken in so unexpected and terrifying a manner upon his startled ears; but the warning had come too late to save him.



Copyright, 1930, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

The lion, in his second bound, alighted full upon the broad shoulders of the anthropoid. As the great bull went down, he turned upon his back and closed with the lion in a death struggle so fearless and abandoned that for a moment the great Numa himself may have trembled for the outcome. Seizing the lion by the mane, Taglat buried his yellowed fangs deep in the monster's throat, growling hideously. Mixed with the ape's voice, the lion's roars of rage and pain reverberated through the jungle.



Rex Maxon

Rolling over and over upon the turf, the two battled with demoniac fury until the colossal cat, by doubling his hind paws far up beneath his belly, sank his talons deep into Taglat's chest. Numa accomplished his design. With a last spasmodic struggle, the anthropoid relaxed limp beneath his titanic adversary. Scrambling to his feet, Numa looked about for new enemies. Only the unconcious form of the girl met his gaze a few paces away. With an angry growl he placed a forepaw upon his slain enemy and roared forth a victory cry.

MEN WHO WIN
A LARGE SUCCESSFUL FINANCIAL INSTITUTION would like to interview a few men who are tired of finding a new customer every time they make a sale. SUCCESS cannot be built up in this way. We have over six thousand SATISFIED CUSTOMERS who are re-investing every week and month with us. The salesmen who interested them at first with our service are collecting COMMISSIONS on this money, thereby building himself a PERMANENT INCOME.

Why waste the best years of your life by selling people some commodity or other, that does not make good, and which spoils your chances of ever selling them again? The principle is all wrong.

To such men as qualify we will train. Thus fitting them for the work in hand, and helping them to make a success from the very start.

IF you are a THINKING MAN, come up today and see me. It will be the BEST day's work you ever did for yourself.

INSURANCE FUNDS

Money is now available as in the past several years for attractive loans in acceptable locations on real estate in Los Angeles and immediate vicinity.
Our supply is from the East where accumulations in large quantities are always seeking investment and at lower rates than can be had in the West, where so much money is needed for development.
A 6% loan after commission is added means only 6 3-5% to the borrower over a five-year period.

SERMON GIVEN BY LECTURER

Christian Science Defined as Code of Harmony

C. V. Winn of Pasadena Delivers Talk

Mrs. Eddy Quoted on Rule of Universe

In a Christian Science lecture delivered in Twentieth Church of Christ, Scientist, last evening, Charles V. Winn, C. S., of Pasadena, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., spoke in part as follows:

"Mrs. Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, in one of her writings (Rudimental Divine Science, P. 1,) defines Christian Science as 'the law of God, the law of good, interpreting and demonstrating the divine Principle and rule of universal harmony.' For anyone in nineteen words to convey to humanity a greater hope, a greater assurance, yea, a greater certainty that the way of salvation has at last been found, would be impossible. Here we have the unqualified assertion that our harmony is not a matter of chance or uncertainty, but that it can be obtained through a definite knowledge of law, a divine Principle and universal rule. Science tells us that the two great characteristics of a law are universality and permanency and the inspired leader of Christian Science in conformity with true Science tells us that we can understand and demonstrate a law of God, a law of good which will universally and permanently establish and maintain our well-being. We know that a real law is impartial and ever-operative, that it is always dependable and certain in its results: surely we could have no greater blessing than to acquaint ourselves with such a law.

NEED TRUE KNOWLEDGE

"In order to understand God's law we must necessarily gain the true knowledge of God, for the nature of God's law will depend entirely on the nature of God or the Lawgiver.

"In order that we may know God aright, Mrs. Eddy has employed various terms for God to help us grasp more clearly the character and nature of God. God is the same yesterday, today, and forever, but we, through scientific knowing, can increase our understanding of the divine attributes, thus enlarging our concept of God. One of the terms that Mrs. Eddy uses which has proved most helpful is the term 'Mind.' Christian Science declares that God is omnipotent or all-powerful, omniscient or all-knowing, omnipresent or everywhere. When we learn that God is Mind, we can begin to see that God is everywhere, always present and always available. We know that Mind can be everywhere and must be everywhere, for we cannot conceive of any existence without mind or consciousness. We further learn that we can turn to this infinite Mind in every hour of need and instantly avail ourselves of its infinite power, for it is ever at hand and omni-active. Everything comes to us by way of thought, or consciousness. Then if God is Mind and ever-present, we can at all times open our thoughts to the activity of the divine Mind and allow its infinite power and presence to pervade our thoughts and enrich our being.

TEXT QUOTED

"The Christian Science textbook says on page 42, 'Jesus' life proved, divinely and scientifically, that God is Love.' He always saw man as God made him and not as erreor was disguising him. Jesus knew that the man of God's creating whom the Scriptures declare was made in God's image and likeness could be no less than the perfect expression of God. He knew that nothing true or real had to be changed, but that the only thing which had to be changed was a false concept of God and His creation. You will recall that on one occasion Jesus was in Cana of Galilee and that he was approached by a nobleman whose son was dangerously ill at Capernaum. The nobleman asked Jesus to come to Capernaum and heal his son. Jesus knew that divine Love and the perfect manifestation were right there where disease and impending death seemed to be, and he was also able to make the father see the same fact.

"As a result 'the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him,' and the child was perfectly healed. Here is a perfect example of Christian or metaphysical healing. It is self-evident that Jesus did nothing in a material way. Jesus did not see the patient's body, never knew any of the symptoms, nor even the name of the disease, and yet he restored him to perfect health and, as was later learned from the servants, he did it instantly. All that took place was in the mental realm and all that transpired was a recognition of the eternal fact of being that infinite good and its manifestation can never for one moment be anything less than perfect and perfectly expressed."

"Big Three" of Intercoastal Conference to Quit

Intention Notices Reported Already on File

Action Believed Forerunner of New Rate Fight

BY WALDO DRAKE

Demoralization of the already shaky structure of the intercoastal freight trade seemed a certainty yesterday, following announcement from an authentic source that the three remaining Class A members, the American-Hawaiian, Luckenbach and Dollar Lines, have filed notice of withdrawal from the United States Intercoastal Conference. Under a provision in the conference agreement, withdrawal of a member line cannot become effective until four months following filing of notice, so that the "big three" may not enter the independent field until after October 15, next.

This unexpected action by the Class A lines, which includes only those lines maintaining express service, is reliably reported to have been occasioned by asserted unfair rate-cutting practices of a strong Class B line. In addition, there has been much dissatisfaction voiced by Class A members of the conference because of the provision whereby they must rebate to the slower Class B members a material portion of the higher freight rates they obtain by virtue of faster, more frequent service.

Shipping leaders here declare that another disastrous rate-slashing war will surely result from the withdrawal of the Big Three, which have been the backbone of the United States Intercoastal Conference and have thus materially maintained the healthy balance in intercoastal tariffs and practices. The slower, or Class B lines, which are still members of the conference include the Quaker Line, the Arrow Line, the Williams Line, the Nelson Line and the Munson-McCormick Line.

The Panama-Pacific Line and the Panama Mail Line, both in Class A, had previously withdrawn from the United States Intercoastal Conference, while nonconference lines solely in freight trade include the Isthmian Steamship Line and its subsidiary, the Argonaut Steamship Line, Inc.; the Calmar Line, the Shepard Line and the Dimon Line.

WORK STARTED ON NEW HANCOCK YACHT

Capt. G. Allan Hancock, local capitalist, drove the first rivet in the keel yesterday in the keel-laying ceremony which marked beginning of construction of his 195-foot steel Diesel cruiser yacht Velero III at Craig's yards, Long Beach.

The craft, which will be the largest yacht ever built on the Pacific Coast, is being constructed under supervision of G. Bruce Newby, local naval architect, who also designed her.

Launching is scheduled for December 1, and commissioning for January 15, 1931.

Leon Ellison is reported changing the registry of his little Diesel freighter Camina from American to Panamanian, for convenience in the Mexican trade. The craft will go on dry dock tomorrow at the Craig yards for inspection and repairs, when shift of flags will be made. Capt. William Malmgren will remain in command of the Camina, which is under charter to the United Fruit Company for transport of bananas between Tomato Bay, Mex., and this port.

First tests yesterday of the new Clark-Johnson vacuum blower, built expressly for the Metropolitan Stevedoring Company for discharge of copra, were successful as the ingenious machine unloaded copra cargo from the lower holds of the Dutch steamer Batoe, at Berth 175. R. S. Clark, designer of the blower, was on hand yesterday with his associate, W. F. Sutor, as Capt. Robert Hill, head of the stevedoring firm, put it into operation.

Motive power for the machine, which has a capacity of thirty tons of copra per hour, is supplied by a 100-horsepower Continental motor, which operates both an eight-inch fan, creating a three-pound vacuum pressure, and a Timken-Roots exhauster. It will be utilized chiefly for discharge of copra cargoes for the Copra Oil and Meal Company, Ltd., whose new plant now has a daily reducing capacity of 100 tons.

Canadian National Steamships will tomorrow night tender a reception and dinner to Southland shipping and transportation leaders aboard its new passenger liner, Prince Henry, due from Liverpool tomorrow morning on her voyage of delivery to enter British Columbia coasting trade. H. R. Bullen, general agent here for Canadian National Railways, and Perry S. Newcomb of Dodwell & Co. Ltd., will act as hosts to the gathering. The Prince Henry will berth at the terminals of the Outer Harbor Dock and Wharf Company.

The Banning Company, stevedores, had a hectic day yesterday, handling approximately 20,000 tons of cargo on fourteen ships, divided evenly between seven intercoastal vessels and as many more in foreign trade. The day's freight rush gave employment to 1000 water-front workers.

Panama Mail Line's intercoastal steamer Venezuela sailed for New York, via Central American ports, last night with 112 cabin passengers and 3000 tons of California freight. Among the travelers are Arthur S. Vaughn, millionaire Nicaraguan coffee planter and owner of the famous Hacienda San Francisco, returning home after a California vacation accompanied by Mrs. Vaughn and their two children, Virginia and Arthur H. S., Jr.
